Nigel John-Ross Henry Sentenced To 75 Months In Prison For Conspiracy To Commit Wire And Mail Fraud And Identity Theft In An Elder Sweepstakes Scam

Nigel John-Ross Henry, 38, a Jamaica citizen, was sentenced by the Honorable Thomas A. Varlan, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Knoxville.

As part of the plea agreement filed with the court, Henry agreed to plead guilty to an indictment charging him with, one count of conspiracy to commit wire and mail fraud in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1349, 1341, and 1343; and one count of aggravated identity theft in violation of 18 U.S.C. §1028A. Henry was sentenced to 75 months in prison, followed by five years' supervised release. Henry has been ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $331,569.39, jointly, and severally with co-conspirators, Di-dre Rochelle Weir and Diedria Roseanne Faulkner, who were both sentenced to 21 months imprisonment in December 2023.

According to filed court documents, the conspiracy was a sweepstakes scam that targeted the elderly. Elderly victims from across the United States were targeted by

Meth

Latashua Ingram, 40, Grove Street Loudon, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, and Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth.

Officer Law LCPD was on routine patrol when he observed a gold Toyota Highlander (TN Tag 292-BHXX) traveling on Highway 321 repeatedly touching the shoulder for approximately a mile to a mile and a half. Upon conducting a traffic stop at 390 Highway 321 North "Weigel's", Officer identified the driver to be Latashua Ingram. While speaking to Ms. Ingram the officer observed her to be profusely sweating from her forehead while it was approximately 38 degrees outside, and her to have dilated pupils. During his investigation Ms. Ingram stated she had taken her 1mg clonazepam four hours prior to our encounter. Ms. Ingram then consented to ARIDE, to which she performed unsatisfactorily. During HGN, Officer observed Ms. Ingram he observed lack of smooth pursuit, and distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation in both of Ms. Ingram's eyes. During the instruction phase of the walk and turn, Ms. Ingram repeatedly kept stepping off the line, and then began the test before being instructed to do so. During the walk and turn she did an improper turn and used her arms to balance. During the one leg stand, Ms. Ingram placed her foot down twice and used her arms to balance. Ms. Ingram was placed under arrest, after placing her under arrest, she was read the Tennessee Blood and/or Breath Consent Advisement, to which she refused a blood draw.

Ms. Ingram was then placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. While at the Jail the officer located approximately .50 grams of a white crystal-like substance believed to be Meth in her purse. This incident did take place within Loudon County, Tennessee, and all the above occurred in Lenoir City, TN

Ryan Hanks, 45, Apple Tree Drive Clinton, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. VI, Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, Theft of Property, Vandalism, Simple Possession, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Officer Eldridge was conducting routine traffic patrol on Town Creek Parkway when he passed a Black Truck (337BLMG) who's driver was not wearing a seatbelt. A traffic stop was conducted on Glenfield Dr. at Harrison Rd and contact was made with the driver (Ryan J. Hanks) and passenger.

While speaking with Hanks, Officers noticed a strong odor of marijuana emanating from the vehicle and asked the driver to step out of the vehicle to continue the conversation. Hanks was asked for consent to search his vehicle and replied "NO" but was then informed that a probable cause search of the vehicle would be performed due to the odor of marijuana. Hanks did tell officers that he had approximately an ounce of marijuana inside a green bag located in the vehicle. While retrieving the bag, Officers noticed a small pouch with a glass pipe located on the outside in the middle console area. Upon further inspection of the bag, another glass pipe was located, along with 6.43G of Meth in a zip lock bag, a wax pen, and one small container of THC wax. Ryan took ownership of the drugs and paraphernalia and was placed in custody without incident.

Dispatch also advised officers that Ryan had two Loudon County warrants for Theft and Vandalism. Ryan was transported to the Loudon Co jail and the vehicle was released to his brother the passenger.

The approximate weight of the marijuana came to 36.45G and will be sent off to TBI for exact measurements and the paraphernalia was photographed and destroyed.

 telephone being told they had won a large sum of money even though they had never entered the lottery. In order to claim the prize money, victims were told they had to pay taxes on the winnings first. If the victim fell for the scam, a co-conspirator continued to call the victim for more "tax" money. The number of calls to the victim became more frequent. If needed, the co-conspirator pretended to become the victim's paramour, making the continued requests for additional "tax" money more palatable. The scam did not stop until the victim had no more money, or the victim figured out s/he was being deceived. Sometimes the conspiracy was able to fraudulently obtain Personal Identity Information (PII) from the victim. Armed with the PII, the conspiracy took over the victim's identity and bilked the victim's financial accounts directly. There were instances when a victim had been bilked of their life savings and that the victim was brought into the conspiracy as a "mule" to receive "tax" money from other victims. The "mule" would be told where and how to send the money minus a nominal fee for his/her trouble. Ultimately, the stolen money was sent to Henry, who took his cut and wired the rest to unknown conspirators in Jamaica.

U.S. Attorney Francis M. Hamilton, III of the Eastern District of Tennessee, and Resident Agent in Charge, Jason Brown, of the United States Secret Service, made the announcement.

The criminal indictment was the result of an investigation by the United States Secret Service. This investigation was led by USSS Senior Special Agent Lesley Cochran.

Assistant United States Attorney Jennifer Kolman represented the United States.

ber of goals, Capricorn, and discussions could lead to how you could work together in order to make them happen for both of you.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18
Discussions with others could result in new plans and opportunities for advancing yourself on any level you wish: career, financial, or social. Inner resources may come to light that you might not have been aware of before.

Pisces 2/19-3/20
Your life circumstances may have altered so much in the past few months that you could be in an entirely different space than ever before. Pisces. Success and good fortune have increased your self-image, and business and money matters should be going well.

Aries 3/21-4/19
You may have preferred not to acknowledge your own psychic abilities in the past, Aries, but today they could prove impossible to ignore. Visions, premonitions, and telepathic messages from others could pop into your mind all day.

Taurus 4/20-5/20
The recent completion of one or more long-term goals may cause you to pause today and consider what you're going to aim for next.

Gemini 5/21-6/20
Recent career advances may have you wondering where to go next. You could be considering taking some time off to travel or perhaps advance your education. You aren't likely to want to rest on your laurels, Gemini.

Cancer 6/21-7/22
A new and highly compelling interest may have captured your imagination. You could find it difficult to think of much else, Cancer, and so it might be a good idea to try to find the most beneficial ways to pursue this subject.

Leo 7/23-8/22
Today you might turn your attention toward discovering new ways to advance yourself financially, Leo. You're likely to be more aware than usual of your inner power. Reading about various possibilities could be enlightening, especially as you're feeling particularly capable today and therefore more likely to be able to zero in on whatever method is best for you.

Virgo 8/23-9/22
Events both in your personal and public arenas could give you a new and unexpected sense of power over your own destiny, Virgo. Perhaps hard work has paid off in career and financial advancement.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Visitors in the home could share stories of strange experiences of some sort, perhaps intense and vivid dreams, visions, or maybe premonitions that have come true.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21
Today you could enter a new romantic relationship, Scorpio, or you could experience a new sense of unity and commitment within an existing one.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21
Today you're likely to be feeling especially fit and healthy and able to take on the most monumental of tasks, Sagittarius. Therefore, you could well decide
