U.S. Attorney's Office And Federal Partners Receive National Investigation Of The Year Award From The National Health Care Anti-Fraud Association

The United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Tennessee announces that members of its staff and participating federal partners received a national commendation for their work in Operation HealthWrong, a long-term, multi-defendant health care fraud prosecution. At its annual conference, the National Health Care Anti-Fraud Association ("NHCAA") selected Operation HealthWrong as its nationwide Investigation of the Year.

NHCAA's mission is to protect and serve the public interest by increasing awareness and improving the detection, investigation, civil and criminal prosecution, and prevention of health care fraud and abuse. Each year, the organization issues a national award for the Investigation of the Year and recognizes award recipients at its annual training conference. This year, the successful investigation and prosecutions of multiple defendants arising from Operation HealthWrong received the award.

DUI

Stephanie Day, 37, Andersonville Pike Knoxville, was charged with DUI, Violation of Implied Consent, and Driving on Roadway Laned for Traffic.

Loudon E911 dispatched a reckless driver southbound on I75. The complainant stated they were following a white Nissan Altima which could not maintain its lane. Sgt. Rogers LCSO, observed a white Nissan Altima exit southbound at the 72 exits. Once at the intersection of Hwy 72, Deputy observed the driver(original complainant) of the vehicle behind the white Altima exit their vehicle and run back to Deputy Jackson's vehicle who was just behind the complainant. The white Altima made a left turn onto Hwy 72, and Deputy then pulled out behind it. While observing the vehicle Deputy noted it traveled over the center line multiple times nearly striking an oncoming vehicle. Deputy initiated a traffic stop near Hwy 72 and Carding Machine Rd. Upon contact with the driver, Ms. Stephanie Day, Deputy noted she had bloodshot watery eyes and a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from her person. Ms. Day stated she was coming from Chilis in Turkey Creek en route to a friend's house on Niles Ferry in Greenback. Ms. Day originally stated she had one Michelob Ultra and then stated she had at least two

Crown Royal mixed drinks. Deputy asked Ms. Day to rate her level of impairment (completely sober being 0, blackout drunk being 10), to which she answered "5". Ms. Day was asked to step out of the vehicle multiple times and refused until Deputies began to move towards. Once out of the vehicle Ms. Day lost her balance multiple times and was slurring her words. Deputy also observed vomit down the interior of the driver's side door. Ms. Day refused to do SFST. Based on the totality of the circumstance, Deputy took Ms. Day into custody for DUI and then read her TN Implied Consent which she stated she would not acknowledge. Deputy transported the offender to the Loudon County Jail. Said did occur in Loudon County, TN.

term investigation of a telemarketing and pharmacy scheme, resulted in the indictment of seven individuals (including a medical doctor and two pharmacists) and related organizations they controlled. All but one of the individuals entered guilty pleas to offenses related to the investigation, and a jury found the remaining defendant, Peter Bolos, guilty of conspiracy to commit health care fraud, mail fraud, and criminal misbranding following a month-long trial last year in the United States District Court in Greenville, Tennessee.

In May 2022, the Honorable J. Ronnie Greer imposed sentences in the case that ranged from 14 years in federal prison to probation. The Court also ordered over $100 million in restitution and forfeiture, and the United States recovered over $26 million at or prior to the completion of sentencing. Additional details about individuals prosecuted, and the sentences imposed, can be found in the following press releases: Bolos sentencing and Bolos defendants sentencing.

NHCAA recognized the following members of the United States Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Tennessee for their work on the case: former Assistant United States Attorney T.J. Harker, Assistant United States Attorney Mac D. Heavener, Legal Assistants Barbra Pemberton and April Denard, and IT Specialist Bryan Brandenburg.

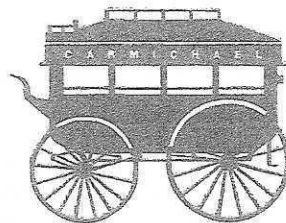

Federal partners receiving recognition included the Department of Justice Consumer Protection Branch

(former Assistant Director John Claud and Trial Attorney David Gung), the United States Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General (Supervisory Special Agent Robert Turner), the United States Department of Homeland Security, Homeland Security Investigations (Special Agent John Lyons), the Federal Bureau of Investigation (Special Agent Reanna O'Hare and Financial Analyst LeAnn Lanz), the United States Food and Drug Administration, Office of Criminal Investigations (Special Agent Brian Kriplean), the United States Office of Personnel Management, Office of Inspector General (Supervisory Special Agent Wayne VanVarick), and the United States Postal Service, Office of Inspector General (Special Agent Timothy Jones).

While performing HGN on Mr. Barrientos, Officer observed him to have the lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes as well as nystagmus in both eyes at maximum deviation. While performing the walk and turn, Mr. Barrientos failed to take the correct number of steps down and back. Mr. Barrientos also was placing his hands inside his pants multiple times to keep balance. Mr. Barrientos stated he no longer wanted to continue the SFST, due to the totality of circumstances Mr. Barrientos was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail. Mr. Barrientos was read the implied consent, in which he refused. During my investigation it was also determined Mr. Barrientos did not have a valid drivers license. All the above occurred in Lenoir City, TN.

Theft

Natasha Harrison, 34, Walnut Street Missouri, was charged with Theft of Property.

Deputy Eric Curtis LCSO, responded to Old Highway 95 in Lenoir City, TN for a call for service involving a stolen vehicle. Upon arrival, Deputy made contact with the victim and complainant. The victim stated that he had allowed a female friend named Natasha Harrison to borrow his vehicle to go to Walmart. After approximately two hours had passed, victim contacted Harrison and asked where she was. Harrison reportedly told him that the vehicle was at Walmart and she had caught a train back to Missouri. There are no passenger train stations in Loudon County. Victim checked the area of the Walmart, but could not locate the vehicle. Victim repeatedly tried to get the location from Harrison but was told multiple times that she did not know where it was. Eventually, victim was blocked. Due to it being a newly purchased vehicle, victim did not have proof of purchase for the vehicle and it had not been registered yet. On 11/10/2022, Deputy went to Lenoir City Auto Sales at W Broadway St in Lenoir City to retrieve a copy of the buyer's agreement and primary registration, which identified the vehicle and victim as the owner. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Ryan Whitlow, 36, Pathkiller Trail Loudon, was charged with Man/Sell/Poss. Of Controlled Substance, and Public Intoxication.

Officer H. Wilkes LCPD, was dispatched to the Murphy USA in reference to a male slumped over the wheel. Upon arrival, Officer observed a male slumped over the wheel of a blue Toyota Corolla, bearing Tennessee registration 651BBGS. After knocking on the window multiple times, the male, later identified as Ryan Michael Whitlow, did not respond. Officer then opened the door to the vehicle, and began to sternum rub Mr. Whitlow, to which he woke up. At that time, Officer asked Mr. Whitlow to step out of the vehicle, and he observed him to be unsteady on his feet, and to be extremely lethargic. While officers spoke with the offender, he was observed to be swaying back and forth, and seemed like he wasn't all there. Mr. Whitlow did give officers permission to search the vehicle, during the consensual search of the vehicle, officers located two clear baggies with white powdery substances in both. One bag was marked "ODSMT", and the other was marked "4-Fluoro Methylphenidate". Both baggies had a marking that stated "Not for Human Consumption" on them. Agent Cody Fritts with the 9th Judicial Task Force took the baggies and tested them using TruNarc, the bag marked "ODSMT" came back positive for Tramadol, weighing 3.19 grams. The other bag weighed 2.48 grams, and is an unidentified white powder. Due to the totality of the circumstances, and Mr. Whitlow being a danger to himself and the public, he was placed into my custody and transported to Loudon County Jail. The vehicle was towed by Money Makers. All of the above did occur in Lenoir City, Loudon County, Tennessee.

Police Beat

Mario Barrientos, 38, Officer Law LCPD, was on a unwanted guest call at E Broadway (Casey's) when he observed a male exited the driver seat of a Blue Honda Fit very unsteady on his feet. Officer then observed the male walk towards the front of the store, while observing the male enter Casey's, Officer observed him to have blood shot watery eyes and the odor of an alcoholic beverage omitting from his persons. Then while on routine patrol Officer observed the Blue Honda Fit (TN Tag 8Y6-9C4) leave Casey's, while following the vehicle Officer observed the vehicle to be traveling down the middie of Bon Street not maintaining their lane of travel. Upon conducting a traffic stop, Officer identified the driver to be Mario Barrientos, while speaking to the driver Officer observed him to have blood shot watery eyes, and the odor of an alcoholic beverage omitting from his persons. While speaking to Mr. Barrientos, he stated he had three beers prior to our encounter, Mr. Barrientos consented to SFST. see Police Beat ctd. pg. 5 occurs on an unconscious level and defies any rational explanation. You may have had a dream last night worthy of professional interpretation. If you can bear turning off your intellect, this could be a very profitable day for you.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

This is a confusing period for all of us, Capricorn. But no doubt you've noticed this. In such circumstances, some people become more rigid than ever because they resist dramatic change. They try to hold on to tradition. Your Capricorn sensitivity makes you very receptive to the past, but current conditions should inspire you to let go of some of your convictions.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

What do you have to lose, Aquarius? The planets are shaking you in the hopes of ridding you of your old objectives to make way for new growth. You feel doubt where once there was only certainty. When you consider the worst that can happen, it may help you to realize that what you're clinging to really isn't all that important. It's time to let go and begin anew.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You aren't the only one who can solve your problems, Pisces. Trust that there are others who are capable of understanding. Those who want to help you are motivated only by love, with no ulterior motives. It's in your nature to be skeptical, but these people do exist. And guess what? You could communicate with one of them today!

Aries 3/21-4/19

Have you noticed how delays seem to occur more often, Aries? Today will be no exception. Something you've been waiting for has been delayed yet again. It may be that the order form got lost or that there was some unforeseeable delay in sending it to you. Even with your mild-mannered Aries temperament, you're beginning to be a little irked! Sit tight. All will be resolved shortly.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Get outside and get moving, Taurus! If you can manage to take the day off, this would be a good time to release some energy. You used to enjoy competition when you were little. Remember how exhilarating it was to be the first to the top of the hill? You will find your life greatly enriched if you could find a way to rekindle similar feelings.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Devote the day to your children or partner, Gemini. You may protest that it's too hard to find the time to give them the attention they deserve. You don't have time for yourself, much less anyone else. In any case, you will probably feel torn between what is expected of you and what you feel you can realistically give. If you want to dispel the inner tension, take care in the choices you make in the next few weeks.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

A friend or family member is slowly poisoning your relationship, Cancer. A misunderstanding between the two of you will ultimately prove beneficial in the long run. Why? It makes you realize how uncomfortable you are with vague, ill-defined relationships. Today would be a good day to write a letter to the person in question. You're likely to find the results gratifying.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You've been a social butterfly lately, Leo! The sociable phase you're currently in demands a great deal of energy. You're attracted to some of your new acquaintances but irritated by others. One in particular causes you real anxiety today. You have two choices. Either abandon your new group of friends entirely or expel the person who's causing you trouble.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Your thin skin feels even thinner than usual today, Virgo. If you happen to witness a violent outburst in the street, at work, or on television, you suddenly become aware of your vulnerability. Don't let it frighten you into hiding. As one of the few remaining guardians of the world's dwindling reserves of kindness, you have a responsibility.

Libra 9/23-10/22

People sometimes say that you're a little aggressive in your approach, Libra. But today you feel a little tired of leading the charge on the battlefield. You can learn a lot from your friends who can teach you to think of things in relative terms without allowing yourself to become emotionally involved in every situation. Try to relax for a change!

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You may be a bit oversensitive today, Scorpio. It's possible that you will be irritable and conflicted as you begin to suspect that long-term projects may not be finished. The time has come to take stock. There is likely a good reason that you've been unable to complete that project you undertook several months ago. Advice from others should steer you in the right direction.
