Life

2020, he was in possession of not only two firearms but also heroin and marijuana that he intended to distribute.

The defendant qualified as an armed career criminal, which requires a minimum of 15 years up to life imprisonment, and was also designated a career offender under the federal sentencing guidelines. In determining the sentence, Judge Corker found that the defendant had obstructed justice by threatening witnesses with violence. The Court's sentence reflected the defendant's extensive criminal history, the seriousness of the offenses of conviction, and the need to protect the public from the dangers posed by this defendant.

U.S. Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III of the Eastern District of Tennessee made the announcement.

The criminal indictment was the result of a joint investigation by the Sullivan County Sheriff's Office, Kingsport Police Department, and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

Assistant United States Attorneys J. Gregory Bowman and Thomas McCauley represented the United States.

This case is part of Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN), a program bringing together all levels of law enforcement and the communities they serve to reduce violent crime and gun violence, and to make our neighborhoods safer for everyone. On May 26, 2021, the Department launched a violent crime reduction strategy strengthening PSN based on these core principles: fostering trust and legitimacy in our communities, supporting community-based organizations that help prevent violence from occurring in the first place, setting focused and strategic enforcement priorities, and measuring the results.
