Raid

Agent Brendan DeBoer, 9th DTF reported a major high-light and significant victory for law enforcement Monday, and to give credit where credit is due. Monday morning, a joint effort between the 9th Judicial Drug Task Force (JDTF), Loudon County, and Blount County SWAT teams successfully shut down a major drug operation at 14420 Beals Chapel Rd. in Lenoir City. For those of you who've been following along, this location has been a hub of criminal activity for several years, with frequent law enforcement calls, sustained drug use, and its reputation as a haven for stolen property and wanted criminals.

Agent Fritts and the 9th JDTF have been quietly monitoring the situation, gathering intelligence, and, through some serious legwork, managed to infiltrate the operation. With the help of a cooperator, multiple controlled buys were made from the suspects. By the time today rolled around, the residence, owned by Mike Brown, had become a squatters' paradise — housing numerous homeless individuals, drug users, and people with active warrants. We're talking about ten or more people occupying the house, barn, and various campers. Not exactly the type of neighborhood anyone dreams of living in.

In a well-coordinated effort, the SWAT teams from Loudon and Blount County provided the necessary support to safely execute the search warrant. When law enforcement see Raid ctd. pg. 3 entered the property, they encountered 8 suspects and uncovered a staggering assortment of illegal items: over 100 grams of methamphetamine, 20 firearms, Fentanyl, cocaine, oxycodone, psychedelic mushrooms, marijuana, and various prescription pills. All in a day's work, right?

Thanks to the expertise and determination of Agent Fritts and the 9th JDTF, six individuals were arrested on felony drug charges, with additional charges related to firearms, especially considering the criminal backgrounds of several suspects.

This operation is a huge win for the community, which has suffered greatly from the ongoing decline in the area caused by these criminals' activities. A massive thank you to all who made this possible. The professionalism and cooperation of the Loudon and Blount County SWAT teams were absolutely critical, and the Task Force couldn't have done this
