FBI Atlanta Confirms Partial Remains of Quinton Simon Recovered

The FBI Laboratory Division has confirmed through DNA analysis the bones found in the Superior Landfill are those of missing 20-month-old Quinton Simon.

Chatham County authorities have charged Simon’s mother, Leilani Simon, with murder and other related offenses.

On Monday, November 28, 2022, authorities officially ceased operations at the landfill and began removing Command Post facilities from L. Scott Stell Park.

The FBI is thankful for the partnership with Chief Jeff Hadley and the entire Chatham County Police Department. A monumental team effort was put forth by everyone involved in bringing closure to this horrific situation.

The 5-week search to find Quinton would not have been successful without the dedicated service of several groups. The FBI and Chatham County P.D. would like to offer their sincere thanks to the following:

Deputy Parks LCSO, was dispatched to the area of Christian Street in reference to indecent exposure. Dispatch advised Mr. Kirt Estep had pulled his pants down in front of a child. Deputy located Mr. Estep walking on McCrary Street and made contact. Deputy asked Mr. Estep about the events and he began talking out of his head advising everyone was raping him. Deputy became concerned for Mr. Estep's well-being and asked him if he was mentally okay. At this point Mr. Estep asked if Deputy wanted him to "suck my privates" and asked "do you want me to pull my pants down so you can rape me?" At this point Mr. Estep dropped his pants to his ankles exposing his bare buttocks. Mr. Estep got on all fours in the roadway and said "go ahead." Deputy then placed Mr. Estep under arrest and placed him in the back of his patrol vehicle and transported him to the jail without incident. Dispatch also advised Mr. Estep had been trespassed from Christian Street on 11/17/2022. Deputy later made contact with the complainant, and the juvenile victim, via phone call. Both advised Mr. Estep was on the property and exposed himself to all who were present, including the juvenile. All of the above occurred in Loudon County,

Maryland Man Pleads Guilty to Defrauding Medicaid of More than $700,000 in Scheme Involving Personal Care Services

Defendant is 12th Individual to Plead Guilty Since August 2018

Joseph Tamjong, 51, of Lanham, Maryland, pleaded guilty today to defrauding the D.C. Medicaid program out of $733,405.

The announcement was made by U.S. Attorney Matthew M. Graves, Wayne A. Jacobs, Special Agent in Charge of the FBI Washington Field Office's Criminal Division, Maureen R. Dixon, Special Agent in Charge of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services' Office of Inspector General for the region that includes Washington, D.C., and Daniel W. Lucas, Inspector General for the District of Columbia.

Tamjong pleaded guilty in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to health care fraud, which carries a statutory maximum penalty of 10 years in prison. Under federal sentencing guidelines, Tamjong faces a likely recommended sentence of between 27 and 33 months in prison. He has agreed to pay $733,405 in restitution and $396,155 in a forfeiture money judgment. The Honorable Christopher R. Cooper, who accepted Tamjong's guilty plea, scheduled sentencing for March 7, 2023.

In court documents, Tamjong admitted that between December 2014 and February 2022, he was employed as a Personal Care Aide and/or a Participant-Directed Worker to provide personal care aide services to residents of the District of Columbia who needed assistance performing activities of daily living, such as getting in and out of bed, bathing, dressing, and eating. Tamjong admitted that he submitted false timesheets that claimed he provided these personal care services when in fact he did not.

As part of his scheme, he even caused Medicaid to be billed for approximately 3,400 hours of services that he purportedly provided when he actually was traveling internationally. On 156 separate occasions, he also caused Medicaid to be billed for 24 hours of services that he allegedly provided in one day.

The FBI, the Department of Health and Human Services' Office of Inspector General, the District of Columbia's Office of the Inspector General's Medicaid Fraud Control Unit, and the U.S. Attorney's Office are committed to investigating and prosecuting individuals who defraud the D.C. Medicaid program.

Tamjong is the twelfth former personal care aide since August 2018 to plead guilty to defrauding Medicaid in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. Six of those aides were sentenced to 13 months in prison; a seventh and eighth were sentenced respectively to 15 months and 10 months.

much better at tagging along or simply going with the flow of the situation. This way of doing things has proven quite effective for you in the past. Indeed, it has gotten you far. What you have now is a different situation. The things you've started will do you no good until you complete them.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Have sympathy for those who need to vent today, Capricorn. Don't be surprised if people line up outside your door for a chance to bend your ear for an hour or two. Your mind is sharp. You will be able to see to the core of any issue brought before you. More than likely, you will understand things intuitively. People will do well to take your advice on any issue they have.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You will probably want everyone to know how you feel today, Aquarius. You won't be shy about expressing your emotions. Feel free to take the lead on matters, for you have the self-confidence and emotional stability to do quite well at the helm of the ship. Try not to let your mind trip over itself, however. You have the tendency to think about one issue so much that you completely lose perspective.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Put your foot down today, Pisces. Don't let others push you around. It could be that you're used to letting people have their way in order to keep the peace. The problem with this is that your dreams and goals may get lost in the shuffle. Don't lose sight of your true destination. There's much more to life than you might see on the surface. Dig deeper.

Aries 3/21-4/19

For goodness' sake, decide today, Aries. The more you flounder about which way to go, the likelier it is that you will miss the boat altogether. You have all the facts you need, so don't delay any longer. Once you make up your mind, be strong and throw all your weight behind it. Your mind can be like a computer filing away information as long as you stay alert.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Mentally, you're apt to do very well today, Taurus. You will find that you can tackle just about any cerebral challenge that comes along. The most difficult aspect of the day will be dealing with your emotions. More than likely, you will feel a great desire for attention. You just want to be loved. Get up on stage and say what's in your heart. This isn't a good time to harbor your feelings.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Your heart is in the right place today, Gemini, so feel free to share your good mood with others. Keep things simple and straightforward. Try not to complicate issues with unnecessary garble. Streamline your thoughts and actions. You will find that you can be much more efficient when you cut out the aspects that aren't pertinent or absolutely necessary. Follow your heart.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

You may find it hard to get rolling today, Cancer. It's likely that you're caught in a gridlock between your mind and heart. Be careful about letting this tension build. The most important thing for you today is to relax. Tackle things one step at a time and finish one project before starting another. You could get overwhelmed if you have too many things on your plate at once.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You're apt to be spurred into action by strong forces that don't want you to take a break, Leo. Keep in mind that the more you resist, the more you will be pushed and pulled by outside sources. If you find yourself in a bind, take a deep breath and calm down. Act from a point of neutrality instead of a point of anger or defensiveness.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Feel free to let it all out today, Virgo. It's finally your turn to stand up and say what you feel. Don't let others push you into places you don't want to be. The key is to probe deeply with your penetrating mind and share your incredible insights with others. Don't be surprised if your actions cause some tension. Don't let this stop you from doing what you feel is right.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Emotionally speaking, you're probably doing quite well today, Libra. You have extra self-confidence to draw on to tackle your projects. The one difficult aspect of the day probably has to do with some sort of mental challenge that for some reason just isn't making sense. Don't continue to beat a dead horse. If things don't want to budge, let them sit. Tackle them later.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You might be in a bit of a jam today, Scorpio, when one person or situation doesn't work well with what you're thinking, and another doesn't fit well with what you're feeling. There's a clash taking place that may be difficult to reconcile, especially if you remain stubbornly in your position. The more flexible you are, the better off you will be.
