Loudon Tennessee Man Pleads Guilty to Felony Assault on Police Officer During Jan. 6 Capitol Breach

An Officer's Struggle with Defendant Over a Shield Was 'Aggressive and Persistent.'

A Tennessee man pleaded guilty yesterday to a felony charge for his actions during the breach of the U.S. Capitol on Jan. 6, 2021. His actions and the actions of others disrupted a joint session of the U.S. Congress convened to ascertain and count the electoral votes related to the 2020 presidential election.

Devin McNulty, 28, of Loudon, Tenn., pleaded guilty in the District of Columbia to one count of assaulting, resisting, or impeding certain officers. The sentencing hearing is scheduled for June 28, 2024.

According to court documents, on Jan. 6, 2021, McNulty was first seen among the crowd at the west front of the Capitol building. From there, McNulty scaled the retaining wall to reach the Upper West Terrace of the U.S. Capitol. In surveillance footage, McNulty, with his distinctive long curly hair, can be seen walking from the west side of the U.S. Capitol to the north side at 2:52 p.m.

Deshawna Buckholtz, 43, Hassler Mill Road Harriman, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Jason Gordon, 46, Daysville Road Rockwood, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Deputy Watson LCSO, was sitting stationary on Interstate 75 Northbound at the 66 MM. Deputy observed two black sedans traveling in the slow lane. The second sedan was following the first sedan too closely. Deputy pulled out and caught up to both vehicles that had switched to the fast lane. The second sedan failed to maintain lane and crossed the inside fog line. Deputy stopped the vehicle for failing to maintain lane. Deputy made contact with Jason Gordon (Suspect/Arrestee) and Deshawna Buckholtz (Suspect/Arrestee) inside the vehicle. During investigation, Deputy discovered that Ms. Buckholtz had an active violation of parole warrant. While interviewing Mr. Gordon, he made the statement that he had needles inside the vehicle that he had previously used for drug use. Deputy performed a probable cause search of the vehicle due to the drug paraphernalia and discovered a small zip bag sitting on the middle console that had a small tin container and a cut straw with white residue on it. Deputy opened the small tin container and located a small zip-lock baggie containing approximately .4 grams of a crystal-like substance that the deputy believed to be meth. Deputy asked both Mr. Gordon and Ms. Buckholtz if the bag that he had located the meth in belonged to either one of them and they both denied ownership. Mr. Gordon and Ms. Buckholtz were the only two occupants of the vehicle at the time of his stop. Deputy placed both subjects into custody and secured them inside patrol vehicles. Mr. Gordon had a family member who was planning to return to the scene for his vehicle. Deputy placed the small baggie containing the crystal-like substance into evidence. Both subjects were transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

DUI

Richard Sinclair, 46, Bird Road Lenoir City, was charged with DUI, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy Watson LCSO, patrolling the area of Highway 70 at Highway 321 when he observed two vehicles following each other into a parking lot of a business that had been closed for several hours. The vehicles left the parking lot almost immediately after entering it and returned to Highway 321. The vehicles then made a right turn onto Williams Ferry Road.

Deputy followed the vehicles and once he caught up to the vehicles, they pulled over on the side of the road in front of Baptist health care. Deputy approached the first vehicle and made contact with a male (others involved). The male stated that he was trying to follow his buddy home to make sure he made it okay. Deputy made contact with Richard Sinclair (Suspect/Arrestee) in the driver seat of the front vehicle.

Deputy observed Mr. Sinclair to have bloodshot watery eyes and dilated pupils. Deputy asked Mr. Sinclair if he had anything to drink tonight and he stated he had one beer. Mr. Sinclair then said that he had two 24 oz. beers.

Deputy asked Mr. Sinclair to exit his vehicle for further investigation. Mr. Sinclair exited his vehicle and was unsteady on his feet. Mr. Sinclair agreed to perform SFST/ARIDE and performed poorly. Mr. Sinclair was placed into custody and secured in deputy patrol vehicle.

Deputy read Mr. Sinclair implied consent and he refused. Deputy transported Mr. Sinclair to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Charged

Cory Price, 43, Markwood Road Loudon, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth. and Violation of Probation.

Investigator Clay Jenkins LCSO, and Investigator Caleb Green, responded to Christian St (Dollar General) for an unwanted guest. They then made contact with suspect Corey Price who we had prior knowledge to have an active warrant out of Loudon County Criminal Court (Docket #2022-CR-153) for Violation of Probation. He was then taken into custody and searched. In Mr. Price's right front pocket was a clear baggie with a clear like substance (Methamphetamine) weighing approx. 0.6 gram. Sgt. Cole Rogers then transported Mr. Price to the Loudon County Jail without incident. Deputy then tested the clear like substance with the TruNarc in which it did test positive for Methamphetamine (Scan #2531). All of this did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Timothy Carver Sentenced To 460 Months In Prison For Child Pornography Offenses

Timothy Carver, 54, of Jonesborough, Tennessee, was sentenced to 460 months in prison by the Honorable Clifton L. Corker, United States District Judge, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Greeneville.

Carver was convicted following a jury trial in April 2023 of knowingly producing child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2251(a); knowingly distributing child pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(2)(A); and knowingly possessing child pornography involving a child less than 12 years of age, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252A(a)(5)(B).

Evidence presented at trial proved the defendant videoed and photographed himself engaged in sexual acts with a two-year-old. The proof further showed that he distributed a child pornography video to an FBI Online Covert Agent using a messaging application. FBI agents searched the defendant's cellular phone and discovered 1,735 photo and video files containing child pornography.

Carver will serve 460 months in prison and will also be subject to lifetime supervision and placement on the sex offender registry.

U.S. Attorney Francis M. Hamilton, III of the Eastern District of Tennessee and Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") Special Agent in Charge Joseph E. Carrico, Federal Bureau of Investigation, made the announcement.

The FBI, including agents from the Johnson City, Tennessee, and Pittsburgh Pennsylvania Field Offices, led the investigation that resulted in the indictment and subsequent conviction of Carver. The Washington County Sheriff's Office also provided assistance in the investigation.

Assistant U.S. Attorneys Emily Swecker and Thomas McCauley represented the United States.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood (PSC), a nationwide initiative to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice. Led by U.S. Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section, PSC marshals federal, state, and local resources to better locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims. For more information about PSC, please visit www.projectsafefchildhood.gov.

Jan. 6

McNulty then followed the terrace around to the north door of U.S. Capitol, where a large group of rioters gathered and attempted to breach into the building.

As McNulty approached the north door, he appeared to be affected by a chemical irritant, causing him to turn back to the crowd. Later, video footage shows an alarm coming from the Capitol building as well as loud music in the crowd. Eventually, some law enforcement officers moved between the rioters and the north door. One officer told the rioters, "Get back, everyone get back." The rioters demanded that the officer let them into the Capitol building. The same officer responded, "I can't do that." McNulty was visible to the right of the officer.

Later, additional law enforcement officers arrived to clear the terrace of the rioters. McNulty stood in front of the line of officers and violently pushed against one officer's riot shield multiple times over the course of several seconds. The officer, a member of the Prince George's County Police Department, was interviewed about the incident after January 6. The officer claimed to distinctly remember the interaction with McNulty as aggressive and persistent. The officer explained that McNulty tried to gain control of their shields and that the officers had to exert increasingly more effort to counter McNulty's force.

McNulty was arrested in Atlanta on June 13, 2023.

This case is being prosecuted by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia. Valuable assistance was provided by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Tennessee.

that will help continue your good feelings. Consider all aspects of your health, including emotional and spiritual.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

If there's something crafty or artsy you've had your eye on and would really like to get but can't afford, Pisces, consider making it. Even if you don't consider yourself artistic, you may surprise yourself if you give a project half a chance.

Aries 3/21-4/19

It's the perfect day to get up and head outside, Aries. You'll likely find yourself feeling positive and energetic, and some fresh air, sunshine, and physical activity may be long overdue.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

It won't be surprising if you find yourself getting frustrated with a close friend or partner today who is far less ambitious than you, Taurus. The energy in the air can really emphasize your "go, go, go" way of reaching goals and achieving success.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

See about using your good relationships with friends and loved ones today to get some group activities going, Gemini. Chances are you'll feel pretty good and the idea of socializing will appeal to you. See about inviting people over for supper or a game of cards.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

If you're lacking a regular exercise routine, Cancer, today's a great day to turn that around. Exercise doesn't have to wear you out or hurt. Even relaxing activities like walking or yoga are excellent ways to keep you in good shape.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Put your ambition into action today, Leo. The day's planetary aspects should find you feeling energetic and positive. Make the most of this by taking steps toward your goals. As you know, if you don't actively pursue things, nothing will happen.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Don't hesitate when it comes to taking on a project or making plans today, Virgo. Extra energy will complement your organizational skills, making the perfect combination to handle almost anything.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Today should go well for you, Libra. Expect to feel a renewed energy and perspective on things, especially those that are work related. Make the most of this by working toward finishing projects that are waiting for you or by cleaning and organizing your desk or broom closet.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Today you may notice that you're feeling very creative and ambitious, Scorpio. You might want to use these strengths to work directly on an artistic project. Or you may choose to channel that energy into activities like organizing your home or workspace.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Don't be surprised if you wake up feeling super today, Sagittarius. Chances are good that you'll feel a renewed physical strength with energy to spare. That said, it might be a good day to tackle any projects that require you to use some muscle.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

The effect from the planetary aspects will bring an end to any lethargy you've been feeling, Capricorn. It's an excellent day to get up and head into the open to do something active. Walking, running, or going on a hike can make great use of both your energy and creativity. Fresh air and physical exertion will lend much to your health as well, so make the most of this.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Loudon County General Sessions Court at the Justice Center is upgrading our Court's computer server from the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Our computer system will be down on Tuesday, February 27, 2024 for the day.

We strategically planned this event, as this is the Judicial Conference week, and there is no court on our dockets.

Our office will be open as normal, however, our computers will not be functional. We will not be able to provide any research of cases, enter new process to the computer system, or locate the docket numbers, etc. of any cases.

Law Enforcement Agencies can still submit warrants to Kim Nix, JC as normal during the daytime hours, they can be viewed on her tablet. (Laura Standridge will be out of the office on this date).

We apologize for this inconvenience, however, it is necessary for the efficiency of our office, and to better serve you.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation. Please feel free to pass on to your staff.
