Former Munford City Manager Uses City Vehicle for Personal Gain

Former City Manager Now Faces Criminal Charge

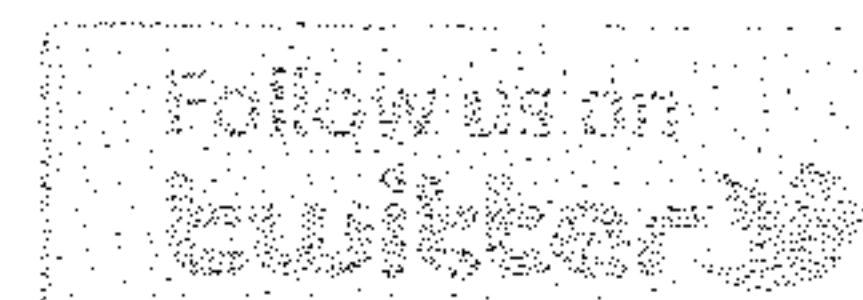

The City of Munford's former City Manager, Peter Colin, has been indicted by the Tipton County Grand Jury after he signed over a city vehicle to himself in order to take advantage of a $2,500 automobile rebate.

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office found that Colin learned about an auto dealership's rebate program that promised incentives for customers who purchased a General Motors vehicle while offering proof of owning a competing brand's vehicle. Since Colin didn't own a qualifying vehicle, he decided to use the City of Munford's Jeep Cherokee.

In June 2018, Colin wrote the city a personal check for $500 to temporar-

All who rely on observing the law are under a curse, for it is written: "Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do everything written in the Book of the Law." Clearly no one is justified before God by the law, because, "The righteous will live by faith."

Hurley

From Attorney T. Scott Jones: as per our conversation yesterday, please find just a few of the accomplishments of Julia Hurley listed and obviously I would point out the current most salient as being the first Loudon County elected by her peers as Tennessee County Commission Board Secretary which is the largest committee in the Governments Legislative Committee groups. This is a big deal and really gives progressive Loudon county a voice as its development explodes. Anyone that would attempt to thwart her position on Commission or on the statewide committee would literally be ignoring all the good that this lady has done for Loudon County while stifling the voice that the County now has on a statewide level.

In addition lets not forget the following:

Gave TN as the final 13 a R seat to move the majority and was the youngest single female elected in state history

State Executive Committee

re-wrote the rules and travelled all 95 counties to present and assist all standing parties in by-laws and leadership changes other Deputy ahead that was working a wreck. The vehicle then came back off Hilltop Road within a minute and continued on its previous direction. Dep-as Susan Wilkerson. Deputy observed Susan pupils to be extremely constrict-ily purchase the city's Jeep. The city recorder did not deposit the check; however, Colin obtained the Jeep's title from the city recorder and used the city's vehicle to acquire the $2,500 rebate for himself.

Colin purchased his new vehicle on June 29, 2018 and signed ownership of the Jeep back to the city on July 18, 2018. Investigators noted that Colin donated $100 to the city on July 19, 2018.

Colin told investigators the city's mayor, Dwayne Cole, gave Colin permission to purchase the city's Jeep. This was refuted by the mayor, who stated that he did not understand Colin's plan and didn't authorize him to carry it out. Colin acknowledged the entire transaction "was just a stupid thing to do." Colin submitted his resignation to the city on May 7, 2019.

In March 2020, the Tipton County Grand Jury indicted Peter Colin on one count of official misconduct.
