A Black man was simply crossing the street in Santa Cruz, California, on July 5, 2020, when Ole Hougen attacked him with a knife while yelling vile slurs. With detailed accounts from witnesses, Santa Cruz police officers flagged that the assault may have been motivated by bias.

low the U.S. attorney's office to show a pattern of hate-based violence—information that could put the current charges in context.

The team agreed to pursue the case in federal court. It became the first case the Northern District of California had prosecuted under the Matthew Shepard and James Byrd, Jr. Hate Crimes Prevention Act, which was signed into law in 2009.

"No one should live in fear like that because of the color of their skin, or where they were born, or their sexual orientation, or their gender identity."

FBI San Francisco Special Agent Kyle Biebesheimer

After a six-day trial in April 2021, the jury quickly returned a guilty verdict. "We not only got to bring in witnesses to discuss what they saw and heard on July 5, we got to bring in these prior bad acts," Biebesheimer said. "It was tremendously powerful testimony."

On December 2, Hougen was sentenced to 82 months in prison—a sentence that Biebesheimer hopes carries weight beyond this case.

"These crimes are not just crimes about one victim. It is about everyone in that community who looked like him, who could have been walking in that crosswalk," said Biebesheimer. "When the community reads about these crimes and these offenders who live in their community with them, they start to feel that maybe those streets are not safe for them. No one should live in fear like that because of the color of their skin, or where they were born, or their sexual orientation, or their gender identity."

Biebesheimer said that although law enforcement may not be able to alter the forces that make someone commit a hate crime, they can be the forces that show crimes driven by hate will not be tolerated. "The community could see not only that their local police department was acting but they had the full support and resources of the federal government, too," said Biebesheimer.

It's one reason Biebesheimer and others in the San Francisco office focus exclusively on hate crimes. The commitment has been stressed at the national level, too. Last May, the Department of Justice announced a series of concentrated efforts to prevent and address hate crimes and support victims and communities, and the FBI elevated hate crimes to a top national threat priority in 2021.

Hate Crimes a Top National Threat Priority

Hate Crimes a Top National Threat Priority

The FBI is stepping up efforts with local law enforcement and civil rights groups to improve the reporting of hate crimes and enforcement of civil rights laws.

Key to those comprehensive efforts is increasing the type of coordination with state and local law enforcement that proved so successful in the Hougen case. Even when federal charges are not pursued, FBI resources, publicity tools, forensic expertise, and experience in identifying and investigating hate-based motivations are available to support the work of local authorities.

The initiative's other focus is solving the problem of the hate crimes that law enforcement can't investigate because they are never reported. If you believe you are victim or a witness of a hate crime, we encourage you to report it to the FBI by calling 1-800-CALL-FBI or submitting a tip at tips.fbi.gov.

Horoscopes

strong and your sex life may be especially active. Make sure to share with others the enthusiasm you exude. You aren't the only person alive on this planet, so spread some of that love around.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You may have the sense that something is going on around you that you just can't seem to grab hold of, Pisces. Your mind is bouncing this way and that as if you're watching a ball in a tennis match. Things may be changing rapidly around you. You could feel like it's time to jump on the bandwagon. Look before you leap, and go with the flow. Remember that the best decisions aren't always made with the brain; sometimes they're made with the heart.

Aries 3/21-4/19

An opposing person or situation may rear its head today, Aries. Realize that you can draw on the same energy that's causing them to act and state your point of view for the record. Stand up against this force and let your viewpoint be heard. Sometimes it's necessary to be a bit rough and outspoken in order to bring peace and balance to an unstable situation.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Today is a great day for transformation, Taurus, and your actions have deeper than usual inner meaning. Be careful where you aim your arrow, because the tip of it has extra sting today. People might be rubbing you the wrong way, making you feel like you're a pot of water on a hot plate. The heat is turned up and the cover is about to blow. Make sure you don't hit anyone when the lid flies off.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Use today's powerful energy to cut to the heart of the matter and strip away the façade that's currently doing more harm than good. Open yourself up to the world, Gemini, and show the people around you that you have a great deal more to offer than you've been revealing. Take a controlling role in the situation at hand and let your needs be known. You'll find that your daily life will improve tremendously when you communicate your needs.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Try not to get blown off course by the fire that seems to be raging around you, Cancer. Ultimately, you know what's right and what's wrong, so don't compromise yourself or your sense of pride. Keep an eye open to what is going on in your circle, but don't feel like you need to chime in with a certain course of action that doesn't ring true with your inner self. Control what you can, but don't worry about the other situations.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Pick yourself up by your bootstraps and go in for the kill today, Leo. You're in a terrific position to make some strong and lasting impressions on others. Any sort of group work is especially favored. There's a powerful boost behind your actions, so be careful where you aim your weapons. Initiate action in the places where issues seem to be stagnating. Transformation is a key aspect to healthy growth. Today is an excellent day to pursue such important goals.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Your emotional nature may seem revved up for action today, Virgo, although it could be that you don't know what direction to drive in. The engine is running, but for some reason the windshield looks a bit cloudy. Try to key into the areas in your life that need a major overhaul. Look to transform them for the better. Once your windshield is clear, kick your motor into gear and go for it. Initiate the action or else you may find yourself being acted upon.

Libra 9/23-10/22

There is a tremendous amount of power at your disposal today, Libra, and you should take care and use it wisely. This is quite a transformative period for you, and your body may be going through many changes. You have the ability to make an extremely strong impression on people today, so think before you act. This energy can manifest as an accident or something unhealthy if not used properly.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

There may be a big conflict in your life that you seem almost powerless to control at this time, Scorpio. It could feel like a war is raging around you and all you want is for it to stop. Whether you realize it or not, you do have a part to play in this situation and you certainly do have the power to affect the outcome of this quarrel. Take responsibility for your actions and step up to the plate.

Sagittarius
11/22-12/21

There is a powerful force that seems to be working against you today, Sagittarius, but realize that you do have the power to produce a positive outcome. Use this conflict to find balance in an unstable situation and try not to rock the boat too much with your superiors. You have a great deal of fire under your belt today and your actions are especially powerful. Consider enrolling in a class or seeking a path of spirituality.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

People may seem especially insensitive to your feelings today, Capricorn, but try not to get down on them about it. You may feel a sudden urge to act out in a physical manner, and you should do it, but in a constructive way. Get out of the house and take a walk or jog by a lake or river. Open your mind from the cage it's been sitting in and get some perspective on your life.
