Law Enforcement Suicides

Online platform provides current data on suicides, aims to reduce stigma

An FBI database established in 2021 to help prevent law enforcement suicides and increase awareness and understanding of the occurrence is now online.

The Law Enforcement Suicide Data Collection (LESDC) was recently added to the FBI's Crime Data Explorer platform, a dynamic online clearinghouse of FBI statistics and research.

The collection displays the most current information about suicides and suicide attempts from participating law enforcement agencies.

Data includes circumstances surrounding law enforcement suicides and suicide attempts, general locations, demographics, occupations, and the methods used.

"We aim to provide agencies with the means to understand and mitigate situations which could eventually lead to a death by suicide," said Lora Klingensmith, a program manager in the FBI's Criminal Justice Information Services (CJIS) Division, which manages the Bureau's Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program.

This year, according to the LESDC, seven

Yahir Alonso, 19, Reeds Springs Road Philadelphia, was charged with Underage Driving while Intoxicated, and Violation of Implied Consent.

Deputy Davis LCSO, was patrolling his assigned zone when the deputy encountered a suspicious Ford F-150 parked at the closed Sunoco Gas Station gas pumps located at 19997 W Lee Highway. The Ford F-150 was running stationary at the gas pumps but was not filling its gas tank. Upon approach, the deputy observed a Hispanic male later identified as Yahir Alonso passed out in the driver's seat of the vehicle. The deputy knocked on the vehicle's window multiple times to get Mr. Alonso's attention. Mr. Alonso woke up and went back to sleep two times before he acknowledged the deputy. Mr. Alonso rolled the window down to speak with him. Mr. Alonso had slurred speech when speaking, red glassy eyes, and the deputy could smell the odor of an alcoholic beverage coming from his breath. Mr. Alonso had a very inconsistent travel story. Mr. Alonso also thought his friend T-Rex was still in the vehicle, but he was not present. Mr. Alonso stated he had one Bud Light at a friend's house before driving but later changed his story to two Bud lights. Mr. Alonso consented to conduct the Standardized Field Sobriety Test. During the Horizontal Gaze Nystagmus Test, the deputy observed the following clues, lack of smooth pursuit in both eyes, distinct and sustained nystagmus at maximum deviation in both eyes, and onset of nystagmus prior to 45 degrees in both eyes. During the Walk and Turn Test, the deputy observed the following clues, failing to remain in the starting position during the instructional phase of the test, starting the test too soon, missing heel to toe on the 4th, 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th step on the first 9 steps, missing heel to toe on the 1st, 3rd, 5th, 7th, and 9th step on the second 9 steps, improper turn, and stepped off the line on the 3rd step of the second 9 steps. During the One Leg Stand test, the deputy observed the following clues, placing his foot down 3 times, and swaying.

Based on the deputy observation of Mr. Alonso's physical state, his own admission to consuming an alcoholic beverage before driving, and his performance on the Standardized Field Sobriety Test. The deputy concluded Mr. Alonso was in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of a drug or intoxicant that impaired his ability to safely operate a motor vehicle on a public roadway. Mr. Alonso was read implied consent and refused to give a sample for chemical testing. Mr. Alonso was transported to the Loudon County Detention Facility with no further incident. This incident occurred in Loudon County, TN.

Charged

Brittany Robinette, 35, Robinson Spring Road Loudon, was charged with Assault.

Sgt. Brian Smith LCSO, was the acting School Resource Officer at Fort Loudoun Middle School for a basketball game. Principal Harris and Sgt. were investigating a disturbance, when Sgt. Smith turned to see two females at the bottom of the stands screaming at each other. While approaching the two, to separate them, he witnessed the suspect swing her right arm toward the face of the victim in a clear and intentional manor to assault the victim. The Sgt. did separate the two by escorting the suspect to the hallway and identified her to be Brittany Nichole Robinette. The Sgt. then made contact with the other female and found her to be the victim who stated to this officer, on body worn camera, that Brittany attempted to strike her in the face and her fingernails scratched her face. The victim did state that she wished to prosecute the matter. The Sgt. did not see any marks on victim face at that time. The victim stated there had been tension between Brittany and some people in the stands all night. The victim said that she and Brittney had started arguing right before Brittany became violent and attempted to smack her.

Brittany told me the victim got in her face and said "B*^% I will beat your A#$". Brittany also said the victim had been threatening her child that was playing in the game. After gathering all facts, Sgt. Smith placed Brittany in custody for Assault and transported her to the Loudon County Jail without incident. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Bryan Lee, 41, Jefferson Street TN, was charged with, DUI, Disorderly Conduct, Resisting Arrest, Due Care, Violation of Implied Consent, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Mr. Bryan Lee was involved in a crash on Interstate 75 South on the off ramp at exit 76. When Trooper White THP. arrived the odor of alcohol was emanating from Mr. Lee, he had glassy, watery eyes, and he was extremely unsteady on his feet. While speaking with him Mr. Lee thought he was still in the state of Kentucky and explained that he was going to another city in the state of Kentucky. Mr. Lee stated that he did not want to participate in standardized field sobriety tests. Mr. Lee then stated that he wanted to go to the hospital and was transported by EMS to Fort Loudon Medical Center. A consent search of the vehicle was conducted, during the search, an empty bottle of tequila was recovered as well as a pipe with marijuana residue. trooper White arrived at Fort Loudon Medical center and read Mr. Lee the implied consent form to which he refused to provide a sample of his blood for chemical testing. After obtaining a warrant for a Blood sample Mr. Lee ripped out the I.V. and refused to comply with the warrant. While leaving Mr. Lee kicked a trash can in the hospital, and screamed all the way to the car. In the car Mr. Lee struck the partition and the window with his head. Mr. Lee was transported to Loudon County Jail. This did happen on a public roadway in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Horoscopes

with your sentiments and be more present and connected to those around you.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today, Sagittarius, you're in the mood for commitment! Take time to connect with the social world as you seek like-minded people who can share your intimate, individualistic realm. Ultimately, we all have to figure out how to make our way in society.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Your scattered energy comes together today in a powerful laser beam of concentrated attention and effort. You will work until you drop, and no one and nothing had better get in your way! Keep up the good pace.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

It seems that the new planetary lineup has just opened up some doors that had previously been shut. You revel in the confidence that people have in you. It isn't that your abilities have changed, just your attitude! People trust you because you exhibit more self-confidence.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

There is a possibility that you feel cheated or taken advantage of in some way. Do you feel as if you're paying more than your fair share? The day ahead gives you an opportunity to achieve recognition for your efforts and perhaps redress some grievances. It's odd that despite your tendency to espouse fairness, you feel uncomfortable when the authorities rule in your favor.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You're gifted at bringing people together, there's no doubt about that, Aries. Today will be especially good for participating in or initiating group activities. It's a favorable day for any project related to fellowship and assistance. You might do the groundwork to form a team, discussion group, or charitable endeavor.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You have a promising day ahead, Taurus. Finally, you will advance by leaps and bounds in whatever needs to be done. Whatever has been causing the delays will likely be revealed today. You return to the skill and professionalism you so value after several weeks of halting progress.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

There's some likelihood that something you need or want has been eluding your grasp. The somewhat strained aspect of the heavens lately hasn't helped. But today everything is within reach, especially if it was material considerations holding you back. You have an auspicious day ahead, so make the most of it!

Cancer 6/21-7/22

The day ahead will be a soothing one, Cancer. Since it's auspicious for the material aspect of things, it's a good time to settle household issues like bills or repairs. But you might also take advantage of today's aspect to set in motion even more ambitious plans about your living situation.

Leo 7/23-8/22

You will be full of ideas for improving your lifestyle, Leo, especially as it relates to your family. It's true that over the past few months you've experienced some hardships.

You can breathe easier now. Whether it's for your career or home, today's initiatives are likely to bring great rewards. Take advantage of the atmosphere to put together a realistic plan for the future

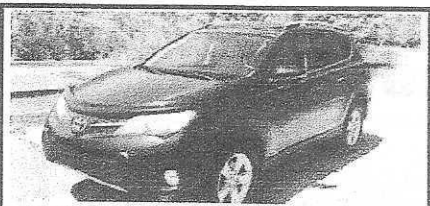

Virgo 8/23-9/22

Is discipline high on your list of priorities lately, Virgo? You're undoubtedly trying to inject some order into your daily life, and your behavior could benefit from some adjustment as well. Whether it concerns food, hygiene, or simply the intensity of your daily rhythm, it's possible that you will notice a real improvement today.

Libra 9/23-10/22

Is discipline high on your list of priorities lately, Virgo? You're undoubtedly trying to inject some order into your daily life, and your behavior could benefit from some adjustment as well. Whether it concerns food, hygiene, or simply the intensity of your daily rhythm, it's possible that you will notice a real improvement today.

Obituaries

Eugene Terry Benson of the Tellico Village Community, Loudon, TN passed away November 2, 2024. Terry was born March 27, 1926 in Breckenridge, Missouri to parents Ruth and Paul Benson. He attended Breckenridge public schools, graduating as Valedictorian of his class. He then served two years in the US Army Air Corps from 1944 to 1946, travelling to Japan as part of occupation troops.

After discharge, he attended college at the University of Missouri. Due to extra credit hours earned as a result of A and B grades, he graduated a semester early in February of 1950 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. He obtained a job in Kansas City with General Motors Assembly Division. His sister in Sedalia, introduced him to a fellow worker, Josephine Wadleigh. What a blessing! Terry and Jo were married Dec. 10, 1950, lived in Kansas City, MO a short time, then Mission, Kansas. In 1955 he was transferred to GM's assembly plant in Arlington, Texas as Payroll Supervisor. In 1964 he was transferred to GMAD's headquarters in Detroit, where he served as Divisional Auditor; then put in charge of Payroll, servicing the Payroll Departments of all GMAD plants.

Terry obtained an early retirement in 1987, and in 1989 he and Jo were fortunate to find Tellico Village. Also, what a blessing to develop a friendship with some special couples with whom he and Jo played golf until he was physically unable to do so, but who continued to be dear friends. Terry was a charter member of Tellico Village Community Church where he served as Chairman of the Missions Committee and chaired raising funds for building a new sanctuary. He was also a founding member of the Tellico Village General Motors Club.

Terry and Jo were blessed to have two children, Deborah Jane and Paul David, as well as grandchildren, Meghan, Melissa (Steve) Wygonski Jennifer (Brandon) Davis and Michael; great grandchildren Kora and Orion. He also has a brother, Lanny, who lives in Florida. Terry's sister, Maxine predeceased him.

Service will be held on Friday, December 13, 2024 at 11:00 a.m. at The Community Church at Tellico Village. The family will receive friends immediately following the service.
