Federal Jury Convicts Maryville Man Of Conspiring To Murder FBI Employees

Following a three-day trial in United States District Court, a jury convicted Edward Kelley, 35, of Maryville, Tennessee, of Conspiracy to Murder Federal Employees, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1117; Solicitation to Commit a Crime of Violence, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 373; and Influencing a Federal Official by Threat, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 115(a)(1)(B).

Kelley faces a sentence of up to life in federal prison. He will be sentenced by United States District Judge, the Honorable Thomas A. Varlan, in the United States District Court at Knoxville on May 7, 2025, at 2:00 pm.

The evidence presented at trial established that Kelley, while awaiting trial for his involvement in the January 6, 2021, Capitol riots, developed a plan to murder law enforcement, including FBI agents and employees. The proof showed that Kelley developed a "kill list" of FBI agents and others who participated in the investigation into his conduct on January

Theft

James Dillehay, 54, Mt. Pleasant TN, was charged with, DUI, Driving on Revoked License, and Theft of Property.

THP. H. Singh was on the right shoulder of eastbound Interstate 40. The trooper had just concluded a traffic stop when he observed a vehicle in his driver's sideview mirror with a defective headlight. The trooper caught up to the vehicle and observed it. The vehicle swerved in its lane and hit the fog line a few times. The trooper conducted a traffic stop and immediately received a hit through NCIC of a stolen vehicle. The hit read has a blue, 2017 Chevrolet Cruze with a big letter "B" on the rear windshield. The trooper observed the vehicle to have said letter on the windshield. The trooper used his PA microphone and had the driver shut the vehicle off and place both hands out of the window. As the trooper walked up to the vehicle, he opened the door and noticed the defendant to have slurred speech with an obvious odor of alcohol emanating from his breath. The trooper identified the defendant through his Tennessee identification card to be James Earl Dillehay. An NCIC check of his ID yielded him to be driving while revoked for DUI

(habitual offender). The trooper attempted to perform SFSTs on the driver. During HGN/VGN, the defendant had to be told numerous times to focus on the stimulus. Eventually, the defendant stated sum in substance, "there's no point of doing this as you already have me on the stolen car." the trooper asked the defendant if he was refusing to perform SFSTs to which he said he is. The defendant did agree to provide a blood sample after the implied consent form was read. Dispatch confirmed that the vehicle was stolen and had been stolen on 11/24/2024. A Kelly Blue Book value was conducted and the vehicle was approximately priced between $6,000 to $7,500. The defendant was placed under arrest. Dillehay was given Miranda warnings and he agreed to speak to the trooper. He stated he had taken the vehicle from near a Kroger parking lot somewhere in Columbia, Tennessee. He further stated that the keys were inside of the vehicle and that he was driving to North Carolina to visit his family. He also stated that he had drank approximately 3, 4, 5 tall boy cans of beer. The trooper received a phone call from Columbia PD, who stated they had conducted a welfare check on Mr. Dillehay earlier that day and found his GPS was removed, and he was nowhere to be found.

Charged

David Morgan, 42, Homeless Lenoir City, was charged with, Violation of Probation, and Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth.

Officer R. Miller, with the Lenoir City Police Department, was in the area of Simpson Road near a known homeless encampment attempting to locate a wanted subject. During the investigation officers came upon a tent in the woods.

Once contact was made with the tent officers made themselves known at which time a female and male subject were visually observed through and opening of the tent. The officer was able to identify both the female and male subject inside of the tent due to previous encounters.

The male subject was identified as David Morgan, and the female was identified. During the investigation, the female and DAVID both advised that they had been staying in the tent for a couple weeks. A warrant check was then conducted on both the female and DAVID, where central dispatch confirmed through the Loudon County Jail that DAVID had an active warrant for a violation of probation out of Loudon County General Sessions Court. Contact was made with DAVID. Once the officer advised DAVID of the warrant, he asked if he could change into warm clothes that he could wear while at the jail at which time the officer let him change. The officer visually observed DAVID remove a black coat from his body at which time the officer asked if he could search the pockets. DAVID verbally consented to a search of his coat pockets at which time the officer located a small black container in his right coat pocket. Inside of the container was a small bag containing a crystal-like substance consistent with methamphetamine. DAVID was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail without incident.

The approximate weight of the crystal-like substance believed to be methamphetamine along with the bag it was contained came out to be (0.85 grams).

Wanted

Bryant Aguilera, 29, Mulberry Street Loudon, was charged with, Criminal Impersonation, Resisting Arrest x2, Assault, Poss. of Drug Para., Aggravated Criminal Trespassing, Evading Arrest, Criminal Trespassing, and Violation of Probation x2.

Deputy B. McCall LCSO, responded to Mulberry Street to serve a civil summons. Upon arrival, the deputy made contact with a female who stated that Bryant was home and that she would go get him. Mr. Aguilera came to the front door of the residence, at which time the deputy explained to him that he had paperwork for him from Monroe County Juvenile Court. Loudon County 911 Dispatch then informed the deputy that Mr.

Aguilera had two active warrants out of Loudon County Criminal Court for Violation of Probation (2018-CR-78 & 2023-CR-28) and was wanted out of Forsyth County, GA, for Violation of Probation. The deputy asked Mr. Aguilera to step out onto the porch, but he claimed to be someone named Martin and stated that Bryant had died in Chattanooga. Based on prior knowledge of Mr. Aguilera, I recognized him as Bryant and instructed him once again to step out of the residence. Mr. Aguilera then retreated into the house, exited through the back door, and ran into a neighbor's house. The deputy immediately called for backup and attempted to get Mr. Aguilera to leave the neighbor's house. Shortly after, additional officers arrived on scene, and Mr. Aguilera fled from the neighbor's house, initiating a brief foot pursuit. The deputy overheard Officer Turpin deploying his taser, at which point the deputy responded to the area. After a brief struggle, officers were able to gain control of Mr. Aguilera and place him into custody.

Upon arrest, Mr. Aguilera was found to be carrying a large kitchen knife tucked in the back of his waistband. Officer J. Valletto recovered two pipes used for smoking narcotics from Mr. Aguilera's jacket pockets.

The neighbor confirmed that Mr. Aguilera did not have their consent to enter their home and had previously told him not to be on their property. The neighbors stated they were asleep when Mr. Aguilera entered their home, which caused them fear upon waking. After being checked out and cleared by EMS, Aguilera was transported to the Loudon County Detention Center without incident. This occurred in Loudon County, TN.

6 and that Kelley distributed this list – along with videos containing images of certain FBI employees identified on the list – to a co-conspirator as part of his “mission.”

A cooperating defendant, who previously pleaded guilty to his role in the conspiracy, testified that he and Kelley planned attacks on the Knoxville FBI office using car bombs and incendiary devices appended to drones. He also testified that the conspirators strategized about assassinating FBI employees in their homes and in public places such as movie theaters.

At trial, the United States introduced recordings of the defendant calling for the development of a “course of action” related to his plan. In one such recording, the defendant gave the instructions to, among other things, “start it,” “attack,” and “take out their office” in the event of his arrest. Kelley was recorded stating: “Every hit has to hurt. Every hit has to hurt.”

“The safety of our men and women in law enforcement is of paramount concern,” said United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III. “There is simply no room in society for those who would engage in this kind of reprehensible conduct and threaten to assassinate FBI agents and others who are honorably serving to uphold the law, and this office will pursue all such threats against civil servants working for the public good.”

“The danger posed by the defendant in this case was very real,” said Special Agent in Charge Joe Carrico of the FBI Nashville Field Office. “Today’s guilty verdict is a culmination of the tireless efforts of our dedicated employees and the invaluable partnership we have with our law enforcement partners. The FBI remains steadfast in its mission to protect the nation from threats of violent extremism.”

Assistant U.S. Attorneys Casey T. Arrowood and Kyle J. Wilson of the Eastern District of Tennessee prosecuted

the case with the assistance of Trial Attorneys Jacob Warren, Tanya Senanayake, and David Smith of the National Security Division’s Counterterrorism Section. Valuable assistance was provided by the U.S. Attorney’s Office for the District of Columbia.

The case was investigated by the Knoxville Joint Terrorism Task Force, which is composed of federal, state, and local law enforcement agencies. It was led by the FBI and involved the assistance of FBI offices from across the country.

Horoscopes

may find that there's something spurring you on today.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19
 Nov 24, 2024 - Things should go well for you today, Capricorn, especially in the love and romance department. Don't shy away from the obvious attraction that you have toward one special person. Today is the day to amplify that feeling instead of hiding from it. Show off your love with the brightest, boldest colors and actions possible.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18
 There may be too much fiery energy in the day to make you feel comfortable with the situation, Aquarius. Instead of trying to resist this powerful force, it would be better if you embraced it. Use this day to draw out some of your inner flame and let it radiate toward the people you care about the most.

Pisces 2/19-3/20
 You may find that others are hostile toward you today, Pisces. Try not to take it personally. Realize that there are other people and situations with which you can connect that will help bolster your ego instead of dragging it down. Make deeper connections with your loved one tonight by indulging in some adventure fantasies.

Aries 3/21-4/19
 Put your incredible sensitivity to work for you today in a way that inspires action, Aries. There's so much within you that needs expression at this time. Don't hold back any longer. When it comes to issues regarding love and romance, feel free to make a move.

Taurus 4/20-5/20
 Things should be going well for you today, so don't miss the opportunities that await you, Taurus. There's a sparkle in your eye that's unmistakable, and you will find that issues regarding love and romance are especially potent. Love is on your side. You should take this opportunity to delve deeply into a love affair.

Gemini 5/21-6/20
 Don't let other people's insensitive actions dictate your mood today, Gemini. Your state of mind is your responsibility, and you should work to come to a point at which you have full control over what you feel at all times.

Cancer 6/21-7/22
 You should find that you have an extra amount of creative energy now, Cancer, and you should do what you can to make this force work for you. There's a time and place for everything, and now is the time to work together with your higher self to channel some of the artist within.

Leo 7/23-8/22
 You may have been a bit indecisive lately when it comes to love and romance, Leo. Perhaps your mind is drawn to one person while your heart is drawn to another. Perhaps you're trying to trick your mind into seeing a certain quality in someone while you ignore parts that you don't really like. Make sure you accept people for all of who they are and not just the individual parts.

Virgo 8/23-9/22
 You're apt to be in a romantic mood today, Virgo. Your whole being may revolve around love and romance. You will find that your romanticism is heightened. This is a terrific day to snuggle up to a loved one and share intimate moments and passionate kisses.

Libra 9/23-10/22
 Feel free to strike out for new territory today, Libra, especially when it comes to love and romance. It could be that you're so scared of losing what you have that you refuse to take risks to obtain something better that you want. Realize that you will never get any further than the rut you're in until you take a deep breath, aim high, and shoot for your dreams.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21
 Things regarding love and romance may be climactic for you now, Scorpio, and you may bump heads with someone in a way that makes it difficult for either one of you to be content. More than likely there's an issue of freedom versus control that's making it difficult to find a resolution.

Obituaries

Dennis Corby, Jr. beloved husband, father, grandfather, and esteemed professional, passed away on November 29, 2024, at the age of 77. Dennis was born on February 12, 1947 in Chattanooga, Tennessee to Grace (Stringer) & Martin Corby. Dennis was a Christian with deep faith and love in Jesus Christ, his Lord and Savior. Dennis was a longtime member of First Baptist Church of Tellico Village. Dennis lived a life marked by intellectual curiosity, professional achievement, and deep love for his faith, family, and community.

Dennis graduated from The McCallie School in Chattanooga, Tennessee, in 1965 before pursuing higher education at Vanderbilt University. He earned his Bachelor of Engineering (B.E.) degree in Mechanical Engineering in 1969, followed by a Master of Science (M.S.) and a Ph.D. in Materials Science and Engineering in 1974 and 1976, respectively.

In 1971, Dennis joined the U.S. Air Force Materials Laboratory in Dayton, Ohio, where he worked in the Nondestructive Evaluation Branch, making significant contributions to the field. Later, Dennis enjoyed a 28-year career with General Electric, where he worked in engineering, marketing, and management, eventually earning recognition as a named inventor on four U.S. patents. In addition to his professional work, Dennis was deeply committed to leadership and service in his community. He served as the president of the National Aviation Hall of Fame in 1996 and was a graduate of Leadership Dayton and Class 15 of Greater Naples Leadership. He was an active member of the Rotary Club of Dayton and the Tellico Lake Rotary Club, and he held leadership positions as the past president of the Centerville Historical Society and the Centerville High School PTO. Dennis was a devoted husband to the love of his life, Jane (Gillespie) Corby, for over 57 years. Together, they built a life full of adventure and love. They enjoyed retirement as "snowbirds," splitting their time between Tellico Village in Tennessee and Naples, Florida. While in Naples, Dennis was an active member of the Pelican Isle Yacht Club where he served on the board of the Men's Club and as a club ambassador. Dennis and Jane traveled the world together, exploring Russia, Asia, Europe, South America, the Holy Land, and the United States. Dennis is survived by his wife, Jane; their children, Brett (Christine) Corby of Indian Land, South Carolina; Paige (Adam) Buffington of O'Fallon, Illinois; and Meredith (Jan) Brewer of Lexington, Kentucky. He was a proud and loving Papa to William & Beckett Brewer and Henry Buffington. Beyond his professional achievements, Dennis was known for his warmth, generosity, and a passion for life. His hobbies included boating, fishing, photography, and traveling. He found joy in the simple moments spent with family and friends and had a remarkable ability to make those around him feel valued and cherished. The family will receive friends on December 4, 2024 at 9:30 am at First Baptist Church of Tellico Village with a memorial service held in Dennis' honor starting at 10:00am. A private interment will follow at Greenlawn Cemetery in Franklin, Kentucky. Dennis Corby's legacy of kindness, achievement, and devotion will live on in the lives of his family and friends. He will be greatly missed, but never forgotten.
