Five charged with COVID fraud

A federal grand jury returned indictments on Tuesday alleging fraud against five people in connection with COVID-19.

United State Attorney William Ihlenfeld announced that charges have been filed against individuals alleged to have improperly benefitted from funds appropriated by Congress in response to the COVID-19 pandemic, as follows:

Dalton Haas, age 27, Wheeling, WV, Wire Fraud and False Statements to SBA

James A. Nolte, age 51, Bridgeport, WV, Wire Fraud and Money Laundering

Shawn M. Murphy, age 47, Moundsville, WV, Wire Fraud

David Boyd, age 27, Chester, WV, Wire Fraud and False Statement to Federal Agent

Jodi Headley, age 49, Chester, WV, Mail

Fraud

"The U.S. Attorney's Office is committed to combatting pandemic fraud and these charges are just the first of many that we will bring," said United States Attorney Ihlenfeld. "We have a team of highly skilled prosecutors, investigators, and accountants who work on COVID-related Natasha Bright, 31, Homeless Lenoir City, was charged with Vandalism, Evading Arrest, and Poss. Of Drug Para.

Ronald Yarbrough, 32, Martel Road Lenoir City, was charged with Accessory after the Fact, Assault, Criminal Responsibility for the Conduct of Another, and Poss, of Drug Para.

Officer DeLand LCPD, was in the parking lot next to Casey's on Broadway. A clerk from the store walked up to his patrol vehicle and advised a female had just vandalized the men's restroom inside the convenience store. Prior to this conversation, Officer observed a female come out of the store and walk away with a male standing in the parking lot next door to Casey's. They walked away towards the railroad tracks. While Natasha was in the bathroom, the clerks heard loud banging noises coming from the restroom. After she left the store, the clerk went into the men's restroom and saw where Natasha had busted a hole in the wall, causing $2000.00 of severe damage to their property (Picture-1).

Ronnie was standing in the parking lot, knowing Natasha was committing felony vandalism to the property. Officer advised other Officers about the incident and to patrol the area they walked towards. Officer Ketner and Pistole located the subjects walking north on the railroad tracks near Maple Street. While assisting them in climbing up an embankment next to the tracks, Natasha and Ronnie ran from them into the woods.

A perimeter was set up around the subjects. Officer Miller and Pistole were in the woods, running towards them. Officer Pistole made contact with Ronnie in the woods. While he was reaching for his handcuffs, Ronnie turned towards Pistole and pushed Officer Pistole to the ground, and fled away again. Ronnie then ran into Officer Ketner and Deland at the wood line near Maple Street.

He was then placed into custody. Officer Miller and Reagan located Natasha nearby and placed her in custody.

Officer Miller located a backpack both subjects were carrying during the chase. Inside it was a small bag with a metal spoon and needles inside it (Picture-2).

Both were arrested and transported to the Loudon County Jail.

This did happen in Lenoir City, Tennessee.

DUI

Sean Hatcher, 28, Sandy Shore Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. VI & IV, Unlawful Inhaling, Giving, Selling of GL, DUI, Driving on Suspended License, Poss. Of Drug para., and Leaving the Scene of Accident.

Sgt. Rogers LCSO, was asked to respond to the Surestay on Hwy 321 in reference to a possible impaired driver that Lenoir City Police Department had contact with. Upon arrival Officer Parmer LCPD, advised the attendant at the Surestay called 911 due to a male who showed up with a vehicle that had extensive damage. Officer Parmer found the male in question sitting in the driver's seat. Once on scene Sgt. made contact with the driver, Mr. Sean Hatcher and mirandized him. Mr. Hatcher stated he was coming from a friends house in Knoxville when he fell asleep and collided with several Interstate signs. Mr. Hatcher stated he had a drug problem that included Adderall, Vyvanse, Xanax, Marijuana, Alcohol and Nitrous Oxide (all of which he stated he had used in the last 24hrs). Mr. Hatcher consented to SFST/ARIDE testing and performed poorly. Officer Parmer conducted a search of the vehicle that produced 29.7 grams of THC wax, 1.4 lbs of Nitrous Oxide and 52 Xanax with no prescription. Based on the totality of the circumstances Sgt. took Mr. Hatcher into custody of DUI and then read him Tennessee Implied Consent to which he did consent to a blood draw. Officer Parmer assumed all other charges appropriate for the incident in it's entirety. Sgt. transported the offender to the Fort Loudoun ER, where the blood draw took place, and then to the Loudon County Jail.

Joshua Bradley, 26, Grimes Road Loudon, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy Luke Hawkins LCSO, was dispatched to Grimes Road in reference to a domestic. Deputy arrived on the scene with Deputy M. Hicks and made contact with the caller, Joshua Bradley, in the driveway. Dep. Hicks stayed with him while Deputy Hawkins contacted the other parties involved inside the residence. Deputy Spoke with victim and witness. Witness is Mr. Bradley's wife and victim is his stepdaughter. Witness stated that on this date approximately 30 minutes to Deputy arrival, Joshua arrived home and she asked him, "Where is my charger." He replied, "I don't know." An argument started between the two of them where Joshua began cursing her and accusing her of having other partners. Victim stepped in and told her stepfather to stop talking to them that way, he then began to curse at her. She was standing in front of him, he grabbed her by her right arm near the armpit and threw her out of the way. Victim did not complain of being hurt but advised she felt a "pinch" and was thrown out of the way. At that time witness got Joshua to go outside and she locked him out, barricading the front door with a dresser. Victim did confirm this story, and Deputy did observe redness of the skin on her right arm in the described area. Deputy walked out of the residence to speak with Joshua. He denied all statements made by his wife and stepdaughter. His Statement was, witness asked for the charger, and when he replied "I don't know" she locked him out and began to break his items inside the home. Loudon County Jail. A DCS referral was submitted, referral number 1419161161. All the above did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

He denied having any physical contact with victim. Based on victim/witness statements, and the redness on victim arm Deputy determined Joshua Bradley to be the primary aggressor. He was taken into custody and transported to The cases every day to identify all those who used deception to steal public funds.”

“Those charged today acted out of pure greed,” said FBI Pittsburgh Special Agent in Charge Mike Nordwall. “These loans were intended to help business owners struggling from the impact of the pandemic. Instead, the indictments allege these actors saw it as an opportunity to rip off the program. Everyone should know the FBI and our partners will pursue those who defraud programs like PPP and hold them accountable for their crimes.”

Dalton Haas is alleged to have made false representations regarding organizations with which he was affiliated in order to obtain CARES Act funding. Specifically, Haas is charged with making false statements about the gross revenues, the cost of goods sold, and the number of employees for the Lebanese Restaurant & Bakery, the Wheeling Wine Festival, the West Virginia Hockey League, and the Wheeling Hockey Association.

James Nolte is charged with submitting false tax documents, payroll reports, and business records in order to obtain Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loans. The indictment alleges that Nolte improperly secure loans for PGO Veteran Services, PG Health, RJS Catering, and Dental Care Plus, for total fraud in the amount of $645,717.

Shawn Murphy is alleged to have applied for and received unemployment compensation through the CARES Act even though he was still gainfully employed as a machine operator at businesses in Marshall County.

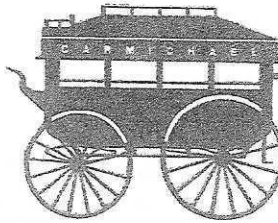

David Boyd is charged with submitting false information in support of his application for PPP funding, including misrepresenting the gross income of a business known as the Seafood Hut. Boyd is also charged with lying to an FBI agent about his loans.

Jodi Headley is alleged to have applied for and receiving unemployment benefits despite being employed by Hancock County schools.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Jennifer Conklin is prosecuting the cases. The matters were investigated by the FBI and WorkForce West Virginia.

Ihlenfeld encouraged anyone aware of COVID fraud to report it via email to wvfraud@fbi.gov, by telephone to 304-234-0100, or via regular mail to the U.S. Attorney, P.O. Box 591, Wheeling, WV 26003, Attn: COVID Fraud Unit.

Horoscopes

legal papers of any kind, Sagittarius, this isn't the day to do it. Any contract entered into today is likely to have confusing clauses and obscure language that you may not understand and that potentially could be used against you. This also isn't the day to start or even plan a journey of any kind. However, it's a great day for reading or meditation.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Money matters look uncertain and a bit deceptive, Capricorn. This isn't a good day to enter into any kind of investment program, negotiate salaries or commissions, or change banks. Your dreams may be a bit disturbing, but this likely reflects fears from the past rather than dangers in the future. Write them down, however. You may learn a lot about yourself by studying the symbols.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

New people may come into your life today. If you get bad vibes from one of them, trust your instincts! Signs are that you will meet at least one new acquaintance who isn't trustworthy. This isn't a good day to enter into any kind of partnership, nor is it a good day to get married or even propose marriage. Put all plans for cementing partnerships on hold for a few days!

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You might wake up feeling a little under the weather, perhaps too tired to go anywhere, and you'll want to stay in. Perhaps this is the best course of action for today. You may be tired and a bit stressed out, Pisces, and more vulnerable than usual to any bugs may be going around at this time. Drink lots of juices and get some rest. Tomorrow you will probably feel much better.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Today you might get the feeling that someone in your family is hiding something. The atmosphere might be strained and somewhat tense. Your natural inclination is to try to spread oil on troubled waters to return the situation to normal, Aries, but this isn't likely to be the right course of action here. Let things ride. Whoever is hiding something isn't likely to reveal it.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Gossip you hear today might make you angry. You're likely to sense it isn't true. Take nothing at face value today. Check the facts before making any judgments. Discontent is in the air, Taurus, and when people are disgruntled, they tend to say things they don't mean. Avoid the temptation to be confrontational. It will only make things worse. Try to spend some time alone if you can.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

There is more than meets the eye to a money situation today, Gemini. There could be errors in your financial records, or someone may not be telling the truth about an important item. You're a caring, trusting person, but this isn't the day to blindly accept anyone's statements. Check the facts and see for yourself, then act accordingly in order to see to your own best interests.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Today, Cancer, you probably aren't going to feel very friendly. You're most likely to want to sequester yourself at home and not see or speak to anyone. If your need for solitude is that strong, indulge it. You won't do yourself any good by forcing contact with others. You might feel a little out of sorts physically, so it's especially important to eat right and get lots of vitamin C.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Self-control is the word for today, Leo. Others' unethical behavior could trigger some long-buried anger that might make you want to lash out at those responsible. This won't solve anything. The best way to handle these rather explosive emotions is honest communication, but today it could deteriorate into arguments. Try counting to ten before confronting anyone. It works!

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Anger and resentment caused by past hurts could come up today, at times tempting you to burst into tears. Don't fight it. Just find someplace where you can be alone and let it out. This is only a symptom of personal and spiritual growth on your part. Releasing the past clears the way for breakthroughs in the future. You could wake up tomorrow morning feeling like a changed person!

Libra 9/23-10/22

Someone you think of as a friend may prove less than trustworthy today, Libra. There are indications of deception all around you. Perhaps someone is keeping something from you or telling outright lies. Don't be too suspicious of anyone but check the facts of a situation before you take someone's word for anything. It's always best to do that anyway.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Something underhanded is going on, Scorpio. Unethical people could be trying to manipulate certain situations in order to turn them to their own benefit. Be careful! Steer clear of any "political" conversations, and refrain from commenting on any situation or listening to gossip. On the positive side, your intuition is sharp, so you should be able to sense the trustworthy.
