Securing the Super Bowl

Inside the FBI's presence at the Las Vegas Fusion Center

Over the past decade, America's Playground has only gotten busier.

Las Vegas was already known across the globe for its bustling nightlife and entertainment scene. Now, the city continues to expand with motor racing, basketball, football, and baseball.

In just a few days, they will host the Super Bowl, one of the highest-profile events in the nation. With more and more special events, the challenges to keep attendees safe become more nuanced and require greater coordination. For the FBI Las Vegas Field Office, the key to achieving this goal lies at what is known as the Las Vegas Fusion Center.

A fusion center an environment where representatives from a variety of law enforcement agencies, as well as federal, state, and local organizations, have a shared space to collaborate when managing major events within the center's area of operations. There are more than 80 fusion centers across the country. The Las Vegas Fusion Center was started in 2007 and moved in 2010 to be hosted by Karri Anthis, 42, Barb Hollow Road Wallen, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and False Reports/Statements.

Candy Morgan, 45, Thomas Weaver Road Knoxville, was charged with Simple Possession, Possession of Drug Para., Public Intoxication, and Criminal Impersonation.

Deputy Watson LCSO, responded to Highway 411 (Dollar General) in reference to an overdose. Upon arrival, Dep. Chief C. Hutchens had made contact with two females inside the business.

The females did not have any identification on them but gave their alleged names and dates of birth for verification. Deputies were unable to locate any identification for one female who stated her name was Besty out of the state of Florida. The second female, Identified as Karri Anthis (suspect/Arrestee) confirmed the wrong name of the unidentified female to be Besty. Deputy observed the unidentified female to be unsteady on her feet and was very drowsy almost nodding out while standing up. Deputy asked the female to exit the store to his patrol vehicle for further investigation. Once outside, The female consented to a search of her person. While the deputy was performing the search, a black vile fell out of the shirt sleeve of the female onto the ground. Cpl. Brandon Dishner picked the vile up and located approximately .2 grams of brown powder inside a blue baggie. Deputy placed the female in custody at this time and secured her in his patrol vehicle. Dep. Chief Hutchens was granted verbal consent to search the vehicle by Ms. Anthis. Ms. Anthis admitted that the unidentified female's real name was Candy Morgan (04/17/1978). The vehicle while deputy was searching the vehicle. Deputies located a cut pink straw with drug residue on it and a glass pipe with drug residue inside of it in the unidentified female's purse. Deputy located approximately 1.5 grams of a crystal-like substance in Ms. Anthis's purse in a twisted-up baggie. Ms. Anthis was placed in custody and secured in his patrol vehicle. Chief Hutchens placed all the items that the Deputies located into evidence. Both females were transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. Upon arrival at the Loudon County Jail, the deputy was able to confirm the unidentified female as Candy Morgan (04/17/1978). The vehicle was towed from the scene by Moneymakers Wrecker Service. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Brandon Clark, 36, Air Way Ridge road Louisville, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy Brockwell LCSO, arrived at Highway 411 South for a physical domestic that occurred. Deputy spoke with (the complainant), and he stated that him and his brother got into an argument over a video game. When they were arguing, his brother, Brandon Clark pushed him over while he was sitting in a chair. Brandon proceeded to attack him by getting on top of victim striking him in the head multiple times. Victim stood up and that is when Brandon swung his arm towards victim head striking him with his forearm (no apparent injuries). Deputy then spoke with Brandon, and he stated that the victim got upset because he lost in a video game and started yelling at him. That is when he pushed the victim over breaking the chair and then helped him up and hit him in the head with his forearm. Based on the stories and the evidence found, Deputy placed Brandon Clark under arrest for Domestic Assault and transported him to the Loudon County Detention Facility. This did happen in Loudon County, TN without further incident.

Thomas Murr, 61, Homeless Loudon, was charged with DUI, Driving on Roadways Laned with Traffic, and Evading Arrest.

Officer Sparks LCPD, while conducting routine patrol, observed a white Ford Fusion traveling in the wrong direction of travel. The vehicle was traveling South in the Northbound lane of travel approaching the intersection of Hwy 321 N / Town Creek Parkway. Officer initiated a traffic stop of that vehicle which stopped in the parking lot of Chili's - Fort Loudoun Medical Center Drive. Upon making contact with the driver of the vehicle, later identified as Thomas Ray Murr, officer observed that his eyes were bloodshot and glossy, and he presented disoriented. Officer asked Mr. Murr to exit the vehicle and for him to perform Standardized Field Sobriety Testing, to which he agreed. During the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus portion of the SFSTs, Officer observed the Lack of Smooth Pursuit, Distinct and Sustained Nystagmus at Maximum Deviation, and the Onset of Nystagmus Prior to 45 Degrees in both eyes. Mr. Murr stated he was unable to perform the other portions of the testing due to an issue with his knee. Mr. Murr advised he had consumed a "couple of Bud Light's" approximately 6 hours before the interaction. Mr. Murr was unable to provide a list of his prescription medication, but advised that they were prescribed for neuropathy, gout and heart conditions. Mr. Murr was advised to have a seat in his vehicle for a brief moment. Officer returned to his vehicle in order to request a warrant and status check of Mr. Murr through dispatch. While in his vehicle, Mr. Murr closed the door to his vehicle and fled from the stop. The officer initiated his siren, along with his emergency lights that were already activated, and followed Mr. Murr in his vehicle. After fleeing from the stop, Mr. Murr traveled at low speeds through the parking lot of Chili's, made a few turns through the lot and finally came to a stop still within the parking lot. Officer placed Mr. Murr into custody once out of the vehicle.

He was transported to the Fort Loudoun Medical Center for a blood draw, to which he consented to after being read the Tennessee Implied Consent Agreement. This incident did take place within Loudon County, Tennessee

“Our primary focus is to prevent acts of terrorism, mass casualty incidents, and any significant criminal or transnational criminal activity,” said Cary Underwood, fusion center director. “We have numerous federal, state, and local agencies all working together toward that common goal.”

When you walk into the fusion center, it can feel like you’re in a scene from a movie.

The lights are often down, and a wall of screens is clued in to everything from traffic cameras to the local weather report. For the foreseeable future, several screens will be dedicated to many angles of Allegiant Stadium, site of Super Bowl LVIII.

Las Vegas is a city that never slows down or turns off. Personnel from the Las Vegas police and fire departments, FBI, DHS, TSA, FAA, Homeland Security, and the National Weather Service, among others, operate this fusion center 24/7. All parties are focused on keeping attendees safe at the Super Bowl.

Planning for the Super Bowl “started over a year ago,” said Assistant Special Agent in Charge Jeremy Schwartz of FBI Las Vegas. The FBI provides bomb technicians, WMD experts, additional agents, and other operational resources to the city during the Super Bowl.

But what is most valuable, says Schwartz, is “having a full-time footprint at the fusion center in the Valley.”

Adam Seely, section lieutenant, Southern Nevada Counterterrorism Center, adds, “Having the FBI as part of the Southern Nevada Counterterrorism Center has helped us greatly. It’s enhanced our communications with our FBI partners, and we’re able to jointly work investigations with them. It’s a great working relationship ... and it’s critical, especially, that we work with the fusion center to protect the city.”

Horoscopes

related to work or finances.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Your ability to concentrate will be enhanced today, Pisces. If you have studying or detailed work to tend to, this will be an opportune time to get to it. Hobbies that require a lot of focus may also strike your fancy.

Aries 3/21-4/19

It's time to get up and get moving, Aries. If your job or home life leans toward the sedentary, your health can suffer if you don't engage in some physical activity. Not only is your body affected by a lack of exercise but your mind and emotional disposition can become depleted over time as well.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

It's a great day to explore your creativity, Taurus. This probably isn't a new thing for you, since you're artistic. Staying focused on one thing can be another story, though.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Taking the easy way out won't tempt you in the least today, Gemini. This isn't to say that you usually favor this approach, by any means; yet it's safe to say that everyone is tempted from time to time.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Practicality and planning will work well for you today, Cancer. It's a good time to take a long look at your financial situation. Are you where you want to be? Have you got plans in place for down the road?

Leo 7/23-8/22

It's a super day to make decisions, Leo. You can sit on the fence for a little too long when it comes to serious choices. Seize the energy that flows from today's planetary aspects, make a list of things that need to be decided in the areas of work, relationships, and finances, and go down the list one by one.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

It's a great day to set some of your ideas into motion, Virgo. The courage you need to forge ahead is available to you with this day's planetary aspects. All you need to do is use it. If your thoughts aren't clear, sit down and write your ideas out.

Libra 9/23-10/22

A renewed sense of values and integrity may be present for you today, Libra. Connecting with this can be extremely uplifting, as it can put everything into perspective for you. With your hardworking tendencies, it can be easy to drift from the things that are most important to you as a person.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Settling a dispute may be on your agenda today, Scorpio. You may find yourself getting caught smack in the middle of the stew if you aren't careful. If this happens, the wisest thing might be to pull out.

You're likely to be feeling pretty energetic today, Sagittarius, making it an opportune time to do some much-needed cleaning and organizing. Why not tackle those closets, attic, and storerooms? If you have to work, your desk, work-space, and filing cabinets could use a little attention. Just think how great it will feel when everything is in order! Make the most of your energy by accomplishing as much as you can.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

See about getting as active as possible today, Capricorn. This could really give your overall health a boost, especially if you've been sedentary lately. Try something fun like engaging in sports or taking a pooch for a walk. Gardening and cutting the lawn are other activities that are better for you than sitting all day.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

The Loudon County General Sessions Court at the Justice Center is upgrading our Court's computer server from the Administrative Office of the Courts.

Our computer system will be down on Tuesday, February 27, 2024 for the day.

We strategically planned this event, as this is the Judicial Conference week, and there is no court on our dockets.

Our office will be open as normal, however, our computers will not be functional. We will not be able to provide any research of cases, enter new process to the computer system, or locate the docket numbers, etc. of any cases.

Law Enforcement Agencies can still submit warrants to Kim Nix, JC as normal during the daytime hours, they can be viewed on her tablet. (Laura Standridge will be out of the office on this date).

We apologize for this inconvenience, however, it is necessary for the efficiency of our office, and to better serve you.

Thank you in advance for your understanding and cooperation. Please feel free to pass on to your staff.
