Food City Agrees To Pay Over $8 Million To Settle False Claims Act Allegations Related To Opioid Dispensing

K-VA-T Food Stores, Inc. doing business as Food City (Food City), a regional grocery store chain headquartered in Abingdon, Virginia, has agreed to settle the government's allegations under the False Claims Act (FCA) related to its dispensing of opioids and other controlled substances. Under the settlement, Food City will pay the United States $8,488,378. Food City will pay an additional $78,621 to the states of Virginia and Kentucky for claims paid to Food City by state Medicaid programs.

According to court filed documents, the United States alleged that, from Jan. 1, 2011, through Dec. 31, 2018, 24 Food City store pharmacies dispensed opioids and other controlled substances that were medically unnecessary, lacked a legitimate medical purpose or medically accepted indication, and/or were not dispensed pursuant to valid prescriptions. The United States alleges that, as a result, Food City knowingly submitted, or caused to be submitted, false claims to federal healthcare programs.

Kory Krivda, 33, Chestnut Ridge Crossville, was charged with Public Intoxication.

Officer Carroll LCPD, responded to Gold's Gym on Hwy 321 N in reference to an employee that was possibly intoxicated. Upon arrival, the officer made contact with the employee in question, who was identified as Kory James Krivda. While speaking with Mr. Krivda, the officer noticed a strong odor of alcohol emitting from his person, as well as, watery, bloodshot eyes. Mr. Krivda admitted that he had had a few drinks, but was "not impaired." Mr. Krivda was placed into custody due to being a danger to himself, and the public. Mr. Krivda's vehicle was left secured in the parking lot, and Gold's Gym was advised of their options regarding the vehicle being towed. Mr. Krivda was transported to the Loudon County Jail without any further incident. This incident did take place within Lenoir City, Loudon County, TN.

Jarvis Payne, 42, Cress Lane Lenoir City, was charged with Criminal Court Capias, (DUI, Vehicular Homicide, handgun)

Deputy Frye LCSO came into contact with Jarvis Payne at Cress Lane. The deputy knew Jarvis to have a Capias, Criminal Court (Case Number 2024-CR-187) Warrant out of Loudon County Criminal Court. After verifying his name and date of birth, the deputy confirmed the warrant, placed Jarvis under arrest, and transported him to the Loudon County Detention Facility. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

Hennis Tracy, 49, Maremont Parkway Loudon, was charged with, Domestic Assault.

Officer Valletto LPD, was dispatched to a potential juvenile problem at West Side Terrace between the complaint and her 11 year old granddaughter. Once on scene Officer Valletto spoke to the complaint who was identified as Ms. Hennis Lorraine Tracy, Ms. Tracy stated that her granddaughter has been unruly and showing attitude towards her from an incident that occurred earlier in the afternoon. Ms. Tracy and her juvenile granddaughter then got into another altercation just before Law Enforcement arrived, the altercation began over instructions for the granddaughter to clean up a mess that she had created. When Officer Valletto spoke to Ms. Tracy she stated during the altercation she struck her Granddaughter, Officer Valletto then spoke to the juvenile granddaughter who stated that during the altercation her Grandmother (Hennis Tracy) repeatedly struck her in the face. When speaking to the juvenile Officer Valletto could see the visible redness in the left side of the juveniles face. After speaking to both parties Officer Valletto placed Ms. Tracy under arrest for Domestic Assault and transported her to the Loudon County Jail. These actions did occur in the City of Loudon TN 37774.

LCSO

Cinnamon Fetner, 39, South Jackson Street Athens, was charged with, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, and Resisting Arrest.

Deputy Brockwell LCSO, arrived at Murrays Chapel Road for a suspicious person call. Prior to arrival, the (complainant), stated that a female by the name of Cinnamon Fetner (offender) was on her porch knocking, and screaming at her door stating that she needed help. Fetner was described to be wearing a camo hoodie with black leggings. When the deputy arrived on scene, he observed Fetner standing in front of the above address on a public roadway screaming and yelling at the complainant. When the deputy asked Fetner what she needed help with, she started screaming and yelling at him. When the deputy attempted to calm down Fetner, she then faced the neighbor's house again and started a verbal altercation with them again. The deputy attempted to calm Fetner down for the second time. When speaking to Fetner the deputy noticed her foaming from the mouth which usually corresponds with drug use. Due to Fetner's erratic behavior, and the possibility of her being under the influence of a narcotic, the deputy attempted to handcuff Fetner and detain her to further his investigation. At this time, Fetner was actively pulling away from him and at this time the deputy placed Fetner on the hood of his patrol car to gain more control of her and advised Fetner she was under arrest for resisting. Cpl. Wallen arrived on scene and assisted him in handcuffing Fetner. When Fetner was in handcuffs she continued to actively resist by pulling away from Brockwell and Cpl. Wallen while attempting to place her in his patrol vehicle. Cpl. Wallen then tased Fetner with her department issued taser in the right hip, and at that time we got Fetner in the back of his patrol vehicle. Fetner is being charged with, public intoxication, disorderly conduct, and resisting arrest. Fetner was transported to the Loudon County Detention Facility without further Incident. This did happen in Loudon County, TN.

Jose Cortez, 25, Harrison Bend Road Loudon, was charged with, Man/Sell/Del/Resale Sch. I, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Financial Responsibility Law, Criminal Court Capias, Attachment, Expiration of Certificates and Plates, and Signing Registration in Vehicle.

Officer Will Jenkins LPD, observed an Infinity car traveling on Hackberry Street with expired tags. The officer conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle near the intersection of Riverbend Drive. The officer made contact with Jose Cortez, who was the lone occupant of the vehicle.

While speaking with Cortez the officer could see beer cans in the passenger side floorboard, and could smell the odor of alcoholic beverage emitting from Cortez mouth. Cortez stated to the officer he shouldn't be driving because he doesn't have a valid license.

The officer ask Cortez to step out of the vehicle and placed him in handcuffs, and placed him in the back of his patrol vehicle. Dispatch advised Cortez had a VOP warrant out of Bradley County, and a Attachment and Capias out of Loudon County. A search of the vehicle the officer discovered an amount of white powder suspected to be cocaine in a plastic baggie inside a white case in a backpack in the trunk of the vehicle.

Also in the backpack was numerous unidentified pills that are red, white, and blue.

The officer also took custody of Cortez wallet with 447.00 dollars that will be dropped into evidence.

Cortez could not show proof of financial Responsibility, or registration. Cortez was transported to the Loudon county Jail.

The civil settlement includes the resolution of claims brought under the qui tam or whistleblower provisions of the False Claims Act by K-VA-T Partnership, LLP. Under those provisions, a private party can file an action on behalf of the United States and receive a portion of any recovery. The qui tam case is captioned U.S. ex rel. K-VA-T Litigation Partnership, LLP v. K-VA-T Food Stores, Inc. d/b/a Food City, Case No. 3:20-cv-436 (EDTN). Relator K-VA-T Litigation Partnership, LLP will receive $1,527,908 of the proceeds from the settlement.

"Pharmacies that fill prescriptions for opioids and other controlled substances have an obligation to ensure that those prescriptions are medically necessary," said Principal Deputy Assistant Attorney General Brian M. Boynton, head of the Justice Department's Civil Division. "The department is committed to holding accountable pharmacies that have abdicated this responsibility and thereby contributed to the nation's opioids crisis."

"When pharmacies fill prescriptions for opioids and other powerful controlled substances without regard to their legitimacy or medical necessity it significantly contributes to the opioid epidemic, causing great harm to our citizens and communities," said U.S. Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III for the Eastern District of Tennessee. "This settlement agreement demonstrates that the United States Attorney's Office and federal, state, and local law enforcement partners, are using all tools available to address the opioid crisis."

"The Medicare and Medicaid programs deliver vital prescription drug services to beneficiaries," said Special Agent in Charge Kelly J. Blackmon of the Department of Health and Human Services Office of Inspector General (HHS-OIG). "This case underscores HHS-OIG's dedication to addressing the nation's opioid overdose crisis and ensuring that only legitimate, medically necessary prescriptions are dispensed."

"The opioid epidemic continues to significantly impact the nation, devastating families across our country," said Special Agent in Charge Derek M. Holt of the Office of Personnel Management Office of the Inspector General. "We applaud our law enforcement partners and colleagues at the Department of Justice for their work to hold pharmacies accountable for actions that could exacerbate the epidemic and endanger the health and safety of patients served by Federal health care programs."

"Today's settlement demonstrates our commitment to holding pharmacies that knowingly dispense medically unnecessary opioids and other controlled substances accountable for their actions," stated Special Agent in Charge Darrin K. Jones of the Department of Defense Office of Inspector General, Defense Criminal Investigative Service (DCIS), Southeast Field Office. "DCIS thanks the U.S. Attorney's Office and our investigative partners for their steadfast dedication to fighting the opioid epidemic plaguing our country and helping us protect servicemembers and their families."

Horoscopes

push it. Trying to strong-arm the situation will only aggravate things and make them worse.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Intense emotions are apt to dominate the scene today, Aquarius. Don't do anything halfway. It's time to give it your all or nothing. You have the power to cut to the heart of the issue. Don't hesitate. If you meet opposition, stay strong. There's a valuable lesson to be learned.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

There's an overwhelming intensity about the day that might make it difficult for you to maintain the peace, Pisces. Strong opinions and courageous emotions are clashing in a climactic fashion. You might find yourself in the middle of conflicting forces if you aren't careful.

Aries 3/21-4/19

You may feel extra self-confident today, Aries, making you more able to say and do the things you might normally keep inside. Be warned, however, that you're apt to run into some powerful, unexpected opposition. The genius in you wants to come out and show others what you're made of, but other people may have reason to find fault.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

You might find that others' strong opinions dictate today's actions, Taurus. The atmosphere is quite intense, so you might want to lay low and let others have their way. Don't try to put up a fight. Unexpected opposition may come out of nowhere and take control. There's a powerful force at work asking you to do things with more passion than usual.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Create your own reality, Gemini. It could be that you have the puppet strings in your hands, but you're too afraid to use them. Don't shy away from responsibility. Take your time and don't lose sight of your goals. The stakes are extra high today, and you will find that the slightest movement is magnified several times over.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

Things that you thought were obvious may not seem quite as clear as you'd like them to be, Cancer. Be aware that there may be some intense opposition to your plans. Take care of other people and their emotions. You will find that a wall might suddenly go up, putting a harsh barrier between you and your goals.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Other people may tend to snap under the emotional pressure of the day, Leo, but you're well suited to soar through with flying colors. You're ruled by your emotions and you have no problem navigating rough waters. Other people may look to you for strength and support.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

There's a need for decisive action today, Virgo, and you're the one fit for the job. Strong wills and forceful opinions will win out. Others aren't likely to be easily manipulated. Everyone has a voice, and they won't be afraid to use it. Make sure that you speak up on your behalf or your best interests may be lost.

Libra 9/23-10/22

There may be tension and opposition today, Libra, so be prepared. It could seem like everyone wants to rattle your cage. Stand strong. There are forceful opinions crying out to be heard. The more stubborn you are, the harder it will be for important information to flow freely.

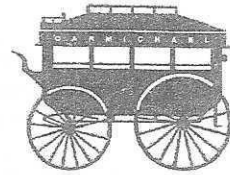

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

What ails you now can be eliminated if you're willing to stand up and say exactly what needs to be said, Scorpio. Going with the flow may be an easy route to follow, but it might not always take you down a path that leads to the fulfillment of your dreams.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

It takes two to tango, Sagittarius. Remember that life isn't a one-way street. There needs to be a bit of give and take if you expect others to treat you the way you want to be treated. Don't let people take control when it comes to taking charge of your own life. Others may be emotional and stubborn.

veterans, and their families. Dispensing medically unnecessary opioids and other controlled substances to our beneficiaries puts them at great risk and will not be tolerated,” said Chief Edward C. Norton Jr. of the Pharmacy Operations Division for the Defense Health Agency. “We will continue to hold pharmacies accountable for abiding by these standards to ensure we are delivering the very best health benefit to those who serve or have served our nation.”

The resolution obtained in this matter was the result of a coordinated effort between the Justice Department’s Civil Division, Commercial Litigation Branch, Fraud Section, and the U.S. Attorney’s Office for Eastern District of Tennessee, with assistance from HHS-OIG and DCIS.

The investigation and resolution of this matter illustrates the government’s emphasis on combating health care fraud. One of the most powerful tools in this effort is the False Claims Act. Tips and complaints from all sources about potential fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement can be reported to HHS at 800-HHS-TIPS (800-447-8477).

The matter was handled by Assistant U.S. Attorneys Alan G. McGonigal, Alexa Ortiz Hadley, and Jeremy S. Dykes for the Eastern District of Tennessee, and Civil Division Fraud Section Trial Attorney Elizabeth J. Kappakas.

The claims resolved by the settlement are allegations only and there has been no determination of liability.
