Former Hardin County Animal Services Director Faces Multi-Count Indictment

The Tennessee Comptroller's Office has completed an investigation that has resulted in the indictment of Christopher Sikes, the former Hardin County Animal Services Director.

Investigators determined that Sikes stole at least $12,117 in shelter collections while serving as director from January 2019 until his employment was terminated in January 2023.

Sikes used two different methods to carry out his misappropriation:

Sikes improperly voided receipts totaling $8,459 in the shelter's accounting software. Voided receipts could occur when a refund is issued; however, shelter services are non-refundable, and numerous customers who had their receipts voided confirmed that no refunds were received. Investigators verified that these collections were neither re-receipted nor deposited.

Sikes also failed to deposit at least $3,658 in fees collected at the shelter. Investigators analyzed shelter revenue reports and found that collections totaled $24,618 for the period reviewed. However,

Agg. Trespass

Steiner Sanford, 54, East Lamar Alexandra Parkway, was charged with Aggravated Criminal Trespass, and Theft of Property.

Deputy Reagan LCSO, responded to Lakeview Road in reference to 2 males on the property that were not supposed to be. While enroute, the complainant stated that Steiner Sanford (Arrestee) has been told on multiple occasions that he is not allowed to be on the property and that if he needs to collect belongings he will need an escort from law enforcement due to being in fear of Sanford. The complainant also stated that he had set up an escort approximately one month ago to which Sanford did not show up for. Before Deputy arrived at the residence, he observed a red Ford F-350 pulling a trailer pass him on Lakeview Rd. After arriving on scene, Deputy saw that the described vehicle was no longer on scene. Knowing that this vehicle matched the description from the complainant, Deputy Slattery stopped the vehicle for further investigation. Deputy Slattery observed the males before stopping them, throwing objects into the woods on Elm Hill Rd. After further investigation, it was discovered that the objects were a tree stand and a car battery. When Deputy Reagan arrived on scene with Slattery, he spoke with the (passenger) and he stated that he was picked up from Maryville by Steiner Sanford in the above vehicle and was told that they were going to the above address to pick up property. The passenger stated that they arrived and began collecting the belongings and Sanford collected a tree stand from the front porch and a car battery from the driveway. After leaving the residence, the passenger stated that Sanford told him "we need to get rid of the tree stand and battery" and at that point they stopped and removed the items from the truck. Sanford refused to answer questions. Deputy Slattery went back to the address and spoke with (Victim/Complainant) and after reviewing video from the front of the house, they observed Sanford taking the belongings and placing them into the trailer. The items combined totaling $378. Steiner Sanford was placed into custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. This did happen in Loudon County, TN.

Charged

Jose Juarez-Rosales, 45, Finley Drive Lenoir City, was charged with Aggravated Assault.

Officer T. LaForce LCPD, was dispatched to a physical domestic between a male and female at Finley Dr, Lenoir City, TN. Upon arrival Officer made contact with the victim who the officer observed to be distraught and crying, she advised that the male (Jose) had ran to Finley Dr. Officer Law located Mr. Jose, he was standing on the back porch of Finley Dr. Officer Law gave several commands to Jose to come off the porch in which he complied. Officer began speaking with Mr. Jose, he observed him to have blood shot watery eyes and the odor of an alcoholic beverage emitting from his persons. Mr. Jose stated he had drunk a couple of beers prior. Mr. Jose stated, he had fallen asleep at his girlfriend's house and had woken up to the victim confronting him about sending money to Mexico for his daughter, in which they began arguing over the matter. He stated that that was his money, he could send it to his daughter if he wanted to. During the confrontation Jose stated he pushed the victim out of his way and left the residence. Mr. Jose did have a red mark on his chest, he stated was from work. Sgt Bialek spoke with the victim about the altercation, and she stated, she confronted him about sending money to Mexico and at that point a heated argument had occurred. During the argument Jose began to get agitated and began to come towards her. She tried pushing Jose away from her defending herself. Jose began grabbing the victim by the throat, leaving red marks on both sides of her neck that were visible, busting her nose, and lip on the right side. The victim stated that she could not breathe when Jose was choking her and was in fear for her life. She then got away from Jose by pushing him away, she stated while trying to get Jose off of her she broke a nail. Jose then left the residence. It was determined that Mr. Jose was deemed a danger to himself and others, as well as the primary aggressor. This incident did take place within Loudon County.

Drugs

Kayley Marcum, 21, Highway 321 Lenoir City, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. II x2, Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, Simple Possession, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Officer R. Miller, with the Lenoir City Police Department, initiated a traffic stop on a gold in color Honda SUV in the parking lot of 1204 Highway 321 (Bimbos Gas Station) in Lenoir City, TN for a brake light not functioning properly. During the roadside investigation Officer requested K9 Deputy E. Curtis and his partner K9 Loki to respond to his location to conduct an open-air sniff of the vehicle. K9 Deputy E. Curtis was able to respond to the location of the traffic stop within a reasonable amount of time where he deployed K9 Loki for an open-air sniff of the vehicle. Officer was then informed by K9 Deputy E. Curtis that K9 Loki alerted to a positive odor of narcotics coming from inside of the vehicle. A probable cause search of the vehicle was then conducted. During the subsequent search of the vehicle, Officer located a black back bag in the rear seat of the vehicle. Inside of the backpack was a smaller black bag that contained: Approximately (53 grams) of a crystal-like substance which tested positive for Methamphetamine (Bagged Separately) , approximately (2.93 grams) of a gray powder like substance which tested positive for Cocaine (Bagged Separately) , approximately (1.56 grams) of an orange powder like substance which tested positive for Fentanyl and (9) Suboxone Strips. Located near the black backpack in the rear seat of the vehicle was a crown royal bag that contained a black digital scale which had a white powdery substance contained on it and two large bags which contained several smaller bags ("Dime Bags") inside of them which are commonly used to distribute narcotics. Kayley Marcum who was the passenger was mirandized where she stated the items located in the vehicle belonged to her. All the narcotics located during the traffic stop were tested using the Tur Narc Handheld Narcotics Analyzer. THIS INCIDENT DID TAKE PLACE IN LOUDON COUNTY, TN the Trustee deposit records revealed that Sikes only deposited $20,960 in collections.

Christopher Sikes was the only shelter employee authorized to void receipts; and he was only person who could access collections from the safe, prepare shelter collections for deposit, and deliver deposits to the Trustee.

Based upon this investigation, in November 2023, the Hardin County Grand Jury indicted Christopher Justin Sikes for one count of theft of property over $10,000, one count of forgery over $10,000, one count of computer crimes over $2,500, one count of destruction of and tampering with governmental records, and one count of official misconduct.

“Hardin County officials should ensure that one person is not given exclusive control over key financial processes,” said Comptroller Mumpower. “Separating financial duties reduces the risk that errors or misappropriations will go undetected.”

Police beat

Robert Kitts, 35, Sherwood Lane Harriman, was charged with Driving on Revoked/Suspended License Financial Responsibility, and Expiration of Certificate of Plates.

Officer Carroll LCPD, was traveling SB on Hwy 321 N, and observed a gray Nissan Pathfinder displaying TN tag# BCB5487 traveling SB on Hwy 321 N with an expired registration from 01/2023. Officer conducted a traffic stop at Starbuck’s on Hwy 321 N. Upon speaking with the driver, who was identified as Robert Bryce Kitts, he advised that his license was indeed Revoked from a past DUI. Mr. Kitts was unable to provide any insurance information for the vehicle, and dispatch advised that the insurance was showing unconfirmed. Due to Mr. Kitts having a Revoked license, no insurance, and an expired registration, Mr. Kitts was placed into custody, and transported to the Loudon County Jail without any further incident. MoneyMaker’s did tow the vehicle to their lot. This incident did take place within Loudon County, TN.

Horoscopes

up over nothing.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

There's intensity in your relationships now, and you may feel like every situation is life-or-death. Calm those voices in your head. Meditate, take a yoga class, and breathe deeply.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You may feel weighed down by the emotional pall hanging over everything. Don't let this feeling overwhelm you, although at times this may be impossible.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Whatever you do, infuse it with passion. You tend to overanalyze things when you should follow your intuition.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Dive deep. This isn't a day to stay in shallow waters. This is a day to go beyond your normal limits. Although there may be a great emotional charge accompanying everything you do, let this be the excitement that fuels your passion and not the reason to stop.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You may think only advanced surfers can handle the big waves. But how are you going to improve your ability if you don't test your limits? This is your day.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Finding solutions won't be hard, thanks to your detective side today. You may feel like the real truth lies below the surface.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

If something is good, it's likely to feel like utopia. If something is bad, it's like the end of the world. There's no middle ground. This is a day of emotional extremes.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Move away from the problems instead of stepping into them. You may not be able to see the potholes, so consider taking another road. Don't waste time falling into a hole you can avoid.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

This is a terrific day in which you'll be able to cut through the falsehoods and get to the essence of the issue. Don't waste your time on superficial conversations and situations. Your energy is too valuable to spend on those who can't see the deeper meaning. Meditation, intense conversation, and passionate love are in store today.

Libra 9/23-10/22

There's a terrific intensity to today that may have you running for cover. You may be tempted to say your peace and run for the hills.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

There's a terrific, warm, and nurturing quality to the day. The people around you are validating your inner and outer aspects. Emotions could get intense, but your grounded perspective helps you see through the situation. Spend time cooking up a great meal for those you love. If you don't feel like cooking, splurge on a good meal at your favorite restaurant.
