Rocky Top Man Indicted For Oak Ridge Bank Robbery

A federal grand jury in Greeneville, Tennessee, returned a one count indictment on November 18, 2020 against Warren Calvin Lavender, 31, of Rocky Top, Tennessee charging him with robbing the One Bank of Tennessee Bank in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. Lavender entered a plea of not guilty to the charges in the indictment on December 3, 2020. Lavender will remain in custody pending trial, which has been set for December 28, 2020, in front of United States District Judge Travis McDonough.

Details of the robbery can be found in the criminal complaint and supporting affidavit on file with the U.S. District Court. According to the affidavit, on October 23, 2020, Lavender entered the One Bank of Tennessee Bank and passed a note to the teller demanding money.

The arrest of Lavender see Robbery pg. 5

Verse of the Day

Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

Heroin

Amanda Grompf, 32, Crooked Oak Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. I, and Public Intoxication.

Wesley Reed, 43, Crooked Oak Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Public Intoxication.

Officer Ketner LCPD, stopped to help a disabled vehicle. Officer made contact with AMANDA GOMPH who was walking across Hwy 321. Ms. Gomph seemed impaired and her speech was slurred. She stated that her boyfriend, Wesley Reed, had walked to the gas station to get gas.

Officer made contact with Mr. Reed at the gas station. Mr. Reed also appeared to be under the influence.

Officer took Mr. Reed back to his vehicle where Ms. Gomph was waiting. Officer asked Ms. Gomph did she have anything illegal and she stated "no". Ms. Gomph was carrying a wallet.

The back of the wallet was not zipped all the way; and Officer could see tied up baggie caught in the zipper.

Four (4) individual baggies of suspected Heroin was located in her change purse.

Each bag containing approximately .5 grams of suspected Heroin.

Sugar

Jason Bean, 44, Thomas Henry Way Knoxville, was charged with DUI, and Simple Possession.

Officer DeLand LCPD, was dispatched to the Burger King about a vehicle that's been sitting in their drive trough for 30 minutes. Upon arrival, Officer made contact with a Ford Escape with the engine running. While approaching the vehicle, Officer observed a male subject slumped over the steering wheel. Officer spoke loudly to the driver and he wouldn't wake up. Officer then shook him and he woke up. The driver identified as "Jason P. Bean". Jason had slurred speech and was very confused. Officer asked Jason if he was taking medication. He said "Yes", but stated his sugar was low. He said there wasn't anything on him or in the vehicle. Medics arrived and checked Jason's sugar and said it was normal. Officer then had Jason do the Standard Field Sobriety Test. He did poorly on all test. Officer placed Jason under arrest for Driving under the influence. Upon search incident to arrest of Jason. There was a Blue bottle in his front pocket with a Orange round tablet pill "G72" in it. It identified as "(Oxymorphone) Sch.II Narcotic". Jason was then transported to the "ER" for blood draw and then to the Loudon County Jail. This did happen in Loudon County.

Joey Parson, 47, County Road Alabama, was charged with Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. Of Meth, Possession of Drug Para, and Display of Registration Plate.

Officer R. Miller LCPD, conducted a traffic stop on a red in color Dodge Neon with an Alabama registration. The traffic stop was in regards to the plates not matching the vehicle it was on. The AL registration on the vehicle was (TSS082) which came back to a 1994 White Ford F-150. The VIN on the Neon was ran through dispatch which came back NSR. Upon traffic stop, Officer Miller made contact with the offender later identified as Mr. Joey Parson from Alabama. While speaking with Mr. Parson at his vehicle, Officer Miller immediately saw a digital scale in the passenger side floor board with white residue all over it. Officer Miller then had Mr. Parson exit the vehicle. While speaking with Mr. Parson Officer Miller asked if he had anything or knew of anything that may be illegal inside of the vehicle. He advised he may have a meth pipe. Consent to search the vehicle was also given. A search of the vehicle revealed two little baggies containing a crystal like substance thought to be Methamphetamines (Total Weight: 1.1 grams), a loaded needle (syringe), a glass pipe with residue, and a digital scale with white residue on it.

Mr. Parson was read his rights, and admitted to the crystal substance being meth, and the glass pipe to be a meth pipe. Mr. Parson was then placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

Robbery

ender is the result of the joint efforts of the FBI Safe Streets Task Force, and the Oak Ridge Police Department. Assistant U.S. Attorney Cynthia F. Davidson will represent the United States in court proceedings.

Members of the public are reminded that an indictment constitutes only charges and that every person is presumed innocent until his or her guilt has been proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

Drug Trafficker Sentenced 210 Months For Distributing Kilograms Of Methamphetamine

On November 30, 2020, Jairo Cruz-Rico, 37, a Citizen of Mexico, was sentenced to 210 months (17.5 years) in a federal prison by Senior United States District Court Judge Thomas W. Phillips. Cruz-Rico was a supplier of methamphet-amine for a drug conspiracy that distributed hundreds of kilograms of methamphetamine in Georgia and Tennessee. Cruz-Rico had earlier pled guilty to a conspiracy to possess with the intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine.

On April 30, 2019, Cruz-Rico was apprehended in Georgia by Homeland Security Investigations federal agents while he was on his way to deliver approximately 2 kilograms of methamphetamine. He had a gun with him in his vehicle. Cruz-Rico was a member of a far-reaching drug distribution conspiracy, which was uncovered and dismantled through an investigation led by Homeland Security Investigations and the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Tennessee.

"This case and, more importantly, this conviction send a strong message to anyone who attempts traffic or is thinking about trafficking drugs through our highways and into our communities that you will be apprehended and prosecuted. This conviction and sentence are the result of a sweeping law enforcement effort to stem the flow of drugs from around the world that eventually end up in our communities," said U.S. Attorney J. Douglas Overbey.

"Working with our local, state and federal law enforcement partners, HSI continues to assist in the identification and prosecution of those who participate in drug trafficking conspiracies," said HSI Nashville Special Agent in Charge

Jerry C. Templet, Jr. "Methamphetamine is a dangerous substance that destroys lives and endangers the communities that we are sworn to protect."

This prosecution was the result of a joint investigation by the HSI Knoxville, HSI Atlanta, TBI, 9th Judicial Drug Task Force, Cumberland County Sheriff's Office, Middle Tennessee HIDTA Task Force, and the Tennessee Highway Patrol.

The investigation is a result of the Department of Justice's Organized Crime and Drug Enforcement Task Force (OCDETF) program, the centerpiece of the Department of Justice's drug supply reduction strategy. OCDETF was established in 1982 to conduct comprehensive, multi-level attacks on major drug trafficking and money laundering organizations. Today, OCDETF combines the resources and expertise of its member federal agencies in cooperation with state and local law enforcement. The principal mission of the OCDETF program is to identify, disrupt, and dismantle the most serious drug trafficking and money laundering organizations and those primarily responsible for the nation's drug supply. Assistant U.S. Attorney Kevin Quencer represented the United States.
