Carter County Receives 2nd Consecutive Poor Audit

The latest audit of Carter County shows that much work is necessary to improve the financial management of the county government.

The annual audit for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2023, reveals material weaknesses, significant deficiencies, and noncompliance within Office of the Finance Director.

The audit contains 10 findings, six of which were also reported in the fiscal year 2022 audit report and had not been corrected. Two of the findings are related to Comptroller's Office investigations of the Carter County School and Solid Waste departments that were released last year.

The first finding in the audit shows that Carter County did not comply with its policy to develop a balanced budget for the 2023 fiscal year because the county budgeted to use fund balance instead of current revenues to support its operations.

Auditors also noted the Office of Finance Director failed to properly maintain accounting records; failed to hold spending within the limits authorized by the county commission;

Charged

Jeremy Kerr, 47, New-ton Road Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic As-sault.

Officer Law LCPD, was dispatched to Grayson Freed-man Apt 102 in reference to a domestic. Upon arrival the officer made contact with Jer-emy Kerr "Boyfriend", and victim "Girlfriend", while inside the apartment the of-ficer observed the victim covered in chocolate cereal. While conducting my inves-tigation, the officer observed milk and chocolate cereal all over the floor and walls of the apartment. During my in-vestigation, the victim stated her, and Mr. Kerr had been arguing for most of the night, then she stated while she was eating her cereal, he picked up the bowl and threw it all over her. The victim then stated she pushed Mr. Kerr back, to which he then pushed her against the front door to which the back of her head struck the door. The officer did observe and feel a knot on the back of the victim head that coincided with her story. Mr. Kerr stated that he and the victim had been arguing when she picked up her bowl of cereal and tossed it towards him. Mr. Kerr stated that he was able to move out of the way before it covered him, and that the vic-tim then slipped on the cereal on the floor thus resulting in her falling into the front door. During his investigation, the officer observed the victim covered from her face to her feet in chocolate cereal, the victim did not observe any cereal on her back thus mak-ing it appear that she did not slip and fall on her back into the chocolate cereal as stated by Mr. Kerr. Mr. Kerr was deemed the primary aggres-sor and placed under arrest. Mr. Kerr was then transport-ed to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This inci-dent did take place within Loudon County, Tennessee, and all the above occurred in Lenoir City, TN.

at and threaten him, and the manager contacted 911.
