Ooltewah Man Sentenced To 32 Years Imprisonment For Exploitation Of A Minor, Receipt Of Child Pornography, And Possession Of Child Pornography

Dewayne Douglas Price, Jr., 42, of Ooltewah, Tennessee, was sentenced to 384 months by the Honorable Travis R. McDonough, Chief United States District Court Judge, in the United States District Court at Chattanooga, to a term of imprisonment of 32 years. Following his incarceration, Price will be on a term of supervised release for life, and he will be required to register with state sex offender registries and comply with special sex offender conditions.

Pursuant to the filed plea agreement, Price pled guilty to four counts, two counts of Exploitation of a Minor, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2251(a), receipt of Child Pornography, in violation

Jamaican Man Sentenced To 63 Months For His Role In Conspiracy To Defraud Elderly Woman

Morice Armani Brown, 24 years old, a Jamaican national, currently of Florida, was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 63 months by the Honorable Thomas A. Varlan, United States District Judge, in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Tennessee at Knoxville. Following his imprisonment, he will be on supervised release for a period of one year. The defendant was also ordered to repay nearly $700,000 in restitution to the victim in this case.

As part of the plea agreement filed with the court, Brown pled guilty to conspiracy to commit mail fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 1349 and 1341. Brown's co-conspirators, Marklyn Antonio Forrester, Jamali Jermaine Ramsay, and Jahmarley Kiboki McFarlane, were sentenced to 63 months, 36 months, and 57 months in prison, respectively. A fifth individual, Tessa Nicole Hines, is scheduled to be sentenced in October 2024, for her role in laundering money related to this scheme.

According to court documents, Brown

Verse of the Day

[When the light from heaven flashed around him, Saul] fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" "Who are you, Lord?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting," he replied.

Felisha Burchfield, 38, Old Spears Road Lenoir City, was charged with, Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Jonathon Lawson, 23, Beals Chapel Road Lenoir City, was charged with, Mfg/Del/Sale or Poss. of Meth, and Poss. of Drug Para.

Deputy Harrison LCSO, observed a red Chevy Silverado at Lake Country Market with dark window tint. The deputy conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle for the violation on Old Spears Road and Beals Chapel Road. Upon contact with the driver, Johnathan Lawson, the deputy advised him of the reason for the stop and confirmed the tint to be 3 percent. The deputy then gathered his information as well as the backseat passengers, Felisha Burchfield and a female. At this point, the deputy had Lawson exit the vehicle and come to the passenger seat of his patrol unit to issue a warning for the violation and speak with him further. Due to his prior knowledge of the back seat passenger Burchfield's extensive narcotics history, the deputy asked if there was anything illegal in the vehicle while issuing his warning. At this point, Lawson stated "no". the deputy asked if there would be any reason his k9 would alert him to the odor of narcotics in the vehicle to which he also stated "no". Harrison handed Deputy Huskins his citation book to finish issuing the warning for window tint. Harrison deployed his k9 partner Draco to sniff the exterior of the vehicle at which point he positive-see Stop ctd. pg. 3 ly alerted to the driver-side door seam of the vehicle. During a probable cause search, Harrison located approximately 2.26g of meth, and a meth pipe with residue in the driver seat back pocket concealed within a glasses case. After his search, the deputy spoke with Lawson who denied possession of the narcotics. The deputy spoke with Burchfield who was sitting directly behind the driver seat, and she also denied possession. Based on the totality of the circumstances, both Lawson and Burchfield were placed in custody. While en route to the jail, Burchfield advised Deputy Huskins she had narcotics concealed on her person. Once on scene, the jail staff located a meth pipe and 2 clear baggies containing approximately 1.26g of meth concealed within her underwear. This did occur in Loudon County, Tennessee.

Exploitation

of 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(2), and Possession of Child Pornography, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2252(a)(4)(b), on February 23, 2024.

According to filed court documents, Price solicited women throughout the United States to molest their children and then send him images of the abuse. Price confessed to law enforcement, and some of the women throughout the U.S. have also been charged by federal or state authorities.

"As the court records show, Price's conduct was depraved and outrageous," said United States Attorney Francis M.

Hamilton III. "Our office is committed to pursuing, uncovering, and prosecuting to the full extent of the law the criminals who sexually victimize children."

"Children are among the most vulnerable members of our community, and we must protect them in any way we can. This case is a great example of the work that can be done when state, federal, and local law enforcement agencies collaborate across state lines. We will continue to work diligently with our partners to identify and investigate those who engage in this predatory behavior to ensure the safety of our children," said Special Agent in Charge Joseph E. Carrico of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI).

Law enforcement agencies participating in the joint investigation which led to the conviction of Price included the FBI and the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office.

Assistant United States Attorney James Brooks prosecuted the case in coordination with Special Assistant United States Attorney Charles D. Minor, who is assigned to the United States Department of Justice to combat child sex offenses, in partnership with the Hamilton County District Attorney General's Office.

This case was investigated as part of Project Safe Childhood (PSC), a nationwide initiative launched in May 2006, by the Department of Justice to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse. Led by the United States Attorney's Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section, PSC marshals federal, state, and local resources to locate, apprehend, and prosecute individuals who sexually exploit children, and to identify and rescue victims. Theft

Brooke Kiser, 33, Homeless Loudon, was charged with, Theft of Property, and Burglary.

Officer G. Butler LCPD, was dispatched to Lakeway Urgent Care regarding a theft that had occurred there earlier. Upon arrival, the officer made contact with the complainant/victim inside Lakeway Urgent Care. Victim advised that a female who was sitting outside in the grass in front of the building later identified as Brooke Ann Kiser reached into his vehicle, a 2006 Toyota Sienna Van blue in color and took a can of Snuff Tobacco out of it. The victim had not given Brooke Kiser his effective consent to reach into his vehicle or to take any items out of the vehicle. When speaking with Brooke regarding the incident she stated that she did take a can of Snuff tobacco and that she took it out of the van parked in front of Lakeway Urgent Care, the same van owned by the victim. While attempting to get camera footage of the incident, Dr. Sanabria of Lakeway Urgent Care advised that his Tesla Cybertruck has a camera and possibly captured footage of the what had occurred. Officer J. Robinson was able to view the camera footage of the Tesla Cybertruck owned by Dr. which did show the above offender Brooke Ann Kiser reaching into the passenger side window of the victim's van attempting to commit a theft and removing the can of tobacco out of it without having consent to do so while also knowingly exercising control over the victim property without his effective consent. Upon which the officer placed the listed offender Brooke Ann Kiser into custody and she was then transported to the Loudon County Jail without further incident. All of the above did occur in Loudon County, Lenoir City Tennessee conspired to defraud a 76-year-old Lenoir City resident out of nearly $700,000 by tricking her into believing she had won millions of dollars in a sweepstakes' competition through the mail. Brown and the co-conspirators convinced the victim to pay various fees and taxes to claim the winnings and traveled to Lenoir City to collect funds from the victim. The conspirators then split the proceeds between themselves and others.

United States Attorney Francis M. Hamilton, III, of the Eastern District of Tennessee made the announcement.

The charges were the result of an investigation by the Lenoir City Police Department and the United States Postal Inspection Service.

Assistant U.S. Attorneys Anne-Marie Svolto and Michael Deel of the Eastern District of Tennessee are prosecuting the case.

Horoscopes

counselor, or even a close friend or relative. Whoever it is, Virgo, don't accept what this person says at face value. Libra 9/23-10/22

Someone close to you may not be totally honest. This person could be avoiding telling the truth or hiding something from you in order to protect you. Trust your instincts, Libra. If someone tells you something important that doesn't ring true, check it out before accepting one person's word. This isn't a vicious deception - only a protective one.

Scorpio 10/23-11/21

Weariness may have you feeling a bit listless today, Scorpio, and you're likely to want to stay home in bed rather than go anywhere. This goes against your normal inclination, so you could be tempted to bite the bullet and get out in spite of your malaise. Don't fall into this trap.

Sagittarius 11/22-12/21

A lover or close friend may seem to have dropped out of the picture, and this could have you worried, confused, and wondering if this person isn't interested in continuing a relationship with you. Don't let your insecurity get the best of you. The person has his or her troubles and will eventually want a strong, sympathetic shoulder to cry on.

Capricorn 12/22-01/19

Career interests may be short-circuited by gossip, rumor, and office politics. Someone has an agenda and isn't likely to care too much about the effect on others' lives of any underhanded dealings. If you hear about such goings-on, Capricorn, do what you can to stop them before they get out of hand.

Aquarius 1/20-2/18

Perhaps you've been planning a trip or a return to school for a long time. However, Aquarius, a rather disturbing letter or phone call could jeopardize your plans and leave you teetering on the edge of disappointment. If you look at the situation carefully, you may find that it doesn't set you back that much.

Pisces 2/19-3/20

Seemingly bad news about your financial situation could throw your usually even-keeled nature off kilter. Look into the matter carefully before panicking, Pisces. There may have been a computer error or other mistake, or perhaps someone confused you with someone else. Take steps to rectify the blunder.

Aries 3/21-4/19

An unpleasant situation could arise. Your first reaction may be to protect those closest to you from the truth. You could be tempted to lie or at least avoid mentioning the situation. Don't give in to the temptation, Aries. Your desire to shield loved ones is understandable, but it could cause problems.

Taurus 4/20-5/20

Your mind may be going a thousand miles an hour today. You might be inundated with new ideas and information that could cause mental overload. Write it all down if you can. You'll want to refer to it later. It might be advisable to then go out for a walk or other exercise.

Gemini 5/21-6/20

Worries over the situation of a lover or close friend who seems depressed could plague you today, yet you may hesitate to contact this person and ask what's wrong because you don't want to intrude.

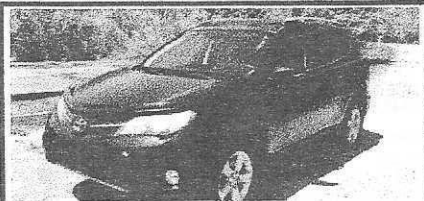

Cancer 6/21-7/22

A family member may be depressed and not up for talking about what's wrong. His or her mood could spread to everyone else, so it might be a good idea to ask what's wrong. Point out that moods are contagious! Don't force the issue, Cancer.

Leo 7/23-8/22

Misinformation might spread through your extended family or neighborhood and cause unnecessary upsets among those involved. Don't accept at face value any gossip or rumor you hear today until you check it out yourself, Leo. It could turn out to be a tempest in a teapot.
