Antioch and Pittsburg Police Officers Charged with Public Corruption Crimes

Crimes ranging from defrauding employers to using excessive force

Part of the FBI's mission is to investigate violations of federal law by public officials at the federal, state, and local levels of government—this includes city police officers if they engage in criminal activities.

This summer, as the result of an FBI investigation, a combination of 10 current and former officers and employees from the Antioch and Pittsburg (California) police departments were charged with multiple crimes, ranging from defrauding their employers to using excessive force and color of law violations.

"This case is one of the highest priorities for the San Francisco Field Office," said FBI San Francisco Special Agent in Charge Robert K. Tripp. "Law enforcement officers bear a tremendous responsibility to police our communities lawfully in keeping with the Constitution, and we must always be true to that guiding principle...The citizens of our communities deserve law enforcement personnel who practice what they enforce. Any breach to the public's trust is absolutely unacceptable."

Four separate indictments were issued on August 17, 2023. In the first indictment, referred to as the "col-

Wanted

Tosha Grissom, 27, Get Good Hollow Road, was charged with Aggravated Assault, Burglary and General Session Capias x3.

Dispatch advised of a complaint of a suspicious person walking in the back alley near Vale Street. Dispatch determined that the individual was Tozha Janae Grissom and stated that she had warrants. Upon arrival to Vale Street, Officer Bonilla-Law, was able to make contact with Ms. Grissom. She was aware of two out of five active warrants. After confirmation with dispatch, it was determined that all five warrants were, in fact, active. Ms. Grissom was then placed in custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur within the City of Loudon.

Police beat

Marcus Brooks, 30, Dotson Avenue Chattanooga, was charged with Simple Possession, and Assisting other Agency.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, observed a white Ford sedan traveling 77mph in a posted 70mph zone on Interstate 75 northbound, and also following too close to the vehicle in front of it. Deputy conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle for moving violations on Interstate 75 northbound at the 74-mile marker. Upon contact with the driver, and passenger Marcus Brooks, Deputy could smell the strong odor of marijuana emitting from the vehicle. While speaking with the driver, he stated he did not have a valid license and was coming from Chattanooga to Knoxville to see a family member. Deputy had the driver exit and step to the front of his vehicle to issue a written warning. While speaking with the driver, Deputy Ezell removed Brooks from the passenger seat to conduct and probable cause search of the vehicle due to the odor of marijuana. While conducting his search, Loudon County Dispatch advised Brooks had an active felony warrant out of Hamilton County with an NCIC-confirmed hit. Brooks was placed in custody and the driver was released with a warning. Deputy Lane transported Brooks to the Loudon County Jail, and while in the sally port of the facility, Brooks removed a clear baggie from his pants containing approximately 15 multi-colored MDMA pills pressed in the "Tesla" logo. This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Assaults

Dominic Comer, 23, Homeless Lenoir City, was charged with, Assault, Simple Assault, Disorderly Conduct, Public Intoxication, Resisting, and Contraband in Penal Institution.

Officer Nix LPD, was on routine patrol on Commerce Street. At that time Public Safety Director was traveling North on Commerce when he witnessed a white male who was walking North on the railroad tracks which are private property. The white male then threw a rock at the Director's patrol vehicle. Shortly after Deputy Chief Harrison and Officer Nix arrived on scene.

The male was then told numerous times to stop walking to which he refused and began to yell profanities at Officers. Officer Nix was able to make my way onto the tracks and again told the subject to stop walking. Officer grabbed the subject's arm and gave him a lawful order to stop.

The subject aggressively pulled away and took an aggressive stance. Officer removed his Taser and gave the subject loud verbal commands to get onto the ground and place his hands on his head to which he complied. Deputy Chief Harrison was then able to handcuff the subject who was identified as Mr. Dominic Comer. While speaking with Mr. Comer he spit on Deputy Chief Harrison and then attempted to spit on Director Brubaker. Officers then advised Mr. Comer that he was under arrest. While walking Comer to his patrol unit Comer continued to resist by pulling away from Officers. Mr. Comer was then transported to The Loudon County Jail. After Comer was brought inside and the handcuffs were removed Mr. Comer began to swing, with a closed fist, at the Deputies.

Deputies went to make Comer dress out. Inside Comer's waistband of Comer's underwear was a paper towel with a large amount of a white substance believed to be meth.

All of the above did happen in The City of Loudon

Fentanyl

Misty Branum, 43, Dailley Avenue Loudon, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. II, and Simple possession.

Investigator Green, observed a gold GMC Sonoma Traveling on Highway 321 N. near Interstate 75. This vehicle made a left turn into the parking lot of bimbos and failed to use a turn signal prior, on a highly congested highway. I pulled in behind the vehicle and made contact with all occupants. I obtained identification from all occupants and advised the driver, he would issue a written warning for the traffic offense. As the deputy was running all identifications through Dispatch, Deputy Curtis arrived on scene and deployed his partner, K-9 Loki, to conduct an exterior sniff of the vehicle. Deputy Curtis advised K-9 Loki did alert to the vehicle. Deputy conducted a probable cause search of the vehicle and recovered a small black bag, which was positioned on the passenger side dash of the vehicle. Upon initial contact, the front seat passenger, Misty Branum, had claimed ownership of the black bag. Located inside the bag was a small clear baggie containing approximately 3.68g of a grey powdery substance believed to be Fentanyl (TruNarc Scan #2426). Deputy also recovered approximately .5g of a green leafy substance inside of the bag, believed to be Marijuana. Several identifying documents belonging to Misty Branum were also located and documented inside of the purse. Ms. Branum was taken into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail where she was charged with Man., Sell, Delivery of Schedule 2 and Simple Possession of Schedule 6. The driver was issued a citation for the traffic offense. All the above did occur in Loudon County, TN.

lege degree benefits fraud indictment," six defendants allegedly engaged in a conspiracy to defraud Antioch and Pittsburg police departments out of taxpayer dollars by claiming they had earned college credits toward degrees when, instead, they paid others to attend classes and take exams for them.

In June of 2019, an officer of the Pittsburg Police Department allegedly used a person identified as "Individual 1" to complete multiple college courses on his behalf that were credited toward the officer's Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice. Once the officer allegedly received a degree, they applied for and received reimbursements and pay increases from the Pittsburg Police Department. The same officer allegedly promoted the services of Individual 1. Five other members of the police departments ended up paying Individual 1 to complete similar coursework towards their degrees. As with the initial officer, they also applied for reimbursements and pay increases from their law enforcement employer.

In the second indictment, two officers from the Antioch Police Department allegedly conspired to illegally distribute anabolic steroids to an unnamed customer. One of the officers allegedly possessed the drugs, and the other officer attempted to delete incriminating evidence from their cell phone before handing it over to law enforcement for investigation.

In the third indictment, a defendant from the Antioch Police Department received three charges, two involving alleged interference with a wiretap investigation, and the third involving the illegal seizure and destruction of a telephone. On March 23, 2021, the defendant was assigned to a wire room where they were supposed to monitor communications between a target and others who contacted the target by telephone. The defendant allegedly used his personal cellphone to call a target, covering up any evidence of the call. On May 6, 2021, the defendant was present when another officer used a deployed a police dog while making an arrest. When the defendant saw a witness recording the aftermath of the incident on a cell phone, they allegedly seized and destroyed it.

The fourth indictment charges three Antioch police officers with conspiracy against rights and deprivation of rights under color of law. The indictment describes several incidents of excessive force, among others. Allegedly, the defendants deployed excessive force as "punishment" to subjects "beyond any punishment appropriated imposed by the criminal justice system."

For example, on August 24, 2021, one of the defendants, along with Antioch police officers, executed a search warrant at a residence, located a subject inside a locked bedroom holding a video game controller with a video game on a television screen. When the defendant and other officers entered the room, the subject raised his hands. The officers surrounded the subject, and while one of the officers held down the subject's arm to arrest him, the defendant deployed the 40mm less lethal launcher, injuring the subject.

"Color of law violations strike at the very heart of our justice system. They undermine public confidence in the law and law enforcement and erode the fundamental right of our citizens," said Tripp.

The indictment includes several other incidents of excessive force as well as the collection and sharing of pictures and munitions to memorialize the acts of violence.

Note that an indictment merely alleges that crimes have been committed, and all defendants are presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

Horoscopes

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

A powerful feeling of love for someone from far away could strike you today. This might be someone you're involved with professionally. If this is a romantic attraction, the person probably reciprocates your feelings though is too reserved to express them.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Love and passion may be on your mind. If you aren't currently involved, you might be attracted to someone you know through business, so a little caution is advised.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

If you're single, you might long for a romantic partner today. If you're attached, you might think of making your commitment more permanent. If you're married, children might be on your mind.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Have you been thinking about adopting a pet? If so, today is a great day to go to the shelter and rescue one. You'll know which one to choose, as the animal will probably choose you!

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Someone you love dearly could provide inspiration for creative activity of some kind. You might write a song or poem about your friend, draw or paint a portrait, or cook a special meal.

Aries 3/21-4/19

A forthcoming social event that you're planning to host in your home could inspire some minor redecorating today. You might decide to repaint or add some new plants or pictures.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

A very loving message could come to you from a woman, possibly your mother. If this is a letter, it may go on for several pages. If it's a phone call, the conversation could last for a long time.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

A small sum of money could come today, possibly through the efforts of a woman. You may have been waiting for this for a long time, so expect to feel relieved.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Today's energies will bring good fortune and success. New opportunities to increase status and income could come your way.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Today your imagination should be flowing freely.

You could channel this into creative work, or you could come up with some ingenious ways to advance your business interests.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Today you could meet with a female acquaintance that you know through a group. By the end of the day, this person could turn from casual acquaintance to firm friend.
