Former Marshall County Elementary Bookkeeper Indicted for Theft

Jennifer Foster worked at Oak Grove Elementary School

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has resulted in the indictment of Jennifer Foster, a former bookkeeper at Oak Grove Elementary School in Lewisburg.

Investigators determined that Foster stole $12,325.46 from the school by removing and keeping cash collected for the school's book fairs, chorus clubs, field trips, and Chromebook insurance payments from students who lost or damaged computers. The investigation began after school officials reported discrepancies with book fair collections.

Foster used a common scheme to misappropriate cash. For example, the school librarian noted the book fair generated $256.10 in checks and $1,861.45 in cash on October 3, 2019. The librarian provided the money for deposit. The checks were deposited on October 30, 2019; however, investigators found no evidence the $1,861.45 in cash was either deposited or accounted for in the school's records.

Investigators found evidence of Foster's misappropriation

Jason Aldridge, 50, Blockhouse Road Maryville, was charged with Aggravated Assault, and Unlawful Carrying or Possession of a Weapon.

Deputy L. Hawkins LCSO, was dispatched to Morton Lane in reference to an unwanted guest. The caller, Jason Aldridge, advised that the victim was making threats to kill him and that he was also breaking stuff. Deputy arrived on the scene and made contact with the victim. He denied the callers statements. Victim stated that him and a female were over near the red Chevrolet SUV. Victim was chopping wood and trash with a machete because he was about to start a fire. Jason entered a black dodge SUV and exited with a black .22 caliber rifle. Jason began walking toward the victim and the victim said, "Hey man, you wanna let me shoot that?" Jason replied, "You need to leave." Jason continued advancing toward the victim and put a magazine inside the rifle. The victim placed the machete on the hood of the truck and took his shirt off. He told Jason that he needed to put the gun down and fight him like a real man. Victim believed Jason was being hostile and felt threatened. Jason then returned to the vehicle and placed the rifle inside it. The female confirmed these statements. She also described the weapon as a black shotgun or rifle. Jason's statement was that the victim approached him threatening to kill him, unprovoked. Jason's girlfriend, had left the scene in a black Dodge Journey before units arrived on the scene. The girlfriend arrived back on the scene while units were still there. She stated that she did not witness the altercation but left because she was going to pick up drinks for dinner. When she left, she took the rifle and disposed of it at a place she could not describe but advised she would take units to the area and show them. She was unaware the firearm had been removed from the vehicle by Jason because she was inside the house, and disposed of it because she was afraid the situation would escalate. A another female was also on the scene and did not witness the altercation but did state that the girlfriend was inside the residence with her during the altercation. The girlfriend described the weapon as a black .22 caliber rifle and advised it belonged to her. Based on this, Jason Aldridge was placed into custody and transported to The Loudon County Jail by Dep. J. Sartin. Deputy left the scene and followed the girlfriend to Kingston Pike. The rifle was found in the wood line at this location and was taken as evidence by Deputy. Jason's information was given to dispatch and they did advise that he was a convicted felon. All the above did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

toxication, and Simple Possession.

Upon my arrival, Officer made contact with the male, identified as Ted Hamilton, and the female. Theft throughout her employment as the school's bookkeeper beginning in 2017 until her resignation in August 2021. She also acknowledged to investigators that she took money for her personal use.

In an effort to conceal her actions, Foster also fabricated and falsified various accounting records to disguise the true and actual balances of money on deposit in school accounts. For example, she provided the school librarian with a spreadsheet in December 2019 reflecting a balance of $791.82 in the library account, when in fact, on or about the same time, there was a negative balance of $6,178.89.

It appears that Foster made deposits totaling $3,429.41 in the school's bank account in an attempt to repay the misappropriated funds; however, a shortage of $8,896.05 remains.

Based upon this investigation, in March 2023, the Marshall County Grand Jury indicted Jennifer Foster for two counts of theft of property over $10,000, one count of forgery, and one count of official misconduct.

"Schools must ensure they are providing proper oversight of financial activities to reduce the opportunity for errors or theft," said Comptroller Mumpower. "In this case, the bookkeeper had control of receipting collections, preparing bank deposits, and reconciling receipts with bank deposits without adequate oversight."

Officer then asked the female to step out of the vehicle and had officer B. Padgett place her into custody for curfew violation. ## Horoscopes been preoccupied and neglected to let anyone at home know what's going on. Hang in there!

Gemini 5/21-6/20

A sibling or neighbor might not feel very communicative, Gemini. It may seem that this person isn't behaving in their normal, friendly manner, but isn't sharing why. Give him or her a break. There may have been some upsetting news that your friend can't stop thinking about.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Are you working on a project that requires a little ingenuity? If so, today you may draw a blank. No matter how hard you think about it, you can't come up with a good way to proceed. Perhaps it would be best to put it away and do something else for a while.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Your intuition is operating at a very high level, Leo, except where your family is concerned! No matter how hard you try, you can't seem to make sense of anything anyone says, let alone does. Don't make yourself crazy over it. Ask for explanations, then barring anything destructive or nasty, let them go their own way. Sometimes people just have to learn through their own experiences.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Telepathic messages you get from a friend or relative could seem confused and garbled, Virgo. This might bother you, especially if the person is normally practical and rational. We all have bad days. Try to observe their behavior and see if there are any warning signs of inner or outer crisis.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Are you upset over money, Libra? Try to be rational. Your concerns are probably far more negative than the reality of the situation. Be objective and go over your budget to learn the facts. By the time you cover everything, you should be more than relieved. It's nothing you can't handle easily.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Some news about a major event could unsettle and confuse you, Scorpio. There could be contradictory reports, and commentators may confound the issue even more. You're primarily concerned about how this will affect you. The answer is probably very little.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Spiritual studies might seem fascinating and confusing, Sagittarius. Are you reading a book whose author isn't clear? Perhaps this isn't the best work to bring you the information you seek.

Ask friends to recommend better books. Make a trip to the library. See what's available online. There's no need to try to make sense of something that's confusing to begin with.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Your intuition may guide you in a direction that seems at odds with what logic and practicality tell you, Capricorn. This could put you in a quandary. Should you try to be practical or should you follow your heart? Don't make the decision today.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Family problems may have a friend or love partner feeling unsettled and helpless, Aquarius. This person could have a few communication problems, especially if firmness is required. Don't get sucked into the situation. Just point out the facts and encourage your friend to consider every factor on its own merits.

While you do this, you might have some insights into a problem of your own.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Has someone given you a chore to do and then taken off without giving you any instructions? It's no wonder you feel confused and frustrated! If there is no manual, and if no one else knows what's up, don't feel bad about letting it go until you're given proper coaching.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Staying indoors might not be the best thing today, Aries. You might feel vague muscular aches and pains for which you can't find any reason. They could be the result of inactivity rather than any dysfunction. Get outside and go for a walk or jog in the park. This will get the endorphins going and wipe away the memory of how you felt earlier. Have fun!
