Kingsport Man Convicted at Trial on Firearm Charge

Following a two day trial in United States District Court in the Eastern District of Tennessee at Greeneville, before the Honorable J. Ronnie Greer, United States District Judge, a federal jury convicted Eric Eugene Robinson, 55, of Kingsport, Tennessee, of being a felon in possession of a firearm in violation of 18 U.S.C.

Sentencing is set for July 22, 2024, at 9:00 a.m., before Judge Greer in United States District Court in Greeneville, Tennessee. Robinson faces a sentence of a minimum of 15 years, up to life, in prison, a fine of up to $250,000, and a term of supervised release of up to five years.

The evidence and testimony presented during the trial showed that in early September of 2020, surveillance was conducted at a residence in Kingsport, which determined that Robinson, a convicted felon, was in possession of a firearm. A search warrant was executed at the residence by the Kingsport Police Department and, during the search, a 9mm pistol, with a loaded magazine, was located Regina Helton, 44, Abbott Road Lenoir City, was charged with, Aggravated Burglary, Assault x2, and Resisting Arrest.

Deputy Jackson, along with CPL Sartin, CPL Wallen, and Deputy Branson LCSO, responded to Abbott Road for an assault. While en route, Loudon County Dispatch told us that Regina Helton had entered the residence and assaulted the residents. CPL Sartin was first on the scene, and spoke with the complainants/victims. They asserted that Regina came to the bedroom window where victim 1 stays, and pushed a fan from the window into the room. She then entered the home through the front door, without consent, at which time they told her to leave. She began attacking victim 1 and 2, leaving visible marks on victim 2 neck.

Deputies then attempted to make contact with Regina, but she would not come out of her residence at Abbott Road. Deputies made entry through the rear, unlocked door, and Regina began yelling. CPL Sartin was attempting to make his way to Regina when she pushed a refrigerator onto him. He was able to push it aside, and Regina was taken into custody, after a brief struggle.

She was transported to the Loudon County Detention Center. This occurred in Loudon County, TN.
