CDC Confirms Three Human Cases of H5 Bird Flu Among Colorado Poultry Workers

Three additional human cases of highly pathogenic avian influenza (HPAI) A(H5) ("H5 bird flu") virus infection have been confirmed by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in association with a second poultry farm in Northeast Colorado/Weld County. Colorado previously announced one of them as a presumptive positive case on Saturday, July 20. The three confirmed cases occurred in people who were working directly with infected poultry at a commercial egg layer operation that had reported an outbreak of H5 bird flu among poultry.

All three people have mild illness and have been offered the antiviral drug, oseltamivir, for treatment. State and local officials continue to monitor poultry workers on farms with infected poultry. This is a different farm in Colorado from the one where on Friday, July 19, CDC confirmed two additional human cases of H5 bird flu, which brought the total human cases associated with that first poultry farm to six. With the addition of these

Verse of the Day

[When Jesus was teaching in the temple courts, the people rejected his teaching, and] they tried to seize him, but no one laid a hand on him, because his time had not yet come. Still, many in the crowd put their faith in him. They said,

"When the Christ comes, will he do more miraculous signs than this man?"

Jesus Abrigo Garcia, 20, Halls Ferry Road Lenoir City, was charged with, DUI, Evading Arrest, Reckless Driving, and Driving on Revoked/Suspended License.

Deputy Watson LCSO, observed a vehicle traveling in the opposite direction going 62 mph in a 45 mph zone on Highway 70 at Moneymakers Wrecker Service. Deputy Watson turned around and attempted to catch up to the vehicle and observed the vehicle's speed increase. The vehicle appeared to be getting further away from the deputy, Watson activated his emergency equipment and once he was in sight of the vehicle again, Deputy Watson observed it go into the oncoming lane passing a vehicle on a double yellow line. The vehicle made a left onto Creekwood Place and slowed to approximately 30 mph. The vehicle continued for approximately a half mile before coming to a stop. A felony stop was conducted and the driver was taken into custody without incident. Deputy Watson identified the driver as Jesus Abrigo-Garcia (Offender/Arrestee). Deputy Watson detected a strong odor of an intoxicant on Mr. Garcia's person and on his breath as they were speaking, and Mr. Garcia's eyes were bloodshot. Mr. Garcia stated he was enroute home to a residence in Lenoir City from the Smokey Mountain Brewery in Knoxville, TN. Mr. Garcia refused SFSTs/ARIDE testing. Deputy Watson read Mr. Garcia an implied consent form and he agreed to give a blood sample. Loudon County Communications advised me that Mr. Garcia had a suspended driver's license. Mr. Garcia's vehicle was towed by Moneymakers Wrecker Service. Mr. Garcia was transported to the Ft. Loudoun Medical Center for a blood draw. A blood draw was administered and Mr. Garcia was transported to the Loudon County Jail. This did occur in Loudon County, TN.

three new confirmed human cases, the total number of human cases associated with the current poultry outbreaks in Colorado is nine. A CDC multidisciplinary, bilingual field team is currently deployed to support Colorado's response to ongoing poultry outbreaks of H5 bird flu in the state.

Confirmation of these three additional cases brings the total number of human cases of H5 bird flu reported in the United States since April 2024 to 13. Prior to 2024, the only previous human case of H5N1 bird flu in the United States was reported among a poultry worker in Colorado in April 2022. Counting that case, there have been 14 total human cases of H5 bird flu in the United States since 2022.

Based on available data, CDC's current assessment is that the risk to the general public from H5N1 remains low. As we learn more, we will continue to assess the situation and provide updates. These preliminary results again underscore the risk of exposure to infected animals. There are no signs of unexpected increases in flu activity otherwise in Colorado, or in other states affected by H5 bird flu outbreaks in cows and poultry. Human infections with this novel influenza A virus (and others) are concerning because of the potential to cause severe, widespread disease. To date, we have not seen genetic changes in the virus that would make it more likely to transmit between humans, but we are closely monitoring it.

CDC's recommendations related to H5 virus have not changed at this time. Findings from the investigation will inform whether guidance changes are needed. The investigation will include looking into compliance with the recommended use of personal protective equipment. Historically, most human cases of bird flu infection have happened in people who are not wearing recommended personal protective equipment. An analysis of the virus sequences from this outbreak also will be important to determine if a change in the risk assessment is warranted.

CDC Recommendations

- People should avoid unprotected exposures to sick or dead animals, including wild birds, poultry, other domesticated birds, and other wild or domesticated animals (including cows).
- People should also avoid unprotected exposures to animal feces (poop), bedding (litter), unpasteurized ("raw") milk, or materials that have been touched by, or close to, birds or other animals with suspected or confirmed A(H5N1) virus.

- CDC has interim recommendations for prevention, monitoring, and public health investigations of A(H5N1) virus infections in people. CDC also has updated recommendations for worker protection and use of personal protective equipment (PPE). Following these recommendations is central to reducing a person's risk and containing the overall public health risk.

Stop

Shawn Smith, 40, Snapp Ferry Park Greenville, was charged with Reckless Driving, and Resisting Arrest.

Melissa Bass, 43, Destiny Ridge Way Knoxville, was charged with Violation of Probation.

Sgt Espinoza LCPD, observed a silver Infiniti EX3 traveling West on Broadway. The driver later identified as, Shawn Douglas Smith was operating a motor vehicle in a reckless manner disregarding the safety of persons and property. Sgt. Espinoza followed and observed SMITH exit said vehicle prior to walking into the Casey's Gasoline Station. Officers followed the offender into the establishment. However, SMITH locked himself in the women's restroom when officers on scene identified themselves multiple times while hanging on the door. Consequently, Casey's personnel assist law enforcement in opening the door. Immediately after making the entry, Sgt. Espinoza informed SMITH he was under arrest for reckless driving. While attempting to secure the offender, SMITH intentionally and unlawfully used evasive movements to avoid being taken into custody. Nevertheless, SMITH was placed in custody and transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incidents. Prior to finalizing the investigation, officers made contact with SMITH's girlfriend Melissa Bass While officers conducted a field interview with Bass, dispatch advised and confirmed she had two active warrants. Mrs. BASS was also transported to the Loudon County Jail. All the above occurred in Lenoir City, Loudon County, TN

Andres Jorge, 18, Washington Pike Knoxville, was charged with Forgery, License Required, Speeding, and Financial Responsibility Law.

Officer Kelley LPD, was on routine patrol when he observed a dark colored vehicle traveling on Highway 72 at a high rate of speed. Officer Kelley clocked the said vehicle on radar doing 70mph in a 45mph zone on Highway 72 coming around a curve in a high traffic area early in the morning. Officer Kelley conducted a routine traffic stop on the vehicle and the driver later identified as Andres Alonzo Jorge presented me with a medical paper for his identification, when asked how old Mr. Jorge was he stated 17 then changed to 18 and 20. At this time Mr. Jorge was detained at this time due to him not presenting a valid drivers license and giving a different date of birth and name. Upon further investigation Mr. Jorge also had a wallet in his pants pocket in the rear seat of his vehicle which contained a United States of America permanent resident with the picture from Andres Jorge's medical card. The resident card had fading writing on it different name and a different date of birth showing over the age of 21. Officer Kelley transported Andres Alonzo Jorge to the Loudon County Jail for his traffic offenses as well as the fake ID. On scene at the jail Officer Kelley asked Andres Alonzo Jorge if the resident id was fake as well as the date of birth and Andres Jorge stated it was a fake ID. The said actions above occurred in Loudon County TN 37774.

work. Try to avoid any discussions. Just because someone is confrontational doesn't mean you have to rise to the bait.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

You're a dreamer at heart, Virgo. You prefer not to think about material things. That explains why you tend to forget groceries or dry cleaning. You're happiest if things get done for you. But circumstances today will force you to handle some of these mundane chores.

Libra 9/23-10/22

If you follow your instincts and dare to take some risks, Libra, you'll be handsomely rewarded. You have the capability to make a good project great. Do your best not to get distracted today. Keep your eye on the big picture rather than let yourself get bogged down in details.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Finally, Scorpio, you'll be able to breathe a long overdue sigh of relief. It's likely that you've been worried about your finances for some time. Well, you need worry no longer. The events of today either put you back in the black or show you a clear path to get there. You've been working hard to resolve these financial matters.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Separate the wheat from the chaff today. Look at your relationships and decide who your true friends are. You're loyal, which is to your credit, but why be loyal to people who don't return it? You've given these so-called friends plenty of chances to demonstrate their affection.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Whether you acknowledge it or not, Capricorn, creation is the central theme of your life. If you aren't an artist or writer, you should be. There are plenty of creative ideas in your head clamoring to be expressed. Why not give it a try? You have nothing to lose, and you may be astonished by what you're able to produce.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

You seem to be filled with questions, Aquarius. Some of them are big, some trivial. All you know is that they preoccupy you, and the answers aren't readily apparent. Don't fret. All that will change by day's end. The planetary configurations are such that all the confusing events of recent days will begin to make sense.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

You're an individual, Pisces, but sometimes it's hard for you to suppress your uniqueness in order to get the job done. It may not be you. The problem may be your job. If you're feeling like you don't have enough fun in your life or you aren't using the full potential of your creativity, this might be a good time to make a change—a big change.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Your ego may be bruised by events from a few days back. Has it occurred to you that it's within your power to right the wrong you feel was done to you? It's not a matter of confrontation out of conversation. The person in question is probably unaware of what they did or said. An expression of your dismay might elicit an apology.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Today's planetary configurations are pushing you to get some perspective on your life and the lives of people closest to you, Taurus. You must admit that you've been rather selfish lately. You aren't the center of the universe, so why do you sometimes act like you are? This is a day to make amends with friends and loved ones.

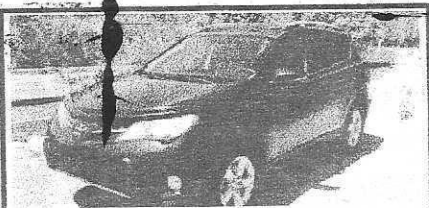

Gemini 5/21-6/20

This is a day to be up front with your partner, Gemini. It's possible that your relationship has reached some sort of stalemate. It's up to you to get that fire burning brightly once again.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

This is a day of untold opportunity, Cancer. If you've been concerned that you haven't been using your full creative potential, you can put that concern to rest today. Your creativity is boundless and you'll finally realize it.
