Knoxville Woman Sentenced To Over Eight Years In Murder For Hire Plot

Jack Scarbrough

(see Gun pg. 3)

Melody Sasser, 48, of Knoxville, TN, was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 100 months by the Honorable Thomas A. Varlan, United States District Judge, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Knoxville. Following her imprisonment, Sasser will be on supervised release for three years. Sasser was also ordered to pay over $5,389.31 in restitution to the victim in this case.

As part of the plea agreement filed with the court, Sasser pled guilty to using interstate commerce facilities in the commission of murder-for-hire, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1958.

According to filed court documents, Sasser admitted to using a dark web-hosted site known as the Online Killers Market for the purpose of hiring a hitman to murder an Alabama resident. In her communications with the site, Sasser provided photographs and location information of the victim. Sasser also requested that the killing appear "to seem random or accident. Or plant drugs, do not

Charged

Ryan Price, 42, Allison Lane Lenoir City, was charged with, Man/Sell/Del/

Resale Sch. I x5, Unlawful Carrying or Possession of Handgun, Possession of a Handgun while under the Influence, Contraband in Penal Institution, Public Intoxication, and Possession of Drug Para.

Officer H. Wilkes LCPD, advised me there was a male who was later identified as Ryan Price walking up 1st Avenue grabbing on to trees for balance and stumbling. Officer J. Robinson turned onto Kingston Street where he observed Mr. Price walking in front of Kingston Street carrying two black bags and stumbling. The officer then activated his emergency lights behind the male and asked him if he was okay and he stated "Yes, I just left the gym." While he stated that the officer observed him to have pinpoint pupils and slurred speech. The officer then asked Mr. Price if he had used any illegal narcotics to which he stated "NO." Officer G. Butler then arrived on scene and Robinson asked Mr. Price to speak with him while he performed a records check. The officer then asked Dispatch to check him for warrants. After the check came back, the officer was notified that Mr. Price had a V.O.P. out of the Blount County General Sessions Court. I then placed Mr. Price under arrest and began going through his belongings before putting them into his patdown gram of a brown powder Mr. Price stated was heroin in one baggie, seven Focalin in one baggie, three Sildenafil in one baggie, three vials of testosterone, three needles, two cut red straws with residue inside, eighteen empty baggies and a Phoenix Arms HP22A .22 pistol. Mr. Price was then transported to the Loudon County Jail. While at the jail Corrections Deputies asked Mr. Price if he had any illegal contraband, and he stated "No." The jail then notified me that they found six 8mg suboxone pills located, in a Chap Stick holder, in his bag. Mr. Price is also a convicted felon for Theft of Property in 2010, Vehicular Assault 2016, Reckless Endangerment/Deadly Weapon 2017. All the above did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee

Officers with the Lenoir City Police Department, responded to Highway 321 - The Greener Alternative, located in Lenoir City, TN in regards to an armed subject involving a handgun. On scene officers made contact with victim 1 who reported that a male subject who was later identified to be Jack Scarbrough initially came into the store with his dog but was stopped and told that no pets were allowed inside of the store. JACK was then seen taking his dog back to his vehicle where he then returned to the store. While in the store victim 1 reported that JACK became very aggressive towards an employee victim 2 who is also his fiancée stating that he was cussing and causing a disturbance. At this time JACK was asked to leave the store where he continued to cuss and cause a disturbance. Victim 1 reported that he then stepped in and asked JACK to leave and to stop disrespecting his fiancée and the store. It was reported that JACK then became aggressive towards victim 1 at which time JACK began cussing him while unzipping his "Gucci Man Purse" that was wrapped around his person. Victim 1 reported that JACK placed his hand inside of his bag to the point that you could not see his hand and began walking towards him. JACK then exited the store where he continued to cuss victim 1 saying "come outside fat a%$". As JACK was in the front breezeway of the business he turned towards victim 1 where he placed his right hand into his Gucci bag and removed a black in color handgun brandishing it towards victim 1 placing him in fear for his life. JACK was located along with the handgun where he was placed under arrest and transported to the Loudon County Jail

Michael Hensley, 46, Old Highway 95 Lenoir City, was charged with Evading Arrest, Driving on Revoked/Suspended License, Financial Responsibility Law, and Lenoir City Capias.

Officer Farmer LCPD, observed a red Ford Explorer Sport Trac, bearing TN tag 511BGRT, traveling westbound on Creekwood Park Blvd. While behind the vehicle, the officer observed it to have an expired registration, and after running the registration through the Tennessee Criminal Justice Portal, the officer confirmed that the tag was expired as of 08/2023. The vehicle pulled into a business on Creekwood Park Blvd, then pulled back out, traveling eastbound on Creekwood Park Blvd, towards Hwy 70. The officer observed the vehicle to be traveling away from him at a high rate of speed, so the officer activated his emergency equipment (lights and sirens) while behind the vehicle on Creekwood Park Blvd, just before LCUB. The vehicle continued to travel towards Hwy 70, and then made a right turn onto Hwy 70. The vehicle then continued on Hwy 70, passing multiple areas to pull over, and turned onto Ford Road. The vehicle then passed multiple areas of pullover and continued on Ford Road before pulling into a residence on Ford Road. After the vehicle stopped, the officer ordered the driver out and placed him into my custody. Once in his custody, the officer identified him as 46-year-old Michael Hensley. When speaking to Mr. Hensley, he stated that he did not pull over because he did not want his vehicle towed. The officer ran Mr. Hensley through Central Dispatch, to which they advised him he had a suspended Tennessee Driver's License status and was showing an active warrant for Failure to Appear out of Lenoir City Municipal Court (MC13-01232). It was also confirmed that Mr. Hensley did not have valid insurance on his vehicle. Mr. Hensley was placed into the officer car and transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. The above did occur within Loudon County, Tennessee.

want a long investigation.” In exchange for the anticipated murder of the victim, Sasser used the internet to transmit nearly $10,000 in cryptocurrency to the would-be assassins. Ultimately, the plan was unsuccessful. Sasser was arrested, and her home searched. At her house, law enforcement uncovered a journal listing out several other hitman websites, a handwritten account of communications with the Online Killers Market, and a stack of U.S. currency underneath a sticky note listing a Bitcoin address.

United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton III and Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) Special Agent in Charge Rana Saoud made the announcement.

The charges were the result of an investigation by HSI

Knoxville and HSI Birmingham, with the assistance of the Knoxville Police Department and the Prattville, Alabama Police Department.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Anne-Marie Svolto of the Eastern District of Tennessee is prosecuting the case.

Truman Chapman, 48, Steekee Creek Road Loudon, was charged with Public Intoxication.

Officer G. Butler LCPD, was dispatched to West 1st Avenue in reference to an Unwanted Guest at the residence. Upon arrival, Officer made contact with the complainant who was visiting with her grandmother at the residence advised that a male subject had been on the porch multiple times during the day and showed up again prior to her calling and advised that he appeared to have been intoxicated after she found him sleeping on the porch of the residence. The complainant asked the male to leave which he did. At the time of my arrival that male was no longer on scene, but Officer J. Robinson was able to locate a male matching the description given by the complainant at Cavalry Baptist Church down the street from the residence. At which point the officer went to make contact with that subject who was then found sitting on a bench near the cemetery at the church. The officer immediately observed an open container of an alcoholic beverage which was a 24 FL. OZ. “Red’s Wicked Apple” beer containing 8% alcohol sitting on the ground near the subject. The officer then spoke as Truman Chapman and asked him if he had just been at the residence of the complainant which he advised that he had been. Chapman stated that he came to the church after he was told to leave the residence. While speaking with Chapman he stated that he had drank about half of the alcoholic beverage that was on the ground in front of him, and the officer did observe Chapman to have slurred speech and to be making numerous incoherent statements”. A strong odor of alcohol was also observed to be emitting from Chapman’s person as well while speaking with him. If left alone in public Mr. Chapman would be a danger to him and others. Due to the aforementioned, Chapman was then taken into custody for Public Intoxication and transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. All the above did occur in Loudon County, Lenoir City Tennessee

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Inspiration for writing, music, drawing, painting, or other creative activities could hover just out of reach today, Scorpio. Great ideas could pop into your head and out just as quickly. The only way to avoid the frustration of missing out on wonderful ideas is to write them down as soon as they come.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

Today you could run into an old friend and suddenly see him or her in a different light. A romantic, sensual attraction you never believed possible could suddenly seem overwhelming. Try to gauge if this person feels the same way. If so, plan a date. Don't write this possibility off because you've labeled this person a "friend."

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

A current or potential love relationship could hit a snag as you have a clash of wills. If either of you is stubborn, this could turn into an unpleasant power struggle. Try to work out a course of action that creates a win/win situation, so neither of you feels compromised. In this way, the development of your relationship will progress rather than regress.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

An opportunity to increase your income by working in an artistic or innovative manner could come your way today, Aquarius. Technologies like film or computer graphics may be involved. You may have doubts about your ability to take this on, but that's only your insecurity. Don't be timid.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Circumstances beyond your control may frustrate your desire to get together with a love partner today, Pisces. Work or family obligations could interfere. If your partner has to beg off, don't get upset and start doling out blame. This won't help and could put your friend on the defensive.

Aries 3/21-4/19

Family who mean a lot to you can make your home an even warmer and cozier place, Aries.

You'll probably spend a lot of time fixing it up in order to receive sincere compliments. The only downside might be that your current partner may not be there due to circumstances beyond anyone's control.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

A long but necessary phone call from a close friend or love partner could come at work today, Taurus. Matters of immediate concern need resolution. You might be uneasy about taking company time, and could even attract some unsettling attention, but you need to have this conversation now. It probably won't have any long-term negative effects, so do what you have to do.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Today you might discover a previously untapped talent, Gemini, perhaps an artistic gift. This could be thrilling, but it will probably take some getting used to. Your first efforts might be tentative and uncertain, but this is what usually happens when you learn a new skill.

Cancer 6/21-7/22

You should be looking especially attractive, Cancer. You may have an ethereal, mystical look about you that attracts attention from strangers. This won't be lost on your friends, either. You could find it unsettling, particularly if people get too attentive or if a love partner gets jealous.

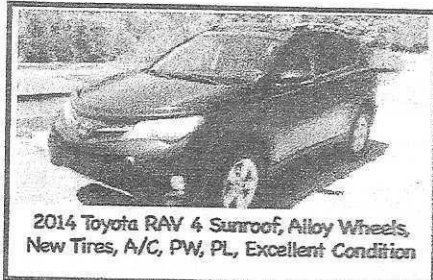

Leo 7/23-8/22

Your phone may seem haunted today, Leo. Calls might be filled with static, you could get some phantom rings, or callers may insist they tried to call when your phone never rang.

Virgo 8/23-9/22

A reassessment of your financial goals may be needed now, Virgo. Some of your expectations may be unrealistic, and you might need to look at them in a more practical light. This doesn't mean they won't happen, just that they're apt to take a little longer than you'd like. Think of it as an opportunity to develop patience. Rework your budget and hang in there!
