An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has resulted in the indictment of Mindy Orlandino, the former treasurer of the Oak Ridge High School Softball Boosters. The parent-led booster club supported the school's softball program until it was banned by the school from continuing its operations in August 2023.

The investigation, which began after school officials reported questionable transactions, found that Orlandino misappropriated club funds totaling at least $1,622.07 in 2023. Orlandino's misappropriation included ATM cash withdrawals from the booster club bank account, unauthorized personal purchases using the club's debit card, and a failure to turn over a fee she collected from another family for the team's banquet.

In August 2023, Orlandino remitted $1,400 of her personal funds for deposit into the school's softball account.

Based upon this investigation, in September 2024, the Anderson County Grand Jury indicted Misty Ladarrion Parker, 22, Bristol Meadows Lane Memphis, was charged with, Simple Possession, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, and Traffic Device.

Officer R. Miller, with the Lenoir City Police Department, conducted a traffic stop on a white Buick SUV in the area of Highway 321 near Interstate 40 in Lenoir City, TN for the vehicle failing to come to a complete stop at a posted stop sign while exiting the Loves Truck Stop parking lot. Upon the traffic stop the driver was identified as Ladarrion Parker and the passenger was identified as a male. While speaking with PARKER at the passenger's side window regarding the traffic violation the officer could smell an odor of marijuana emitting from inside of the vehicle. The officer then had PARKER step out of the vehicle to speak with him further about a citation. During the time the officer was speaking with PARKER and writing a citation, K9 Cpl. C. Jenkins of the Loudon County Sheriff's Office responded to his location and deployed K9 Deja to conduct an open-air sniff of the vehicle where the officer was advised by the handler that K9 Deja positively alerted to an odor of narcotics coming from the vehicle. A probable cause search of the vehicle was then conducted where the officer located several small bags containing a green leafy substance believed to be marijuana. The bags containing the green leafy substance believed to be marijuana were located in a Gucci bag in the back seat of the vehicle. The approximate weight of the green leafy substance believed to be marijuana was (7.57 grams). During the roadside investigation it was found that PARKER had an active warrant for his arrest out of Madison County, TN for a failure to appear. The warrant to confirmed and Madison County advised a hold would be placed for

PARKER. Central dispatch also confirmed that the license status for PARKER was shown to be REVOKED out of the state of Tennessee. PARKER was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

Charged

Lucas Omary, 31, Homeless Loudon, was charged with Domestic Assault.

Deputy Eric Curtis LCSO, was at the EZ Stop on Broadway during his normal patrol shift and was approached by a heavysset elderly male who was bloodied on his elbow and had a cut on the right side of his face and minor swelling on the left side of his face near his nose.

Identified as the victim, he stated that he had been assaulted at his home on Stevens Ln by Lucas Omary, a fellow tenant of that residence. The victim stated that Omary got into his face during an argument and struck him with an empty, closed fist. The victim was knocked over the woodpile and Omary continued to strike him. A witness, was with the victim at the time of the report and corroborat-ed these events. The deputy acquired written statements from both victim and witness and before he could complete his interview, the victim was transported by EMS due to dizziness and being unsteady on his feet. The deputy then went to Stevens Ln with Deputy N Reagan and located Lucas. The deputy asked him what had happened, and Lucas admitted to striking Childress. The deputy then placed Lucas under arrest and deputy Reagan transported him to the Loudon County Jail without incident. Upon arrival at the jail, the deputy read Lucas his Miranda Rights, and he stated that the victim had been bringing someone around the kids that was of poor character and that the victim had been, "talking out of his head." He apologized for striking the victim and admitted that he had lost his temper. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Benjamin Simon, 20, Butternut Circle Knoxville, was charged with DUI.

Officer Carroll LCPD, was dispatched to the area of Hwy 321 N in the area of McGhee Blvd in reference to a Reckless Driver call. While in the area, the officer observed the vehicle in question(235BLTK) in the Weigel's parking lot on Hwy 321 N. The officer was able to make contact with the driver of the vehicle, who was identified as Benjamin Arthur Simon. While speaking with Mr. Simon, the officer noticed that he had watery, bloodshot eyes, and the odor of alcohol emitting from his breath. Mr. Simon admitted that he had drank a little vodka, and that he had driven the vehicle to Weigel's. The officer asked Mr. Simon if he would be willing to perform Standardized Field Sobriety testing, to which he consented. During the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus test, Mr. Simon had lack of smooth pursuit, Nystagmus while eyes were at Maximum Deviation, and Onset Nystagmus prior to 45 degrees. During the Walk and Turn test, Mr. Simon used arms for balance, missed heel to toe, stepped off line, and turned improperly. During the One-leg Stand test, Mr. Simon used arms for balance, put his foot down, and counted improperly. The officer also conducted ARIDE testing in which Mr. Simon performed poorly. Mr. Simon was placed into custody, and read Implied Consent, to which he consented. Mr. Simon was transported to Ft. Loudon Medical Center for a blood test, and then to the Loudon County Jail. Mr. Simons vehicle was towed to Money Maker's. This incident did take place within

Former Jackson Police Aviation Chief Pilot Indicted for Theft

An investigation by the Tennessee Comptroller's Office has resulted in the indictment of Terry Hopper, the former Chief Pilot of the Jackson Police Aviation Unit. The investigation began after Jackson Police Department officials reported questionable payroll transactions.

Investigators determined that Hopper improperly received at least $29,499.07 in unearned wages and employer-paid benefits between May 1, 2021 and August 31, 2022.

In early 2020, Hopper was allowed to occasionally travel to a neighboring law enforcement agency under the pretense that he was training for an advanced aviation certification. However, in August 2022, department officials discovered that he was, instead, traveling to Millington to perform work for a private business.

Investigators reviewed records and concluded that Hopper was paid by the City of Jackson for 780.25 regular hours and 32 overtime hours when he was not physically present at his assigned work location.

Hopper's unearned wages totaled $23,146.89, and his unearned payroll benefits totaled $6,352.18.

The investigation also found that Hopper abused his assigned City of Jackson-owned vehicle privilege by fueling his vehicle on days he claimed to be working for the department but was not physically present at the aviation hangar or neighboring law enforcement agency.

Terry Hopper retired from the Jackson Police Department on November 16, 2022. Based upon this investigation, in October 2024, the see Indicted ctd. pg. 5

Madison County Grand Jury indicted him on one count of theft of property over $10,000.

"Employers should do their best to verify that employees are present at their assigned work location each day," said Comptroller Mumpower. "Failure to do so increases the risk that errors or intentional misappropriations will occur and remain undetected."

Police beat

Casey Anderson, 48, West Outer Drive Oak Ridge, was charged with Public Intoxication. Deputy Knight responded to Highway 70 E in reference to an individual trespassing on someone's property. Upon arrival, the deputy spoke with the (complainant) who said that a man was laying in a ditch on his property and he did not know who he was. The deputy made contact with a man lying in a ditch who was identified as Casey Anderson (offender/arrestee). The deputy asked Mr. Anderson to stand up and get out of the ditch and he made multiple attempts at getting up but could not. Upon making contact with Mr. Anderson, the deputy detected a strong odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his person. The deputy asked him if he had been drinking and he said that he had been drinking a bottle of vodka. Mr. Anderson did not know where he was and said that he had gotten into an argument with his girlfriend while in the car and she dropped him off there. Due to Mr. Anderson not knowing where he was as well as the fact that he was unable to walk without assistance, The deputy deemed Mr. Anderson to be a danger to himself and placed him in custody for Public Intoxication. While checking Mr. Anderson through dispatch, he came back with a Failure to Appear in reference to public intoxication out of Knox County. A hold was placed on Mr. Anderson for Knox County. Mr. Anderson was transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident.

ORHS

Orlandino on one count of theft over $1,000 and one count of fraudulent use of a credit or debit card over $1,000.

"Our investigators outlined a number of deficiencies within the financial operations of this booster club," said Comptroller Mumpower. "Some of the problems included not requiring two signatures on checks, not maintaining adequate records, and giving one person too much control over the financial process, which increases the risk of fraud."

side is on display. You're like a dancer onstage, and you accept this role with pleasure! There's a great combination of energies at work letting you become more realistic about love and approach it with dramatic flair and courage.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21
Come out of your shell and be proud of your sensitive side, Sagittarius. Although you may feel vulnerable when it comes to love and romance, this doesn't mean that you have to hide it. You may think that everyone else has it together in this department, but don't be fooled.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19
You shouldn't have any problem getting your way in most areas of life, Capricorn. The time is ripe for you to take the lead. Unfortunately, there may be one important part of your life that isn't going exactly to plan, and this is love and romance. It's likely that you will run into a tremendously stubborn attitude that you can't seem to break through.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18
Have fun with loved ones, Aquarius. Put your worries aside. Don't think of the possible negative consequences of having a good time. Focus on the fun and excitement of the moment. You have the ability to create fantastically strong bonds between you and your romantic partner. Love is in your favor, so act with confidence.

Pisces 2/19-3/20
You're the secret jewel, Pisces. You're apt to be extremely loving and devoted to those who recognize this in you. There is no reason to shrink back and hide. Put on your royal air and flaunt your stuff. Your peaceful, charming nature shines through, and you radiate the god-like qualities you have within.

Aries 3/21-4/19
You may feel locked in a bind of deep emotion and stubborn attitudes with close friends or lovers, Aries. Perhaps it's hard for you to say what you really feel. You may be under the impression that you're being tested and judged by everyone else. Try not to let your ego get in the way of a good time.

Taurus 4/20-5/20
Your spirit sparkles, Taurus. You may feel filled with tremendous energy as you go about your day. Your sense of adventure is high, and there's very little that gets you down. One area that might be difficult to deal with right now is love and romance.

Gemini 5/21-6/20
You may feel yourself slipping into a deeper understanding with a close friend or loved one, Gemini. Romantic situations are heating up, and you're slowly letting your inhibitions fade away so they're completely absent. You realize the exuberance and excitement that come when you come out of hiding and let your playful spirit charm the world.

Cancer 6/21-7/22
Most of the time it's good to have strong opinions and be independent and willful, Cancer. But there are other times when this attitude turns people away you're hoping to draw closer. There's a stubborn yet sensitive attitude in your world of romance that may be difficult for you to deal with.

Leo 7/23-8/22
Sensual, passionate lovemaking is definitely on the agenda of activities for tonight, Leo. Fun, excitement, romance, and love are all key themes likely to take precedence if you have anything to say about it - and you do. Don't let someone else dictate your path for you. You know what you want, so don't say you don't care when you do.

Virgo 8/23-9/22
You may feel like the brakes have been slammed in the romance department, Virgo. Realize that this doesn't mean you have to stop having fun. Laughter and good times are in store for you today as long as you don't get hung up on the slow pace of your love life.

Libra 9/23-10/22
The stars indicate that love and romance are in your favor, Libra. You will find that this area of your life is going well. Shower your partner with affection. You honey's ego needs to be stroked.
