U.S. Attorney J. Douglas Overbey Announces $57,554 Award To Address Covid-19 Pandemic In Tennessee

U.S. Attorney J. Douglas Overbey of the Eastern District of Tennessee today announced that Hamilton County received $57,554 in Department of Justice grants to respond to the public safety challenges posed by the outbreak of COVID-19.

The grant is available under the Coronavirus Emergency Supplemental Funding program, authorized by the recent stimulus legislation signed by President Trump. Other jurisdictions can determine if they are eligible for funds and may apply immediately by visiting this website. The Justice Department is moving quickly, awarding grants on a rolling basis and aiming to have funds available for drawdown as soon as possible after receiving applications. "As this country continues to fight COVID-19, our office remains committed to deterring, investigating, and prosecuting those who seek to take advantage of the COVID-19 pandemic. This funding will help many of the communities struggling in these trying times and provide some much-needed relief to our district," said U.S. Attorney Overbey.

public health emergency it created are sobering reminders that even the most routine duties performed by our nation's public safety officials carry potentially grave risks," said Katharine T. Sullivan, Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General for the Office of Justice Programs. "These funds will provide hard-hit communities with critical resources to help mitigate the impact of this crisis and give added protection to the brave professionals charged with keeping citizens safe."

The law gives jurisdictions considerable latitude using these funds for dealing with COVID-19. Potential uses include hiring personnel, paying overtime, purchasing protective equipment, distributing resources to hard-hit areas and addressing inmates' medical needs.

Domestic charge and bond violation

Megan Lawson, 30, Hwy 70 West Lenoir City, was charged with Domestic Assault and Bond Restriction Violation. Deputy JC. Schultz LCSO, answered a physical domestic call at Oakland Ave. Upon arrival Deputy made contact with the victim/suspect, who stated that when he returned home his live in girlfriend Megan Lawson had been drinking all night and accused him of cheating on her with other women and then jumped at him and punched him. Victim stated Lawson has scratched him on the neck leaving 3 5 inch long laceration. Deputy observed the laceration and the victim had a bloody shirt. Victim stated Lawson was walking down Hwy 70. Victim was told how to obtain an order of protection. Deputy Lynn made contact with Lawson who stated that victim got in her face and she punched and scratched him. Dispatch advised there was a bond condition in place from a prior domestic and the parties should not have been in the presence of each other. Megan Lawson was deemed the primary aggressor and placed under arrest. Lawson was also advised she could seek a warrant for the victim on the offence.
