Tamara Carlson, 36, Homeless Lenoir City, was charged with Public Intoxication, and Reckless Burning.

Deputy Pendleton LCSO, was dispatched to Morganton campground located at the intersection of East Coast Tellico Parkway and Morganton Cemetery Road in reference to a possible domestic and fire. After walking into the woods a short distance Deputies came in contact with Mrs. Tamara Carlson who began walking towards Deputy stumbling and fell onto the ground in front of him. Mrs. Carlson was complaining of her mouth and back hurting. She stated that victim had punched her in the face and struck her in the back with a large stick. Mrs. Carlson's mouth was bleeding and she did have a large red mark across her back. Mrs. Carlson denied medical treatment for her injuries. We walked to the parking lot and Mrs. Carlson sat on the curb, she then fell backwards into a parked car, stating that she had consumed "1.5 liters of wine". Mrs. Carlson appeared to be intoxicated, a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage was coming from her person and she was slurring her words. Mrs. Carlson stated that she and her husband, were having an argument over past marital problems and lost cigarettes. She knocked their tent into their campfire setting it afire. She then attempted to release their dog from his chain and was struck by her husband. Deputy spoke with her husband, and two witnesses. The husband confirmed Tamara's story, but stated that she was not trying to release the dog. The husband believed that Tamara was attempting to burn the dog with a cigarette, she had the dog by the neck and was trying to press a lit cigarette into the dog's ear. To prevent the animal cruelty, he struck her and got her away from the dog. The husband also advised that Tamara had consumed a whole bottle of wine prior to his arrival. Deputy spoke with the witness, who are residing at the campsite adjacent to the Carlson's. They heard a commotion and noticed the husband was walking away. They then heard Tamara yell "I am going to burn it all". Then the husband approached their campsite and said "Help she is going to burn it all." they went to the campsite to help. They both observed a tent and the vegetation around it on fire. They put the fire out and the witness walked away to call 911. Witness 2 stayed at the campsite and witnessed Tamara attempt to burn the dog with a cigarette, witness 2 also witnessed the husband strike Tamara to prevent harm to the dog. Deputies did observe the damage at the campsite, a tent had been burnt but was moved nearly 10ft from its original spot to be placed into the fire. A small portion of the vegetation around the camp fire had been burnt in result to the large tent being placed onto the fire. Based on the totality of circumstances, Deputy believe that Tamara was a danger to herself and the public due to her level of intoxication. She was placed into custody and transported to The Loudon County Jail. All the above did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Billy Brauckmuller, 42, Westv 9th Ave Lenoir City, was charged with Simple Possession, Legend Drug, Poss. of Drug Para., and Tampering/Fabricating with Evidence.

Officer Law LCPD, was dispatched to West 9th Ave in reference to Billy Brauckmuller verbally threatening the victim Enroute to West 9th Ave, Mr. Brauckmuller called in to dispatch stating someone had thrown liquids on his bed. Upon arrival Officer made contact with Mr. Brauckmuller who had a thick tongue and pinpoint pupils. Mr. Brauckmuller stated he came home to find his door open and lotion all over his bed. While speaking to Mr. Brauckmuller Officer did observe in plain view a pill container on a cabinet next to the bed with a half hydrocodone 500mg "Schedule II" inside, a prescription bottle addressed to a female with 3 Meloxicam 7.5 mg "Legend Drugs" inside of it, and a half-cut straw in an open travel bag with orangish residue inside. During the investigation, Officer went outside the residence to speak with Officer Z Parmer, and once Officer went back to speak to Mr. Brauckmuller it appeared the two pill bottles along with the half-cut straw were gone. Upon placing Mr. Brauckmuller under arrest, he stated he concealed the items under the cabinet next to the bed. It was determined Mr. Brauckmuller did intend to conceal the items from Law Enforcement. Mr. Brauckmuller was then transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

Erik Espinoza, 19, Main Street Loudon, was charged with Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. VI.

Sgt. Rogers LCSO, observed a black sedan traveling at a high rate of speed on I75 NB in the area of the 67mm. Sgt. paced the vehicle at 82mph in a 70mph zone. While observing the vehicle Sgt. Rogers noted it crossed over the center line and fog line. Sgt. Rogers initiated a traffic stop in the area of the 68mm and made contact with the occupants. While approaching the vehicle Sgt. Rogers smelled a strong odor of marijuana. Sgt. Rogers made contact with the occupants and confirmed the smell was coming from within the vehicle. The driver stated they had smoked weed before leaving Sweetwater but further stated there was not marijuana in the vehicle. The driver did also give consent to search his vehicle and stated he was swerving, because he was on his phone. After searching the vehicle, Sgt. Rogers found a backpack in the truck that contained 8 orange prepackaged bags of marijuana that were each labeled "3.5g Cannabis". The passenger Mr. Erik Espinoza stated that the marijuana was all his. Sgt. Rogers took the offender into custody and transported him to the Loudon County Jail. While in the salyport of the jail Mr. Espinoza stated he had 2 more bags of marijuana within his pants, which were recovered and weighed at 8.5g each. In total Mr. Espinoza was in possession of 45g of marijuana. Mr. Espinoza was charged with Resale of Schedule VI. Said did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Saine
 purchase. Saine, who was not prohibited from purchasing a firearm, completed the required paperwork using her information and paid for the two firearms. She also purchased a laser aiming device for the pistol.

Surveillance video from the FFL showed Saine at the FFL's gun counter handing the firearms to the felon who was accompanying her and, after she completed the purchase, the felon leaving the FFL's premises while carrying one of the firearms. Saine admitted to law enforcement that she had met the felon while she was a contract employee of the Tennessee Department of Correction, and that the felon was incarcerated on a felony conviction at the prison where she had worked as a nurse. She also admitted that she was in a relationship with the felon, knew he was a felon, and that he had traveled to and from the FFLs premises with her.

Law enforcement also recovered a text message from a cell phone that Saine sent the felon after the purchase of the firearms that said, "I've got your gun and stuff in the house." A co-operating witness testified that they saw the felon with the pistol and were able to recognize the firearm because of the attached laser aiming device and distinctive markings on the firearm.

U.S. Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III of the Eastern District of Tennessee; and ATF Special Agent in Charge Marcus S. Watson made the announcement.

The criminal indictment was the result of an investigation by the Kingsport Police Department and ATF. This investigation was led by ATF Task Force Officer Mike Slater.

Assistant United States Attorney B. Todd Martin and Special Assistant U.S. Attorney Blake Watson represented the United States.

This case is part of Project Safe Neighborhoods (PSN), a program bringing together all levels of law enforcement and the communities they serve to reduce violent crime and gun violence, and to make our neighborhoods safer for everyone. On May 26, 2021, the Department launched a violent crime reduction strategy strengthening PSN based on these core principles: fostering trust and legitimacy in our communities, supporting community-based organizations that help prevent violence from occurring in the first place, setting focused and strategic enforcement priorities, and measuring the results.

Horoscopes

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Remember that there's a benevolent force out there that loves you, Gemini. No matter what, there's always a shoulder to cry on, even if it isn't a tangible one. Even in your darkest moments, you're never alone. Let this knowledge carry you through the day.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Don't hesitate to say the obvious today, Cancer, even if it sounds corny. Many times people hesitate to say what they really feel because they think it's obvious to everyone. The truth of the matter is that most people aren't mind readers and probably aren't picking up on the subtle signals that you send out.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Look to older figures for advice today, Leo. Seek counsel with a parent or grandparent on issues you feel strongly about. Relationships with older people are likely to go especially well, and you will find you can break through barriers that may have existed between you and a certain member of your family.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Consider composing a bit of poetry today, Virgo. Use this as an exercise to condense your ocean of emotions into a very few words. You might find that a great deal of your inner turmoil really boils down to just one or two central things.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Just because your emotions are reserved or somber today doesn't mean you shouldn't share them with others, Libra. Work through difficulties by processing your feelings and running them by someone close. Keep your interaction limited to just one person at a time so you don't get overshadowed by a third party who wants to get their opinion in at the same time.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

You may need to jump to many different people and situations today, Scorpio, yet something is holding you back. Listen to this inner voice that's asking you to be conservative at this time. You have many more profound things to say when you filter your thoughts through a large funnel.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

You feel like you have a stone strapped to your back, Sagittarius. The farther you walk with this load, the slower you go, and the more hunched over you will be by the time you reach your destination. Unloaded the stone from your pack. Realize that this break in your journey will help you make much better time in the long run and save you from a great deal of physical strain.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Feel free to break ties with certain people now, Capricorn. You may be overextending your emotional bank account by investing too much of yourself in others' lives. You may not even realize how much this sort of action taxes you until you rid yourself of unnecessary baggage.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Less is more should be your motto for today, Aquarius. The more you cut back in certain areas of your life, the more room you open up to bring in new and exciting things.

Go ahead and say no to people, and don't feel badly about it. Take care of yourself and your needs as much as you take care of the needs of the people around you.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You may be asked to slow down today, Pisces. Whether this comes in the form of a speeding ticket or a scrape on the knee when you trip, you must listen to this message. The key for you now isn't to get too emotional as a result of this slowdown. Know that it's for your own good.

Aries 3/21-4/19

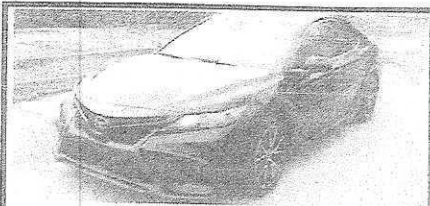

Share your skills today, Aries. You will find that as you engage in the role of teacher, you learn more than if you just hold onto your knowledge without sharing it. You will be challenged in ways you didn't even think possible.
