CISA, FBI, and NSA Release Cybersecurity Advisory on Russian Cyber Threats to U.S. Critical Infrastructure

CISA, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and the National Security Agency (NSA) have released a joint Cybersecurity Advisory (CSA) that provides an overview of Russian state-sponsored cyber operations, including commonly observed tactics, techniques, and procedures. The CSA also provides detection actions, incident response guidance, and mitigations. CISA, the FBI, and NSA are releasing the joint CSA to help the cybersecurity community reduce the risk presented by Russian state-sponsored cyber threats.

CISA, the FBI, and NSA encourage the cybersecurity community—especially critical infrastructure network defenders—to adopt a heightened state of awareness, conduct proactive threat hunting, and implement the mitigations identified in the joint CSA. CISA recommends network defenders review CISA's Russia Cyber Threat Overview and Advisories page for more information on

Left Scene

Christopher Frazier, 38, Jena Road Greenback, was charged with DUI, and Leaving the Scene of Accident with Property Damage.

Deputy Eric Curtis LCSO, was dispatched to Hwy 95 S in reference to a crash. Upon arrival, Deputy made contact with a black GMC S15 registered to Christopher Frazier, and it smelled of an alcoholic beverage. There was also a wallet located nearby with a driver's license belonging to Christopher Frazier. Deputy also encountered the mother of the suspect, who stated that she had been on her way to pick up the suspect from an address on Woods Dr. She stated that she observed the truck crash into the fence, tearing up several fence posts. She pulled over and took the suspect home to Jena Rd in Greenback. Mother stated that the suspect was heavily intoxicated and drinks often. Deputy located an empty Natural Light "tall boy" in the bed of the truck. Deputy also spoke to the owner of the residence at Woods Dr, who stated that he had taken the suspect's keys away after observing him drink several "Natty tall boys" attempting to drive away while intoxicated. Owner reported that the suspect turned the truck on anyway and left toward Greenback at approximately 1700. The damaged fence belonged to victim. After Malone's Wrecker Service towed the vehicle, Deputy went to Jena Rd in Greenback and made contact with the suspect. He was asleep in the floor and smelled strongly of an alcoholic beverage. He struggled to his feet and when asked about the crash, thought that his truck was parked in his yard. Due to the statements given by witnesses and the totality of circumstances with the vehicle, Deputy placed the suspect under arrest for Leaving the Scene of an Accident with Property Damage and Driving Under the Influence. No chemical testing was offered due to the suspect being absent from the scene.

DUI

Deven Duda, 31, Hall Street Lenoir City, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, and Driving on Roadways Laned for Traffic.

Deputy Rogers LCSO, observed a black sedan operating at 30 mph in a 40 mph zone. Deputy also noted the vehicle was making sharp swerves and failing to maintain it's lane. Deputy initiated a traffic stop on Hwy 321 near TVA Service Rd and made contact with the driver Mr. Deven Duda. The driver smelled strongly of an alcoholic beverage, had blood shot watery eyes, and was slurring his words. Deputy asked Mr. Duda to exit the vehicle after which he did consent to SFST and ARIDE testing and did not perform satisfactory. See case notes. Mr. Duda stated he was at a friend's house in Maryville having fun for the New Years holiday and drinking Miller Lite. Mr. Duda further stated on a drunk scale of 0-10 he was a 2. Based on the totality of the circumstances Deputy took Mr. Duda into custody for DUI. I supplied and read TN Implied Consent to the offender to which he refused a blood draw. Mr. Duda was cited for Driving on Roadways Laned for Traffic and Violation of Implied Consent. Deputy transported the offender to the Loudon County Jail. Said did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Chinese National Pleads Guilty to Economic Espionage Conspiracy

Xiang Haitao, 44, a Chinese national formerly residing in Chesterfield, Missouri, pleaded guilty today to conspiracy to commit economic espionage.

According to court documents, Xiang conspired to steal a trade secret from Monsanto, an international company based in St. Louis, for the purpose of benefitting a foreign government, namely the People's Republic of China.

"Despite Xiang's agreements to protect Monsanto's intellectual property and repeated training on his obligations to do so, Xiang has now admitted that he stole a trade secret from Monsanto, transferred it to a memory card and attempted to take it to the People's Republic of China for the benefit of Chinese government," said Assistant Attorney General Matthew G. Olsen of the Justice Department's National Security Division. "With his guilty plea, Xiang is now being held accountable for this unlawful conduct."

"Mr. Xiang used his insider status at a major international company to steal valuable trade secrets for use in his native China," said U.S. Attorney Saylor Fleming for the Eastern District of Missouri. "We cannot allow U.S. citizens or foreign nationals to hand sensitive business information over to competitors in other countries, and we will continue our vigorous criminal enforcement of economic espionage and trade secret laws. These crimes present a danger to the U.S. economy and jeopardize our nation's leadership in innovation and our national security."

"The American worker suffers when adversaries, like the Government of China, steal technology to grow their economies," said Assistant Director Alan E. Kohler Jr. of the FBI's Counterintelligence Division. "It's not just military technology developed in secret labs that adversaries want; in this case, it was agricultural technology used by American farmers to improve crop yields. The FBI will continue investigating the theft of technology from American companies because economic security is national security."

According to court documents, Xiang was employed by Monsanto and its subsidiary, The Climate Corporation, from 2008 to 2017, where he worked as an imaging scientist. Monsanto and The Climate Corporation developed a digital, online farming software platform that was used by farmers to collect, store and visualize critical agricultural field data and increase and improve agricultural productivity for farmers. A critical component to the platform was a proprietary predictive algorithm referred to as the Nutrient Optimizer. Monsanto and The Climate Corporation considered the Nutrient Optimizer a valuable trade secret and their intellectual property.

In June 2017, the day after leaving employment with Monsanto and The Climate Corporation, Xiang attempted to travel to China on a one-way airplane ticket. While he was waiting to board his flight, Federal officials conducted a search of Xiang's person and baggage. Investigators later determined that one of Xiang's electronic devices contained copies of the Nutrient Optimizer. Xiang continued on to China where he worked for the Chinese Academy of Science's Institute of Soil Science. Xiang was arrested when he returned to the United States.

Xiang pleaded guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit economic espionage and is scheduled to be sentenced on April 7. He faces a maximum penalty of 15 years in prison, a potential fine of $5 million and a term of supervised release of not more than three years. A federal district court judge will determine any sentence after considering the U.S. Sentencing Guidelines and other statutory factors.

The FBI and the Department of Homeland Security Customs and Border Protection are investigating the case.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Matthew Drake for the Eastern District of Missouri, Senior Trial Attorney Heather Schmidt and Trial Attorney Adam Small of the National Security Division's Counterintelligence and Export Control Section, and Senior Counsel Jeff Pearlman of the Criminal Division's Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section are prosecuting the case.

Passed Out

Daniel Spurling, 46, Homeless, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, Poss. Of Drug Para. X2, and Legend Drug x2.

Deputy Billy Lewis LCSO, was dispatched to the Grizzly Pig for a male subject passed out in a Toyota Avation.

Upon arrival Deputy observed a white male subject passed out behind the wheel with the vehicle running. After knocking hard on the window the male subject identified as Mr. Daniel Spurling had glassy eyes and thought he was in Monroe County Ball Play area. Mr. Spurling consented to field sobriety and did poorly. Sgt. Jenkins arrived on scene and deployed his K9. Sgt. Jenkins advised the K9 alerted and upon search two different prescription bottles were located with the names removed off the bottle. One contained Buspirone 10mg and one contained Amlodipine 5 mg.

A capped syringe was located in Mr. Spurling's left vest pocket and upon arriving at the jail a metal tin was located with cotton inside used for injecting narcotics. Mr. Spurling refused Tennessee Implied Consent due to religious reasons. Mr. Spurling was charged with DUI, Possession of Legend drug times 2 and possession of Drug Paraphernalia times two and violation of Tennessee Implied Consent.

Deputy then transported Mr. Daniel Spurling to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. This did occur in Loudon County Tennessee.

Horoscopes

interests, should bring a lot of positive information your way that you're apt to put to work for you. The level of respect that you get from those around you could be particularly gratifying. Your hard work has not only enriched your socioeconomic standing but your friendships as well. Enjoy your day.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

This is a good day for meditation or spiritual studies of some kind, Aquarius. Your intuition should be operating at a very high level and thus it's going to be easier for you to tune in to the thoughts, feelings, needs, and desires of others, particularly the opposite sex. You might even experience psychic insights or visions that shed light on some questions you've been asking yourself for a while. Write down your thoughts. You'll want to remember them.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Your relationships with just about everyone - friends, lovers, children, colleagues, and even strangers - should be smooth, warm, and supportive today, Pisces. Feelings are easily expressed, although more on a subtle than a verbal level. New business opportunities may open up through contact with new and interesting people. Social events and group activities should therefore contribute more to your personal growth and emotional well-being than they usually do. Make the most of them!

Aries 3/21-4/19

Reflections on your recent success and good fortune with regard to career matters are likely to have you feeling strong, optimistic, and enthusiastic for the future, Aries. Creative projects are going very well, as are relationships with the opposite sex.

This should be a very gratifying day for you, full of warm and loving contact with those closest to you, and signs of continued progress. Enjoy your day, and treat yourself to an evening out.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Good news from a distant state or foreign country could make your day, Taurus. You could well spend the rest of the day basking in the glow of what you've heard. However, this isn't going to affect your relations with others or your work on whatever projects you're involved with right now. This is a good day to get out in the sunshine. Take a walk or drive in the country! Enjoy your day.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

An increase in money could bring a lot of happiness and good feeling into your home. You might be a bit concerned as to how to keep the energy going, but don't worry about it, Gemini. All signs are that your success and good fortune are going to be around for a while. You could, however, explore the idea of making a few cautious investments. This way you'll feel more financially secure than you have in the past.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

The prospect of future business opportunities could have you spending a lot of time on the phone today in discussion with friends or acquaintances who might have information you need, Cancer. Perhaps someone you know has been very successful at an activity he thinks might interest you. All should go very well, but you'll definitely want to be thoroughly informed. You're doing the right thing by securing the facts before plunging on ahead.

Leo 7/23-8/22

A rosy glow over your recent career successes could cause you to congratulate yourself over your growing bank account. This trend should continue for a while, Leo, if you keep on working as you have and maintain a positive and optimistic attitude. Your relationships with others around you, particularly the opposite sex, should be especially warm and loving right now. This should prove to be a thoroughly gratifying day. Use it to your advantage.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Recent successes in your career might inspire you to throw a celebration of some kind with a few close friends, Virgo. You're feeling especially positive and particularly charming at this time, and your confidence is likely to contribute to a new sense of closeness to those around you. Love and romance should also go very well. You've worked hard and it's time to reward yourself. Have a successful day and an enjoyable evening.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Relations with those closest to you should be warm and rewarding, Libra. Financial matters are going so well for you right now that you're apt to be feeling that everything will be perfect from here on out. This optimism and enthusiasm, however, doesn't mean you're taking your good fortune for granted. Rather, it is likely to give you the impetus to continue as you have been, only with more serenity than before.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You've been working very hard for a long time, Scorpio, and now you might be thinking of ways to reward yourself. A trip that you might have dreamed of taking might suddenly seem to be more attainable. Today you might decide to actually make the arrangements. You could well decide to stay for a long time, for there is much that you can learn through this trip.

Sagittarius

11/22-12/21

Sagittarius, visitors in your home might include partners in business activities, members of a group with which you're affiliated, or creative people with great ideas. Therefore, you're likely to enjoy some intense discussions today and a lot of intriguing exchanges of information. Love and romance should also go well, particularly since you're feeling so enthusiastic about life. Take the time to share your dreams with your guests. They might have some good ideas for making a dream a reality.
