Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury Jason Mumpower is pleased to announce a significant accomplishment by nine Tennessee counties. These counties, which are audited by the Comptroller's Division of Local Government Audit, have each received a clean audit report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2023.

The nine counties are Campbell, Cannon, Cumberland, Loudon, McMinn, Robertson, Sevier, Stewart, and Union.

The annual audits for these counties were completed without any findings. Audit findings are used to report on weaknesses, deficiencies, or areas of noncompliance within government operations.

All nine counties are being recognized today at the Tennessee County Services Association Legislative Conference in Gatlinburg.

"These nine counties have worked hard to ensure strong accounting procedures and a system of internal controls that protects public resources," said Comptroller Mumpower. "A clean audit is not easy to achieve. Congratula-

Jacob Dowalter, 18, Riverview Road Loudon, was charged with Contributing to the Delinquency of a Minor x5.

Deputy Watson observed two vehicles driving at a high rate of speed on Highway 11 turning onto Kingston Pike heading east. The deputy pulled out behind the two vehicles and initiated my lights and sirens. One of the vehicles the deputy identified to be a Honda Civic, immediately slowed to a stop on Kingston Pike. The other vehicle that the deputy identified as a Kia SUV continued driving at a high rate of speed down Kingston Pike and eventually turned into Casey's Gas Station. The deputy made contact with both vehicles and determined that a road rage incident had occurred. During my investigation the deputy discovered that 5 out of the 6 occupants of the SUV were juveniles with the driver being an 18 year old adult male. The deputy identified the adult male to be Jacob Dowalter (offender/arrestee). Mr. Dowalter was detained and secured in my patrol vehicle. The deputy interviewed all juvenile parties and contacted their parents to respond to the scene and take custody of each juvenile. The juveniles stated that they were on Highway 11 traveling toward Knox County when they passed a vehicle traveling the opposite direction and a few juveniles in the vehicle threw eggs at the oncoming vehicle. The vehicle then turned around and began following the SUV at a high rate of speed. Due to the juveniles being out past curfew and engaging in delinquent acts, Mr. Dowalter is being charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor for all juveniles involved. No charges are being filed in reference to the road rage incident and all juveniles were released to a responsible party on scene. Mr. Dowalter was transported to Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur in Loudon County, Tn.

Jerry Kile, 75, Maple Hill Road Loudon, was charged with DUI, Aggravated Assault, and Leaving the scene of Accident.

Deputy C. Huskin LCSO, was dispatched to Highway 444 and Amohi Way for a hit and run at which time dispatch advised the suspect vehicle fled the scene and crash into the ditch at Ritchey Rd. and Irene Ln. Deputy arrived on scene and observed a Blue Ford F-150, Tennessee tag BKW8356 in the ditch leaning over on the driver side with a white male identified as Jerry Dean Kile, passed out slumped over in the driver seat with the keys in the ignition. The deputy attempted to open the driver side door to make contact with Jerry and wake him up to see if he was ok. Jerry woke up and stated that he was, "Ok". The deputy asked Jerry if he needed medical, and he stated no. The deputy then advised Jerry to start crawling out of the vehicle from the passenger side at which time he complied. Once he was out of the vehicle, the deputy detected a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person as he spoke to him. Jerry was very unsteady on his feet as he was on the roadway walking towards his patrol vehicle. The deputy did ask Jerry how much alcohol he had to drink and he stated, "a lot". The deputy ask him if he would do Tennessee Standardized Field Sobriety Test and he said, "No." Corporal Hawkins made contact with the victim/complainant, she stated a Blue Ford F-150 started to follow her from Highway 72 and Wade Road. The vehicle followed her when she turned onto Highway 444 and then into the parking lot of "The Neighborhood". It continued to follow her from there back to 444. When she arrived at the intersection of Highway 444 and Amohi Way, the vehicle accelerated and rear ended the victim silver Volvo. The vehicle then sped off from the scene. The victim advised that she wanted to press charges. Corporal Hawkins arrived on scene and advised him his Miranda warning at which time he stated he understood. Corporal Hawkins asked Jerry if he intentionally struck the victim with his vehicle at which time he denied that he had struck any vehicles. The damage on the Silver Volvo was on the rear bumper, right side. The deputy did observe damage to the front bumper of the F-150 on the right left side. Base on my observations of Jerry, The deputy placed him in custody, advised him he was under arrest for DUI, and read him the Implied Consent where he did agree to a blood test. The deputy took Jerry to the Fort Loudon Medical Emergency Room for a blood draw where he refused. Deputy Brooke Slattery again read the Implied Consent, one more time and he still refused. The deputy escorted Jerry to the Loudon County Jail for DUI, Violation Of Implied Consent, and Leaving the Scene Of An Accident.

Marco Guzman-Espinoza, 26, Browder Hollow Road Lenoir City, was charged with Reckless Endangerment x2, and Reckless Driving.

Carlos Escobar, 23, Williams Road Knoxville, was charged with Reckless Endangerment, and Reckless Driving.

Deputy Tony Branson LCSO, did observe two vehicles traveling south on Broadway (Hwy 11) before

D Street at a very high rate of speed and weaving recklessly between cars and cutting them off. Deputy activated his emergency lights and sirens on his marked patrol unit and attempted to catch up to the two vehicles. The deputy caught up to the vehicles, a red Camaro followed by a red Corvette, as both vehicles turned right on Browder Hollow Rd. The driver of the red Corvette, Carlos Ramirez Escobar (offender), slowed and motioned for the deputy to go around. The deputy did pass the Corvette and got behind the Camaro (driven by Marco Guzman Espinoza, offender), but slowed to prevent the Corvette from fleeing, and the Camaro driver activated his hazard lights before coming to a stop in front of Browder Hollow Rd. Upon making contact with both drivers, it was discovered that there was an adult female, (victim), and a baby, (victim), in the Camaro, and a juvenile male, (victim), in the Corvette. Deputies Justin Parks and Moe Jackson arrived on the scene, and all vehicles were moved to the parking lot of the Old Time Gospel Church (1962 Browder Hollow Rd., Lenoir City) for everyone's safety. Lt. Christian Dragon (Lenoir City Police) arrived on the scene to translate because of a language barrier. Carlos Martinez admitted to the deputy that he was drag racing, and stated that he "got caught up in the emotion of it."

Based on training and experience, the deputy determined that both drivers were willfully operating a motor vehicle on a public roadway with disregard for the safety of persons or property that recklessly placed their passengers in imminent danger of serious bodily harm or death. Carlos Escobar and Marco Espinoza were taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Detention Facility without incident. Escobar was charged with one count each of TCA 55-10-205 Reckless Driving and TCA 39-13-103 Reckless Endangerment. Espinoza was charged with one count of TCA 55-10-205 Reckless Driving and two counts of TCA 39-13-103 Reckless Endangerment. Deputy Moe Jackson remained on the scene with the passengers until the passengers and vehicles were released to responsible 3rd parties. All of the above did occur in Loudon County, TN.

tions to all.”

This honor is especially noteworthy for Cumberland County which has earned a clean audit for three years in a row. Cannon, Campbell, and Sevier have received their second consecutive clean audits. It should also be noted that Loudon County has received a clean audit in six of the past seven fiscal years and Robertson County has received a clean audit in four of the past five fiscal years.

The 91 Tennessee counties audited by the Comptroller's Office received a total of 325 findings in fiscal year 2023. This represents an average of 3.57 findings per county. In fiscal year 2022, Tennessee of 3.38 findings in their annual audit reports.

Horoscopes

most anything from a little trip together to a lifetime full of children and grandchildren. Even though your foresight sometimes overcomes your spontaneity, let yourself yield to the unexpected a little bit.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Cancer, you may feel a little tired and depressed over breakfast this morning. Domestic responsibilities sometimes overload your spirit. How about treating yourself to a short vacation - a little free time just for you? You can justify it because it's vital for your morale.

Leo 7/23-8/22

This would be a good day for you to sort out your business, Leo. You should file important papers and get rid of extraneous materials or trivia at work. Taking the time to do this will save you even more time in the long run. As for your love life, be expressive.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

This is going to be a good day to see the doctor, Virgo, but not because you're sick. The atmosphere is ideal for getting a checkup. You've been using a lot of energy recently, and you'd be well advised to take care of your body a bit more right now. Don't be lazy about this.

Libra 9/23-10/22

This should be a peaceful day for you, Libra. Be sure to make the most of it, because it's the calm before the storm. This could be a day of discussion and exchange with close friends or colleagues at work. It's ideal to tighten some of your professional ties.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

"Evidence" is the word for today, Scorpio. Everyone knows that you have a facility for spending your time thinking and analyzing. Today, on the other hand, you're going to be "seeing" things. They will be clear. It will no longer be necessary to study, ponder, and review from every angle.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You will sail through this day on the gentlest of breezes, Sagittarius. It's like you've just come back from a week in the country. You're calm, refreshed, and relaxed, and no amount of trouble at work can shake the feeling. You see things in a more positive light.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

If you're looking for a new job, Capricorn, perhaps this is the day you find it. "Lucky" is the word that sums up today! Without encouraging you to play the lottery, you can be pretty sure that you'll feel a surge of confidence.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You're filled with vitality today, Aquarius. In other words, you're going to feel great about yourself! You're less afraid of meeting people, and you have fewer doubts about everything, including yourself! This is going to be a great day to consider working a little bit less and thinking a little bit more about what, specifically, is making you feel so good.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You may have gotten a financial boost lately in the form of some sort of raise or reward, Pisces. The day ahead will make you realize that more discipline and work will be necessary if you want to continue to prosper.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You're almost certainly in a phase of psychological transformation, Aries, and there have recently been major changes in your circle of friends and associates. Today provides an opportunity to assess just where you are and how far you've come.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You might feel a little worn out right now, Taurus, as if you haven't been getting enough vitamins or rest. Or you could feel like you're losing track of issues that are important to you, such as your children's progress in school. You need to slow down a bit whether you want to or not.
